Butler, Pa., Wednesday, June 12, 1867.

found a call for a meeting to be held in the Court house in Butler, on Tuesday evening, the 25th inst., for the purpose of taking into consideration the locating of an Orphan's Home near the town of Butler. A cordial invitation is extended to all to attend this meeting. A great deal will depend upon the encouragement which this enterprise meets whether this institution will be located in our midst or not. It is a subject worthy the calm consideration of every charitable individual. It is therefore hoped that the citizens generally will be in attendance at the appointed time and place.

A vocal and instrumental concert will be given in the Court house on the even ing of the 4th of July next, by the pupils of Wm. R. Colbert.

This, no doubt, will be a rich entertainment. The lovers of music, and the public generally, should make their calculations to be present on the occasion And greets us first in Heaven."

The celebration of the 4th of July evening by the singing of sweet music is certainly very appropriate, and the old and young could not spend the evening more appropriately than by attending the

In the Pittsburgh Commercial of the 5th inst., we find the following complimentary, and we have no doubt deserving notice of Dr. W. S. Huselton, formerly of this place. The Doctor is an able Surgeon and a gentlemin, and will, no doubt, rise to distinction in his profe-

Mr. S. Hamilton, who had his left leg so severely injured by being caught in a circular saw, is pronounced by his physi-cian, Dr. W. S. Huselton, of No. 67 Federal street, to be out of danger. Hamilton has been removed to No. Ann street, where he would be happy to see his friends. Dr. Huselton has been in this city but a short time, but this proof of his skill will recommend him to all who knew the condition of his patient when given to his charge.
