The Issue in Pennsylvania. opportunity to render it assistance, were even hopeful of its success, and were even hopeful of its success, and no doubt were in some way or other in constant communication with Jefferson Davis and other public enimies.— Conspicnous among this class was Jer. S. Black, the leading spirit of the Democratic party in Pennsylvania, and at present the chief adviser of Mr. Johnson, and principal instiga-Mr. Johnson, and principal instiga-tor cf his alarming proceedings.-Were we to attempt to characterize thepresent actions of Mr. Johnson, we could in no way do it so fittingly as by declaring that, having submitted him self to the advisement of such men as Block, he is acting up to the standard of Penn-ylvania Democracy of whom Judge Sharswood is the chosen favorite and standard bearer in the present canvass. Black and sharswood belong to the same school of politics, and it should be enough for the loyal people of Pennsylvania to know that the Democratic candidate. know that the Democratic candidate, were he to speak now, would appro-bate, warmly the course of Andrew Johnson and stimulate him to further steps in the same direction. But for the encouragement derived from this school of politicians in the North, the school of politicians in the North, the rebellion would have been put down at least three years before it was. And now, as then, true to their instincts now, as then, true to their instincts and sympathies, they have in a sense, organized anew, with Mr. Johnson at their head. We see, therefore, that the old issue of Loyalty and Freedom has been thrust on the peo-ple of Pennsylvania. All of a sud-den, through this unholy combination and the desperate actions and still more desperate intentions of the Pre-silent, which naturally result therefrom, other issues have been cast into the shade and measurably set aside. This has been the peculiar work of Pennsylvania D mocracy, led by Black with Sharswod for standard barer. Of the latter's sympathy—in common with the Democratic party in the North—with the cause of the South throughout the war, of his sup-South throughout the war, of his sup-port of the peace at any price doctrine and the candidates standing on that platform, there is no shadow of doubt. His contribution to the cause was the opinion which he volunteered, with no motive but the damaging effect it might have on the loyaleause. That he is now, as he was then, in perfect accord with Black & Co.' is indisputable; and hereby becomes the repre-sentative of the ideas and purposes sentative of the ideas and purposes of Mr. Johnson in his present desper-ate attempt to prevent the perfect res toration of the country. The strong indictment framed by Grant against Androw Johnson applies equally to the tribe of Black, Sharswood & Co. By tribe of Black, Sharswood & Co. By them no word of alarm is spoken, no note of warning is sounded althrough we have reached one of the grave t periods in onr history. No intellis gent man can fail to perceive that the Democratic party in Pennsylvas-na and the desperance graves of An nia and the desperate cause of Andrew Johnson are so intimately connected that support of the one is in-dorsement of the other.-Pittsburgh Commercial.

Grant's Indictment of the Pres-

Grant's Indictment of the Pres-ident. The Detroit Post regards the letter of General Grant as the grand indictment on which Andrew Johnson "will be tried and convicted, and removed from office. In the language of Grant, he is charged with an "affort to defeat the laws of Con-grant of constitute" in thimpho? to the "nnreconstructed element in the South-those who did all they could to break up these who did all they could to break up this Government by arms and now wish to be the only element consulted as to the method of restoring order," for "embold ening them to renewed opposition to the will of the loyai masses, believing that they had the Executive with them," for removing General Sherilan, though "he had performed his civil duties faithfully and intellgently," for disregarding Gen eraral Thomas's services in battling for the Union, and assigning him to relieve General Sheridan against his earnest pro-
