idency. Especially is this the case in regard to Ohio, where the constitutional amendment was defeated by over 5,000 majority. Chief Justice Chase and Ben Wade have unquestionably forfeited their claims upon the Republican nomination; and Pendleton has, during the campaign, by his vicenous work avershadowe I many and Pendleton has, during the campaign, by his vigorous work, overshadowe I many of the lesser politicians in the Demo-eratic party. If New York makes a doubtful record in November, Pendleton will have a rival in Horatio Seymonr; but if the Republicans carry New York, Pendleton will be the Democratic candi-date. The bond or national finance con-troversy has extinguished Butler's claims for the Republican nomination, and cut down his influence as an ensure to Gen. Grant, In the light of present political affairs it looks as though the Presidential contest will be narrowed down to a choice between Gen. Grant and George. H. Pen

-It is a singular fact that la lies who know how to preserve everything else, can't preserve their tempers. Yet it may easily be done on the self-sealing principle. It is only to "keep the mouth of the vessel tightly closed.
