

Butler, Pa., Wednesday, July 17, 1867

We will give a general history of the Mowing Match in our next issue.

Musical. On the evening of the 5th inst., the lovers of music enjoyed a rich treat, and were highly entertained in listening to the sweet strains of instrumental and vocal music by the pupils of William R. Colbert.

The whole performance was good. A majority of the class are quite young, being but children, yet perfect order prevailed in the class during the entire time of the concert.

Everything passed off pleasantly, and in such perfect order, and the entire performance was so well done that we could scarcely particularize, and we will but mention two pieces separately. "The Little White Cottage," played by Tillie Sullivan, and sung by Libbie M. Junkin, Maggie Beck, Mary Campbell and Adda Colbert, and the piece entitled, "I'm Dying far from those I Love," played by Mary Reiber, and sung by Tillie M. Candless, Mary Reiber and Adda Colbert.

In conclusion, we must say that we have heard but one expression in regard to this entertainment, and that was one of general satisfaction and applause. This, we hope, is but the commencement of a series of musical concerts that we may be favored with, by this class and others that will no doubt join them.

Base Ball. A match game of Base Ball, the first of a series of three games, to be played between the Senior Club of Centreville, and the Crescent of Harrisville, was played on the field of the former, in Centreville, on Friday the 12th instant, with the following result:

Table with 2 columns: Player Name and Score. Includes names like J. F. Black, J. B. Black, etc.

The umpire, Mr. W. L. Hammason, of Brownsville, Pa., performed his duties impartially and rendered general satisfaction. The game passed off very pleasantly, and good order prevailed. Though the Centreville club was beaten, they showed good pluck and manliness throughout the game.

Accidents. As Mr. Jacob Knapp, of Cranberry township, was engaged in raising a barn on his own premises, on Saturday, June 29th, a piece of timber ten inches square and about twelve feet long, fell upon him, from a height of twelve feet, knocking him down between the sleepers to the ground, eight feet further. His right arm was broken in two places above the elbow, and his head injured; bleeding freely from the nose and ears for some time. He is now considered out of danger.

A few days ago, Mr. Peter Shira, an old and much esteemed citizen of Washington township, while chopping wood had one of his eyes entirely knocked out by a stick flying up and striking him.

A recent writer has said that no nation bestows less attention on the human hair, than the Americans. If this be said in regard to the oils and greases that are used, then never was greater mistake made. We are pleased to know a Remedial Medicinal preparation is now offered in the market. It is not one of those clear colored liquids, whose only merit consists in their beauty, but of intrinsic worth, which cures all diseases of the scalp, restores the hair to its natural color, when gray, and causes new hair to grow where it has fallen out; this is Hall's Vegetable Sicilian Hair Renewer.

In the late Mowing Match which came off near Butler, Mr. T. R. Hall, who had charge of the Union Mower, mowed a portion of the ground assigned to him with one horse, and another portion without the use of a neck yoke. These experiments should establish three points: That the Union is a light running machine; that it has no side draft, and that there is but little weight on the necks of the horses attached to the machine.

Educational. The attention of our readers is called to the advertisement of the West Sunbury Academy, which is at present under the superintendence of George H. Graham, who is said to be an excellent teacher, and deserving of the public patronage. The situation is pleasant and healthy. The society of Sunbury and vicinity is good. Tuition and boarding can be had on as reasonable terms as at any similar institution in Western Pa.

Great Conflagration. Special to the American Citizen. MEADEVILLE, July 14th, 1867. A big fire took place here this morning. Supposed to be the work of an incendiary. Barton House, three Stores and Livery Stable burned. In stable were six horses, three cows, and a lot of harness, all burned. ARMSTRONG.

We have received the new catalogue and circular of the State Normal School at Edinboro. We are glad to see it improves from year to year. Several years ago we said we thought it one of the best schools in the State, and we think it has since steadily increased its reputation and efficiency. In all points which make a first class school it is unsurpassed. All persons who intend to teach should send for its circular. Address the Principal, Prof. J. A. Cooper, Edinboro, Erie Co., Pa.—Erie Daily Dispatch.

In all that makes a first class school, we think the State Normal School at Edinboro is unequalled. We are glad to see that it is well appreciated and patronized. Parents can not send their children to a better place. Persons intending to go away to school should get a circular of the Normal School. Write for information to Prof. J. A. Cooper, Edinboro, Erie Co., Pa.—Meadeville Republican.

Agricultural Machinery. Our readers are referred to the advertisement of A. B. Smith & Co., Rochester, Pa. These gentlemen are extensively engaged in the manufacture of all kinds of agricultural machinery, and warrant the same to give general satisfaction.

REPUBLICAN PLATFORM. Important and Significant Resolutions.

The following are the resolutions passed by the State Convention at Williamsport, on the 26th ult. They are plain and practical. Read them carefully.

The Republicans of Pennsylvania, appealing again to the people, take pleasure in recalling the repeated occasions in which the voters of the Commonwealth have sustained and ratified their candidates and principles, and strongly impressed with the importance of the issues involved in the ensuing election, make this declaration of their opinions and principles:

First. That, in the name of the nation saved from treason, we demand security against its repetition by exacting from the vanquished such guarantees as will make treason so odious as to be forever impossible.

Second. That, as in the past we cordially justified the administration of Abraham Lincoln in all necessary acts for the suppression of rebellion, we record it as our judgment that the administration of Andrew Johnson has been chiefly faithful, because it has failed to try to gather up and fix in the organic and statute law the great principles which the war has settled, and without whose adoption as the rule of action peace is but a delusion and a snare.

Third. That, in the completion of the task of reconstruction so firmly as to be perpetual, it is indispensable that traitors bidden in the field shall not find a sanctuary in the courts; that the laws shall not be tortured to justify or palliate the crimes of which the country's enemies have been guilty, and that the law of war shall be so distinctly declared by the courts that no disturbing and paralyzing doubts may ever be raised, as in 1861, affecting the essential rights of citizens.

Fourth. That this convention, speaking for the Republicans of Pennsylvania, unreservedly endorses the reconstruction measures of the Thirty-ninth and Fortieth Congresses as a basis upon sound principles, essentially just and wise, and promise an early legal and permanent restoration of the rebel States to their share in the government of the Union; that we denounce and condemn the offers of President Johnson, through his plant Attorney General and a majority of his Cabinet, to evade these laws by interfering to obstruct and prevent their enforcement in the spirit in which they were passed, and that we call upon Congress, soon to meet, promptly and decisively to dispose of this new nullification.

Fifth. That the thanks of the loyal men of this Commonwealth are hereby tendered to Maj. Gen. Sheridan and Maj. Gen. Sickles for their publicly declared unwillingness to be made instrumental, in the starting and truthful words of the former, "in opening under the Presidential declaration, a broad, macadamized way for perjury and fraud to travel on," in pursuit of the coveted reposition of political power in the rebel States; and that this convention cordially sustains them in their patriotic efforts to execute the law.

penion and tax laws, which were required for the public defence; nor in any way thwart measures which were essential to the public protection; but that, on the other hand, it may become and remain a fit and faithful interpreter of public faith, an impartial and fearless exponent of the equal rights of man.

Eighth. That protection being a cardinal feature of the Republican creed, we trust that such legislation will be secured at the earliest period as will afford adequate protection to American industry.

Ninth. That, in conformity with the pledges given last fall by both candidates for Governor, we now demand the enactment of a free railroad law, by which the enterprise of our people may be stimulated, and the resources of the Commonwealth developed.

Tenth. That in Governor John W. Geary we recognize an honest and courageous public servant, who, in the chair of State, is adding freshness to the laurels gallantly won in war.

Eleventh. That the gratitude of the people to the soldiers and sailors, whose bravery met and overthrew the slaveholders' rebellion, should have repeated and emphatic expression; and that we heartily disapprove of and condemn the course of the Secretary of the Treasury in postponing and ignoring the just claims of our brave defenders upon the bounty of the Government, awarded to them by the National Congress.

Twelfth. That in the Hon. Henry W. Williams, of Allegheny county, we present to the people of Pennsylvania an eminent jurist; one in every way well qualified for the responsible duties of the office of Judge of the Supreme Court, able as a lawyer; impartial, prompt, and thorough as a judge; honest, upright, without suspicion of a man, and loyal and unwavering in his devotion to the cause of his country.

The resolution pertaining to the organization of the State Central Committee was discussed at length, and finally adopted, as follows:

Resolved, That the thanks of the convention be tendered to Col. Jordan for the efficient manner in which he performed the duties of chairman of the past year, and that he be reappointed for the coming year; and that, in case of his inability or unwillingness to accept the position, the president of this convention shall appoint the chairman, and that the remainder of the committee shall be appointed in the usual way, consisting of the same number as that of last year.
