Where is all this great concourse of people going, with their Stock-their mplements of husbandry-their handiwork of every kind, with fruits, flowers, &c? To the Fair of course. Hadn't we better go too? Certainly! Why even the Court has adjourned to go to the Fair It's going to be a grand success.

We have not had time to lay be ore our readers a synopsis of the proceed. ings of Court, but may next week. Not much of interest occurred, however, save the ordinary routine of Judicial proceed ings. be In our paper this week will be found the enrolment act, also the Proclamation of the President which was is sued bearing on the same subject. If any election officer feels at liberty to disregard them and receive the votes of those embraced in them, let him do so at his peril. And if any deserter or nonreporter sees fit to insist on voting, let him too, take the consequences. Let a record be made of all such cases and they will receive attention in due time.

Alleged Gold Discovery NEAR OIL CITY .- A correspondent of the Cleve-land Leader, named Hugh Joynt, writing from Oil City on the 8th, says that some time since a man found what he thought was gold, but which was pronounced worthless. "Last Sunday he took a Cal-iformian to the spot where the supposed pre-Horman to ne spot where the supposed pre-cious metal was found, for the purpose of fooling and having some fun with him. The old miner dug some deeper in the ground than he had done, when he found the "simon pure" article. Five good as-sayers in Pittsburgh pronounce it fine gold. A gentleman of reliability told me a few moments are that he saw it after it a few moments ago that he saw it after it had been hammered, and has no hesitation in pronouncing it a pare quality of gold.
