Victoria Brechier.

A young man by the name of Victoria Brechier, is supposed to live somewhere in Butler county; if he should meet with this notice, he will be informed of the death of his father-Jacob Brechier,which occurred on the 3d of October .-He is also requested to return home immediately.

Julius Brechier.

Dr. Oldshue having been engaged to deliver a course of Lectures (24 in number,) on Urino-Pathology, in the Philadelphia University of Medicine and Surgery, will be necessarily absent from Pittsburgh a short time in November.

Any professional services or communi-cations desired before the 6th will be cheerfully attended to.

He will be at home again on the 20th of November, when business will be promptly resumed and he will be pleased Street, Pittsburgh, Pa.

Teachers' Institute.

In our paper this week is a well writ ten, and well timed communication on this subject. The Institute is to conmence on the 7th, inst., as will be seen by the call, also in our paper. We were sorry that this communication did not reach us in time for our last issue. We hope all friends of education will reach the restriction of the hand bill calling an indignation meeting. it carefully and profit by its wise suggestions. Let teachers and other friends of education come together and interchange views, and thus improve themselves, that they may be the better fitted for the great work before them, -the education of the week, will be found an able and interesting address delivered by Hon. Wm. D. Kelly, one of the Representative men of our State, and at present a Congressman from the forth district of Philadelphia But a few years ago the congressmen of Philadelphia were afraid—it seemed to us—to avow sympathy with the Republican party! They were received by the receiver of the seemed to be seen to avow sympathy with the Republican party! They were received by the receiver of the seements of Chiladelphia were received by the receiver of the seements of the se lican party! They were representatives of the "People's Party." What a great change has come over the Quaker city in the last ten years! Judge Kelley was not only one of the Radical members of the last Congress, but, in spite of Montgomery Blair-who still claimed fellowship with us, was triumphantly re-elected .-We ask for this address a careful reading To it is seen no pride of caste-no appeal to the prejudices of blood; but, like a christian statesman, he examines the subject exclusively through the light of reason.

Hon. Geo. V. Lawrence.

The many triends of this distinguished citizen-member of Congress elect. from our adjoining district of Washington, Green, Beaver and Lawrence, were much grieved to read the announce ment of his death a short time The Pittsburgh dailies pronounced handsome eulogies upon his public services although somewhat incorrect, as to the detail of his public history. As fate would have it however, the announcement was premature, and the Hon. M. C. will have the satisfaction of seeing the sort of record he would have left if called from the stage of action just now. And if there is anything wanting to gratify his honest ambition, we trust he will embrace the ample opportunities, which we hope as a putlic man still await him, to fill up the blanks. As it was, however, the obituary was very flattering, as it was also "true to life." The only deficiency was, that there was no subject .-Mr. Lawrence has, we trust, by this time quite recovered.

It is said that during the short time in which it was supposed that the twentyfirst district was without a Congressman, there was considerable of a patriotic demonstration on the part of men of talent (?) in some parts of the district, who were quite willing to sacrifice their private interests to the public good! How gratifying it must have been to those gentlemen to learn that the reported demise was a mistake.!

The following from the Courant, of Supremens with consumption chitis or any disease of the Throst or New Castle, shows how some of the prominent citizens of Lawrence county were exercised on the subject:

"The Pittsburgh Chronicle of Satur-day evening announced the painful intel-ligence of the death of Hon. George V. Lawrence, our representative to Congress. Lawrence, our representative to Congress.

The news was confirmed by the morning papers of Monday. Of course everybody was sorry to hear such distressing news, and some were so deeply affected as to promptly volunteer to take his place and perform all the arduous duties devolving upon a member of Congress. How many of the latter class were in the District, we have no means of ascertaining: but we have no means of ascertaining; but in New Castle, not less than four. We have heard of a number of good things in connection with the brief canwas of Monday; but the richest of all is the fact that James M. Kuester was seri-ously a candidate and labored diligently all day, to get the people to 'see it.'—

It is said the French gentleman, Mons.
G. de Kuester,—who protesses to be a good Republican since the democracy good Republican since the democracy refused to allow him to have anything to do with their paper—was on the street, but their paper—was on the street, sent.

This man the necessis. do with their paper—was on the street, arging upon the Union men the necessity of nominating the strongest man in arging upon the Union men, the necessity of nominating the strongest mun in the District. The name of Wallace was generally mentioned, as the individual:

Sant. W. H. H. RIOLLE, The business of the office will be office with the Union the District. The name of Wallace was generally mentioned, as the individual:

but de Kuester thought he would nev but de Kuester thought he would never do. He was a nice man, and a good citizen; but lacking in talent for so exal-ted a position at this particular crisis.— Other names were mentiened; but de Kuester found objections to all, and final-ly stated his firm conviction that "Pappy" ly stated his firm conviction that "Pappy" was the only midn, under the circumstances, that the Union party dare put up.—
le No other person could beat Lazear, whom the Democracy was certain to run. Tuesday morning's paper brought the intelligence that Lawrence was not only, not dead, but rapidly recovering. All the other candidates backed off on reading this intelligence; but 'pappy' is ranning yet. In the Pittsburgh Gazette of Wedensday we find the following:

"LATEST FROM NEW CASTLE,"

The contest for the nomination for The contest for the nomination for Congress in this section will be warm.—
Among the candidates we notice J. M. Kuester, editor of the Lawrence Journal a good Union journal which has done much good in the cause. Mr. K. is a good man, and has the ability to fill the position, if nominated and elected, with honor to the State and little Lawrence.—

It is a shabby trick in George Law rence, to presist in living, when by his stubborness the District is deprived of so much ability, to say nothing of the honor that might be reflected on the State in general, and little Lawrence in particular.
