

Mr. Reiber, whose house in Summit township was destroyed by fire a few weeks since, informs us that he is insured in our Butler County Mutual Fire Insurance Company, and that he was promptly paid the amount of the insurance by the officers of said company, without any equivocation or delay.

In to-day's paper will be found a piece of poetry from the pen of our old poet, Mr. Leander Wise. This piece was written shortly after the fall of the Confederacy, and was unaccountably overlooked in our drawer ever since. It should have been printed eighteen months since.

The following are the officers of the Butler County Agricultural and Stock Association: President—Jas. Bredin, Esq. Treasurer—H. C. Heineman. Directors—Geo. M. Gibson, Hon. Jas. Mitchell, Milton Maxwell, Milton Henry, and Robt. C. M'Abey.

If you want the very best of Woolen Yarns and Goods, which are manufactured in Western Pennsylvania, and which are destitute of shoddy—you can find them at the Union Woolen Mills, South of the Borough of Butler, Pa.—H. Fullerton, Proprietor, has introduced into his Mills the very latest improvements in Machinery, and is, therefore, prepared to compete with the very best establishments in the manufacture of Woolen Goods, such as Flannels of all kinds, Cashmeres of every variety, and the best of Stocking Yarn. Carding and Spinning done to order, and with the utmost dispatch.

You can exchange your wool for manufactured goods, as the proprietor has advertised for 10,000 pounds of wool in exchange for goods.

Read the advertisement of H. Fullerton on 3d page.

Saddles and Harness. Persons wishing to purchase Saddles or Harness will find a good article at the establishment of P. P. Brown, opposite Dr. Graham's Drug Store, Main St.

Read his advertisement, and if you wish to buy, just step in and examine his stock.

Associate Judges. On Saturday of last week, Joseph Cummins and Thomas Garvey, Esq's, the newly elected associate Judges, were sworn into office. They are both gentlemen of moral worth, and will no doubt make efficient and able assistants.

The retiring Judges, Hons. James Mitchell and James Kerr, have well and faithfully performed the duties during their term of office, and it has seldom been the good fortune of the people of Butler county, to be so ably represented. Judicially as they have been by these worthy gentlemen. We but express the general sentiment of the people, when we return their thanks to our retiring Judges for the exalted stand which they took and steadily maintained for humanity, justice and moral principle. May they long live to see and enjoy the good that will undoubtedly flow from their administration in favor of the glorious principles of justice and morality.

Congress & President's Message. This body met on Monday, and according to our exchanges the President's Message was to be handed in at 1 o'clock, P. M. The Pittsburgh Commercial of Monday, gives what purports to be a synopsis of the same, in which we are informed that there is no departure by the President from his former policy on the subject of Reconstruction.

The tone of the message is said to be moderate. No particular allusion is made to the pending Constitutional Amendments or other plans. Thinks "My Policy" best—Recommends the admission of Loyal Members. Speaks at some length on the Mexican question and our claims against England.

In our next issue, if space admit, we will give the message in full.

Fire. On last Saturday afternoon the Ice House situated East of the residence of Jacob Ziegler, Esq., was burned to the ground.

There is no doubt in the minds of the people about the fact that this building was set on fire. As yet, we are not aware of any effort having been made to ascertain who the guilty parties are. Common report says that certain boys were in the habit of going into this building and firing pistols and blasting powder. It appears that there was a lot of straw remaining in the building, which had previously been used to cover the ice, and that fire had been applied by a nobody, to the same. Yes, Nobody is a very mischievous person, and ought to be brought to justice. If actions of this kind are permitted to pass unnoticed, and the guilty parties remain unpunished, who will feel secure in their property? What inducement will there be for any person to expend money for the improvement of the place, or the comfort and good of the citizens of the Borough? We are informed that this building and the lot on which it was erected, were purchased a short time ago by a worthy citizen, farmer, of our county, who, no doubt, intended at some future time to build on the lot, and he scarcely gets possession until some mischievous boy—called Nobody, fires the building—and the man's property is gone! Will this matter be investigated?

Opera Supper. On Monday evening last, our retiring officer, Sheriff Brackenridge, gave an Opera Supper at Jack's Hotel.

Judge Mitchell, the Attorneys, young and old with two or three exceptions, and several citizens of the Borough were present and done ample justice to the "good things" that were placed before them.

Before and after supper the company enjoyed themselves highly in social and friendly conversation on different topics of humor and interest. The evening passed off very agreeably and pleasantly. All appeared pleased, gratified, and satisfied with the repast and the happy time spent on this occasion.

Thanks to our retiring Sheriff for his generosity on this occasion. Mr. and Mrs. Jack deserve credit for the manner in which things were served up. They know exactly how such entertainments should be conducted.

OUR BOOK TABLE.

New and Interesting Book. T. B. Peterson & Brothers have just published a new and interesting book, entitled, The Soldier's Orphans, by the celebrated and renowned Mrs. Ann S. Stephens.

It is pronounced by all who have read it, to be, by far, the best and most interesting work ever written by her. It will no doubt prove to be the most popular and successful work ever written by this talented American authoress.

Read the advertisement, and send for the book.

Women of the War.

This is the title of a new and very interesting book, written by Frank Moore, Author of the "The Rebellion Record," "Diary of the American Revolution," &c. &c. It is one of the finest and best books that has lately come to our notice, and should be in the hands of every family. It is splendidly illustrated with some of the finest steel engravings that can be found in any work of its kind in the United States.

Agents, as they are wanted in every city, town, county and village in the United States. It is published by S. S. Seranton & Co., Hartford, Conn.; R. C. Treat, H. and National Publishing Company, Cincinnati, Ohio.

The book is sold by subscription only. Any one wishing to act as Agent for this work will please address S. S. Seranton & Co., Hartford, Connecticut, and receive descriptive circular.

The Camp.

"The Battle-field and the Hospital," or Lights and Shadows of the Great Rebellion, is the title of a handsome volume, just issued by the National Publishing Company, 507 Minor Street, Philadelphia, Pa. The author, Dr. L. P. Brockett, has delved most industriously amongst the masses of curious incidents which have marked the late war, and has grouped and classified them under appropriate heads, and in a very attractive form.

There is a certain portion of the war that will never go into the regular histories, nor be embodied in romance or poetry, which is a very real part of it, and will, if preserved, convey to succeeding generations a better idea of the spirit of the conflict than many dry reports or careful narratives of events, and this part may be called the gossip, the fun, the pathos of the war. This illustrates the character of the leaders, the humor of the soldiers, the devotion of women, the bravery of men, the pluck of our heroes, the romance and hardships of the service. From the beginning of the war the author has been engaged in collecting all the anecdotes connected with or illustrative of it.

The volume is profusely illustrated with over 100 engravings by the first artists, which are really beautiful; worthy of examination as specimens of the art. The book's contents include reminiscences of camp, picket, spy, scout, bivouac, siege and battle field adventures; thrilling feats of bravery, wit, droilery, comical and ludicrous adventures, etc., etc.

Amusement as well as instruction may be found in every page, as graphic detail, brilliant wit, and authentic history, are skillfully interwoven in this work of literary art. It is just such a volume as will find numerous purchasers, and just such a one as persons seeking to act as book agents should add to their list.

A New Book.

By Mrs. Emma D. E. N. Southworth.—T. B. Peterson & Brothers, Philadelphia, have in press and will publish on Saturday, December 16th, a new book by Mrs. Emma D. E. N. Southworth, entitled "The Bride of Lewellyn," which will, beyond all doubt, prove to be the most popular and successful work that has ever been written by her.

powerful female writer in America, if not in the world. No one ever read a chapter of one of her works, without wishing to read the whole book, and none ever read one of her books without admiring the rare genius of its author, and wishing she might soon write another. Here scenes are life pictures, her incidents are founded on facts, and her sentiments are characterized by a singular purity both of conception and expression. She has the rare faculty of saying what she means, and of saying it in such a manner that her meaning cannot be misinterpreted. In short, she possesses in an eminent degree those qualifications which are the peculiar prerogatives of a good writer; and while she delights the reader's imagination with her descriptive beauty, she applies home truths to his understanding with the force of rational conviction. The "Bride of Lewellyn" will be welcomed by all such readers especially; and those who have never read the works of this gifted woman should not fail to buy and read this new novel by this gifted American authoress.

It is published complete in one large, duodecimo volume uniform with the "Lost Heiress." Price $1.50 in paper, or $2.00 in cloth.

Address, T. B. Peterson & Brothers, 306 Chestnut St., Philadelphia, Pa.

Special Notices.

CONSEQUENCES OF LOOKING INTO THE HISTORY OF THE UNITED STATES. The only object of the advertiser in sending the prospectus is to benefit the afflicted, and spread information which is otherwise to be inaccessible; and he hopes every sufferer will try his remedy, as it will cost him nothing, and may prove a blessing.

Parties wishing the prescription, will please address Rev. EDWARD A. WILSON, Williamsburg, Kings county, New York. Nov. 7, 1865.

TO CONSUMPTIVES.—The Advertiser, having been restored to health in a few weeks by a very simple remedy, after having suffered several years with a severe lung affection, and that dread disease, Consumption—is anxious to make known to his fellow-sufferers the means of cure.

To all who desire it, he will send a copy of the prescription used, (free of charge) with the directions for preparing and using the same, which they will find at the Office for Consumption, Astoria, Oregon, &c. Cholera, Diarrhoea, and Dysentery.

A CERTAIN REMEDY FOR CHOLERA, DIARRHOEA, AND DYSENTERY. This medicine has been known in the United States over 25 years. Those who have used it, and found it never failed to cure any complaint for which it was recommended, and all those who first read it, are now aware of its value. In the Cholera, Diarrhoea, &c., it is a most valuable remedy. It is sold by all respectable Dealers in Medicine.

A Single Box of BRANDRETT'S PILLS Contains more vegetable extractive matter than twenty boxes of any pills anywhere in the world besides fifty five hundred physicians use them in their practice to the exclusion of every purgative. The first letter of their value is yet scarcely appreciated. When they are later known, a sudden death and continued sickness will be the past. Let those who know them speak out in their favor. It is a duty which will save life.

Our rage is subject to a relapsing of visited life at this season, it is necessary to use a preventive. But Brandrett's Pills afford an invaluable and efficient protection. They not only prevent the collection of those impurities which are sufficient to cause so much danger to the body, but they also cure every form of Cholera, Diarrhoea, &c. They are sold by all respectable Dealers in Medicine.

Published this Day. ANN STEPHENS' NEW BOOK! THE SOLDIER'S ORPHANS. By Mrs. Ann S. Stephens, author of "Fashion and Fame," "The Gold Brick," "The Old Homestead," "Silent Struggles," "Mary Derwent," "Rejected Wife," "The Heiress," "The Wife's Secret," &c.

This new book, by Mrs. Ann S. Stephens, has been pronounced by all to be by far the best and most interesting work ever written by her. It appeared in monthly installments in "Peterson's Magazine" during the last year, having been completed in the December number, where it proved to be the most popular, powerful, and successful novel that has ever appeared in that Magazine, and it is now published complete and unabridged, in one large duodecimo volume, uniform with the "Gold Brick," "Fashion and Fame," and the other works of Mrs. Ann S. Stephens, published by us. It will no doubt prove to be the most popular and successful work that has ever been written by this talented American authoress.

Mrs. Stephens has justly become a favorite with all American readers of prose fiction, and the announcement of a new work from the pen of such a cheerful and successful authoress is cheerfully met by thousands of readers. And there is a rare treat in store for them, for in "The Soldier's Orphans," Mrs. Stephens has, if anything, eclipsed all her former efforts. There is less redundancy of scene and action, but there is far more artistic excellence, and an elaboration of causes and effects, attainable only by practiced writers. The action of this new novel transcends in Philadelphia, and beyond the limits of the city the authoress does not permit herself to stray.

The time selected by Mrs. Stephens is recent, the late war, and she pictures with vivid distinctness the domestic suffering and sacrifices entailed by, and made for the grand and heroic struggle for nation, at unity. The plot is one of absorbing interest, the characters are graphic transcripts from reality, strongly individualized, and the contrasts are formed by their individual peculiarities, mental and physical, lend a rare charm to this last and most finished of Mrs. Stephens' books.

"The Soldier's Orphans," is published complete in one large duodecimo volume. Price $1.50 in paper; or $2.00 in cloth.

MRS. ANN S. STEPHENS' OTHER WORKS. The Gold Brick, Mary Derwent, Silent Struggles, Fashion and Fame, The Wife's Secret, The Old Homestead, The Rejected Wife, The Heiress.

Above are in paper cover at $1.50 each, or in cloth at $2.00 each.

The above books are for sale by all booksellers. Copies of "The Soldier's Orphans," or of any other of all the above popular books by Mrs. Ann S. Stephens, will be sent to any one, free of postage, on receipt of price.

Address all orders to the publishers, T. B. PETERSON & BROTHERS, 306 Chestnut St., Philadelphia, Pa., and they will receive immediate attention.
