

The Farmers Department.

OUR SHORT FRUIT LIST.

We again present to our readers, as the time approaches for transplanting, a revised list of Fruit Trees, Vines, &c., which we can recommend for general cultivation.

- 1. Early Catharine, 7. Giffard, 8. Shelden, 9. Flemish Beauty, 10. Anjou, 11. Lawrence, 12. Potts.

Of the above, from No. 1 to 4 are summer varieties; from 5 to 10 autumn; and 11 and 12 winter, thus affording a sufficient number for each of the periods of the best known sorts for this region.

- 1. St. Michael, 2. Bartlett, 3. Conico, 4. Diel, 5. Boussock, 6. Belle Lucrative.

We give only six kinds for dwarf, believing that it is better to have a few and good sorts than a great many, one-half for three-fourths of which are indifferent.

- 1. Maiden's Blush, 2. Baldwin, 3. L. I. Russett, 4. Jeffers, 5. Smith's Cider, 6. Northern Spy.

- 1. Crawford's Early, 2. George IV, 3. Morris White, 4. Oldmixon (free), 5. Oldmixon (cling), 6. Bergen's Yellow.

There are several new grapes, as our readers know, which have lately been presented to the public, the solid value of which has not yet been positively established.

- 1. Concord, 2. Adirondac, 3. Delaware, 4. Telegraph, 5. Hart's Prolific, 6. Creveling.

We cultivate all these varieties of the raspberry, in addition to the Hudson River Antwerp and the Old Purple. We omit the Hudson River from our list this season, and substitute the Philadelphia, a new variety which promises to be valuable.

- 1. Russell's Prolific, 2. Hovey's Seedling, 3. Triumph d'Grand, 4. Albany Seedling.

We consider these the two best currants. We have the Cherry currant, which is larger than the Red Dutch, but it is too acid; while the White Dutch, which is of good size and flavor, and transparent in appearance, is a poor grower, or of a sprawling habit, and bears mostly near the ground, which dries the fruit and extracts the flavor.

These are the two best and most profitable cultivated. All the huge imported kinds are thick skinned, tough, and are sure to mildew.

It is better that those who intend to cultivate fruit and have to make purchases, should take this list with them to the nursery, and adhere to it as far as possible.

Letter from President Johnson. [From the London Star.] The following letter has been forwarded to us for publication.

EXECUTIVE OFFICE, WASHINGTON, D. C., July 20th, 1865.

MY DEAR SIR:—I thank you for your letter of the 30th of June. I shall use my best endeavors to make my administration national, and not partisan.

Our nation has come out of its four years struggle for existence strengthened and purified, and with a capacity for a growth in the future unparalleled in history.

I am pleased to hear from so intelligent an observer as yourself that the fact that Government is a Government of the people—existing only for the people—is being appreciated in Europe.

I trust our national success will prove the success of our popular principles throughout the world.

Leading Rebels in Texas. NEW YORK, September 19.—The Galveston Bulletin, in an article on the leading men of Texas, says: General Sam Houston, opposing secession in every way possible, was hurled from the gubernatorial chair, by a Convention whose authority he denounced, and died amidst the crushing storm he foretold.

REPUTATION.—In Rome, after the liberties of the people had been destroyed by their general corruption, ambitious demagogues were wont to appeal to the base passions for the furtherance of their own selfish schemes.

UNITY AND VARIETY.—The utterances of the Republican State Conventions are very much diversified this year, and yet they are remarkably unique.

At present we are not prepared to change our strawberry list. There are many new candidates for public favor, but for family use and market combined we know of none to be preferred to the foregoing.

How honorably does this peculiarity distinguish these documents from the quibbling, deceptive, narrow partyism that appears in the babel utterances of the opposition.
