SCHENCK'S SEAWEED TONIC .-- This medicine SCHENCK'S SEAWEED TONIC.—This medicine fravented by Dr. J. H. Schenck, of Philadelphia, is inclended to dissolve the food and make it into chyme, the first process of digestion. By cleansing the stomach with Schenck's Mandrake Pills, the Tonic soon restures the appetite, and food that could not be eaten before using it will be easily digested.

Assumption cannot be cured by Schenck, s Pulmonic Syrup unless the stomach and liver is made healthy and the appetite restored, hence the Toulc and Pills are required in nearly every case of consumption. A half dozen bottles of the SEAWEED TONIC and three or four boxes of the MANDHAKE PILLS will cure any ordinary case of dyspepsis.
