GEN. SHERIDAN REMOVED. James Haslett, Butler, farmer; David THE OFFICIAL ORDER BROMULGATED. By Telegraph to the Pribune. James Martin, Buffalo; Samuel By Telegraph to the Teibune. WASHINGTON, Aug. 20, 1867. The important army order which has been contemplated for some days past, making radical changes in three military departments, was made public this affer-noon by Gen. Grant. The way it was worded created some comment, and the opinion was vary freely expressed that the President and Grant had had an open rupture, and that the latter had issued the instruction to Thomas in the fifth sec-tion, solely because the President would not heed his advice not to remove Sher.
