tron City College, We take pleasure in calling the attention of our readers to this popular and justly celebrated Business College. As institution for the practical education of young men preparatory to engaging in business, it probably has no equal in this, br in any other country. That its sys-tem of instruction is eminently practical is most conclusively shown in the remarkable success attending its graduates, who the found in all parts of the country, occupying the most exalted positsons in business. Persons wishing to obtain a thorough practical business education can el girls, is the earnest wish of their not do better than enter upon a course of study at the Iron City College.

OUR BOOK TABLE.

Ha. per's Monthly. For January, 1867, is on our desk. It is full of interesting matter, among which we notice Ilcroid Deeds of Meroie Men, Personal Recollections of the War Hours with the Dead, Three days of Terror, Three Hundred a Year, Medical Delusions of the Old Time, &c. This Magazine for 1867 promises to be even more One of these gentlemen forged's card for interesting and instructive than its predecessors, Every family should have this periodical. Each number has about 130 gate to say that the Convention had not pages of feading matter, which, at the taken such action !! Another of them end of the year, would make over 1500 pages, and all for $1.00. Address Harper and Brothers, Franklin Square, New York.

The Little Pilgrim. We have just received for the month, January, 1867, the neat little Magazine bearing the above title, and edited 'y Grace Greenwood. This is a Monthly Journal intended for boys and girls .-Price, single copy, one year, 6) cents .--It is certainly a very interesting work for those for whom it is designed.
