NEW YORK POLITICS.

NEW YORK. September 21.—The tol-wing are the resolutions of the New York Republican Convention:

Hon. Henry J. Raymond. on behalf of the committee on resolutions, read the following;

Resolved, That we congratulate the peo-Resolved, That we congratulate the peo-people this State, and of the nation, upon the overthrow of the rebellion and the return of peace to all sections of our com-mon country, and that we find, in the preservation of our Ucion, the re-estab-lishment of the national authority, and the extirpation of shavery, an ample rec-ompense for the sufferings and sacrifices by which these results have been achiev-ed.

Resolved, That, to the soldiers and sailors of all ranks and in all departments sailors of all ranks and in all departments by whose velor, under Divine Providence, this great result has been accomplished, and who have by their heroism, shed new and undying lustre on the American name, we return the heartfelt thanks of a grateful people, and that we renew the demand made by the Union National Convention at Baltimore, that adequate provisions be made by the national authority for the support and comfort of such of their survivors as have received honorable and disabling wounds in the service of their country.

Resolved. That while we deplore the death by assassination of Abraham Lin-coln as closing a career of transcendent usefulness and honor, and as a great na-Johnson his successor, a statesman of ability, experience, high-toned patriotism and the most unsulfied integrity—one who has rendered invaluable service to the Union cause during the rebellion, and whose single hearted devotion to the permanent prosperity and glory of our country, commands the respect and condidence of the American people, that we renew to him, in his Administration, the assurances of cordial and effectual support, which were tendered by us in his nomi-

Resolved, That we approve, as eminently wise and just, the sentiments of kindness and confidence which President Johnson has evinced towards those of the Johnson has evinced towards those of the communities and individuals lately in rebellion, who accept the perpetuation of the Union and the perpetual prohibition of slavery, as the legitimate and irrevocable results of the war; that we approve the initial steps he has taken towards relaxing the bonds of military authority in the Southern States, and in restoring to their people full and complete control to the proposed states. to their people fall and complete control over their local affairs, just as soon as it may be found compatible with the pres-ervation of order, the maintenance of peace, the exclusion of slavery, and the fulfillment of the constitutional obligations of the national authority, to guarantee to every State a republican form of government; and that we confidently look forward, under his wise and patriot-ic administration, to the establishment of mere cordial relations of greater mu tnal respect, and of stronger interest in each other's welfare, between the northern and southern sections of the country than have hitherto prevailed, and that in all the measures he may adopt, tending to the attainment of these just and be nevolent ends, we pledge him our cordial nevolent ends, we pleage him our cordial and hearty support.

Resolved, That while we regard the national sovereignty over all the subjects committed to it by the Constitution of the United States, as having been confirmed and established by the recent war, we regard the several States in the Union as having the jurisdiction over all local and demestic affilire expressly restored to domestic affairs expressly restored to them by the same constitutional authori-ty, and that whenever it shall be deemed compatible with the public safety to re-store to the States lately in recellien the renewed exercise of those rights, we trust it will be done in the faith and on the basis that they will be exercised in asnicasis that they will be exercised in aspir-it of equal and impartial justice, and with a view to the elevation and preparation for the full rights of citizenship of all their people, inasmuch as these are prin-ciples which constitute the basis of our basis that they will be exercised in a spirrepublican institutions.

Resolved, That the restoration of peace will enable the Government to restore the civil tribunals of the country to their just and and national supremacy, and that we have full and entire confidence that this will be done as soon as the safety of the nation will permit and no sooner.

Resolved, That the debt incurred by the nation in defense of its own existence,

Resolved, That we have entire confidence in the direction under President Johnson of our intercourse with foreign nations, in his prompten forcement against all just demands in securing redress for national insults and wrongs, and in main-taining the fixed policy of our govern-ment by which the interference of foreign powers with the institutions of this continent is regarded as hostile to our peace and menacing to our independence:

Resolved. That we tender our congrat ulations to Hon. Wm. II. Seward, ulations to Hon. Wm. II. Seward, upon his providential escape from the knife of the assasin, and we rejoice that his dis-tinguished services may still be contin-ued to the nation and the cause of liberty.

Resolved, That the administration of Resoured, that the administration of Governor Fenton deserves and commands the respect and confidence of the people of this State, and that we pledge to it our cordial and hearty support.

Resolved, That we call upon the local constituencies of the several districts in this State in selecting candidates for the

this State in selecting candidates for the legislative, and other offices, to nominate none but men of known integrity of character, as the only means of avoiding corruption and securing an honest administration of public affairs.

Resolved, That as the Union party has Resolved, That as the Union party has steadily sustained the Government in this contest with the rebellion, not only against its open enemies in the field, but against those who gave their aid or organized.

sympathy and encouragement in this and other loyal States, so will it now main-tain its authority and second its efforts to restore all the blessings of union, freedom, and peace to all sections of our common country, and we confidently appeal to its past history, its present, and the character of its candidates as its title to public confidence and support.

After the reading of the resolutions, and in response to loud calls, Hon. Henry J. Raymond briefly addressed the convention, congratuladressed the convention, congratuating the delegates upon the unanimity and harmony that has marked all their proceedings, and the excellence of the ticket they had put in nomination. The resolutions were then adopted unanimously.

On motion of Mr. Raymond, the following was adopted with warm applause:

Resolved, That we repel, as false and calumnious, the imputations cast by the Democratic Convention upon the official integrity and personal honesty of Chauncey M. Depew, Secretary of State, and that we endorse his official conduct in the numeration of the census, and iu all respects as worthy of the approval and commendation of the people.

Mr. Waldo Hutchins offered the following resolution, which was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That we tender to the able men who have sustaine the cause of American Nationality in England, our grateful thanks, and mingle our mourning with that of his countless friends in this country for the loss of

Hon. Chauncey M. Depew was then called for, and responded in a few remarks, thanking the Convention for their many and warm manifestations of approval of his official conduct exhibited here to-day, and expressed the conviction that they had not act-
