THE FAIR.

The Butler County Agricultural Fair will be held on the 18th, 19th and 20th of September.

Premium list next week

100 The Card of Walter L. Graham, Esq., Attorney at Law, will be found in the proper column of this paper. Mr. Graham's many friends will be pleased to know that he has again opened an office in our midst, and resumed the active practice of law. Any business belonging to the Legal profession entrus ted to his care will be attended to with promptness.

Office in Boyd'a building, Main St. Butler, Pa.

A Union.

On last Friday evening the Keystone and Monitor B. B. Clubs were consolidated, and the new organization is now known as the "Alliance." This club has secured a new play ground on the East of the Borough, which will be put in complete order in a short time. This is intended to be the club of Butler county.

Accident.

On Monday afternoon, Mr. Joseph Coulter of Unionville, while engaged in moxing was thrown from the machine arms was very severely mangled. When the accident happened, Mr. Coulter was over a mile from home. We are informed that he is very weak from the loss of We have not been informed blood. whether his injuries are of such a character as to endanger his life or not.

Notice.

To all whom it may concern, and to James A. Shanor in particular; now, Sir, as you have the welfare of the people of this town at heart, so much so as to make them acquainted with my faults and incapability in manu facturing boots, I will make you a proposition, viz : I will make a job and you may make one, and it mine oes not compete with yours, I will forfeit twenty-five dollars, provided you forfeit the like amount if yours does not equal min 2.

"Beyond the Mississippi :" A complete history of the new States and Territories, from the Great River to the Great Ocean, by Albert D. Richard This is a most entertaining and valuable book, and its popularity is attested by the sale of over 20,000 copies in a single month. This work, we understand, is sold only by subscription, and is just such a one as persons seeking to act as agents should add to their list. It is published by the "National Publishing Co., Philadelphia, Pa. Base Ball.

The return game between the "Energetic" of New Castle, and the "Monitors" of Butler, came off on the grounds of the latter, on Thursday, the 8th inst. resulting in a victory for the former.

The score stood as follows, viz : "Energetic," 44; "Monitor,"32. Home runs, "Energetic" 1, "Monitor" 4.

One "white-wash" on each side. The playing and intercourse between these two clubs passed off very harmoniously, the best of feeling having prevailed throughout.

A Change.

Union Herald, formerly published by J. C. Coll, Esq., has changed hands; having passed into the charge of Jacob Ziegler, Esq., who is well known to the citizens of Butler county. Mr. Ziegler is an able writer; and his experience in public affairs is a sufficient guarantee to his political friends that the Herald, under his care and supervision will be a live paper. Although differing from us in politics, we extend a hearty welcome to our old friend, and hope that his shadow may never grow less, and that his new field

The September number of this fa vorite parlor periodical is fully equal to any of those which have preceded The illustrations are varied, and brilliant as ever, and there is a tone of freshness and originality about the entire contents which contrasts remarkably with other parlor publications. We do not wonder ladies prize it ; to them it is full of useful and interesting reading and information, besides ontaining many valuable specialities, in the way of patterns, etc., which

On Tuesday night of last week, says our informant, the house of Adam Detrick, five miles West of Butler on the Petersburg road, was foreibly entered through the back window by tearing off a board that was nailed across the outside of the window, removing a pane of glass and taking out nails that were above the lower sash. The following property was taken : a mantel clock, two sheets, a flannel dress, a coverlet, and a piece of carpet. No clue as yet has been had as to the guilty parties. Mr. Detrick and family were absent at the time that this transaction took place.

New Paper. We have just received the first num. and caught in the knives. One of his ber of the Butler County Press, edited by Wm. Haslett, Esq., who is well known to the citizens of this county. The paper presents a neat typographical appearance. Mr. Haslett understands the duties of an Editor, and will no doubt pubish an interesting paper. As we are just going to press, want of space will not permit a more extended notice at present

Serious Accident. One day last week Mrs. Samuel Schaffner accidently fell down stairs and broke one of her arms. Dr. Neyman was called upon and set the broken bones. At last accounts the patient was doing well

The Surratt case is ended. The ry have not been able to agree and are discharged. They stood four for conviction and eight for acquittal. It is stated that had the accused been indicted for conspiracy he would have been convicted at once. Judge Sharswood on Legal Tenders.

Extract from his Opinion in the Case of Borie vs. Trott.

"On the whole, then, I am of opinion that the provision of the act of Con-gress of February 25th, declaring the notes issued in pursuance of that act to be lawful money, and a lega ten-der, IS UNCONSTITUTIONAL. "This renders it unnecessary that I should consider the other question which has been made, as to the effect of the has been made, as to the effect of the special agreement to pay in lawful sil-ver money of the United States. I am the model of the context States. A am in favor of entering judgment for the court are of a different opinion, judg-ment for the defendant." - Copied from the Philadelphia Age of 23d of Febru-rry, 1864, where the opinion is publish-d in full. It may also be found in the Legal In-

It has also be found in the Legal $Instelligencer of March 18, 1864 page 92. In the same copy of the <math>A_{JC}$ is a carefully prepared eulogy of the judge and this opinion, in which is the followine: lowing: "Judge SHARSWOOD reasons upon

FINANCIAL.

WASHINGTON, August 8, 1867. The Secretary of the Treasury, in a recent letter to Gen. Spinner, says hold-ers of compound interest notes have no right to claim payment thereof at maturity, at any other place than the Tressury of the United States, at Wash-ington, but in exercise of a liberal dis-Inever grow less, and that his new field of labor may be pleasant and profitable. Our best wishes attend J. C. Ccll, Esq. the retiring editor. May success attend him in all his undertakings. Narrow Escape. On Saturday evening. Dr. A. M. Ney-man narrowly escaped losing his life. The circumstances are about these : The Dector has in his care a spirited young horse belonging to J. H. Haines, of Brady's Bond. The Doctor saddled and bridled the horse, and led him out such notes in packages separate from any other notes or securities addressed to the Treasury of the United States. Second, Express charges on compound interest notes forwarded to the Treasury interest notes forwarded to the Treasury for redemption must be prepaid by the party remitting them.
