Serious Accident.

One of the cold days of last week a and cart belonging to Mr Zimmerman. By some means the horse, cart, and dri ver, all tumbled over the abutment of the bridge, south of this place. The horse had his leg badly fractured and had to be shot, and the driver was very hadly injured, being cut and bruised severely about the head and face. We presume his injuries will not prove fatal however.

The train passed over the wazon, mushing it completely, killing one of his horses instantly, and injuring him so seriously that he died in a few hours. His remains was brought home to his family in this county, who had, but a short time before their arrival learned the sad news.—
The sorrow inflicted by this sad di pensation of Providence, is easier immagined than described.

—A discussion took place Thursday evening at the rooms of the Polytechnie Institute. New York, regarding the proper representation of the United States at the great French exposition at Paris, in 1867. Professor Joy made some explanations, and urged the necessity of a prompt and co-operative effort in the movement. Mr. Derby, the United States Govern ment agent, explained the mode of obtaining the necessary space, and the scope of the exposition was fully explained by these familiar with the scheme.
