The Receipts and Expenditures of the city we notice are published. It is a good plea especially just now when the tax Collector is about, and the people called upon to pay After deducting the amount paid to liquidate After deducting the amount paid to liquidate and two empty bottles. The final result is no honest debts, if any body can take the figures known. All this took place by telegraph presented in this report, and show where there has been a dollar judiciously expended, we'd like to see it Let us look at an item or 40-"Act of streets and bridges, $2380 53." . Are our streets any the better for this sum? If where " Possibly a bridge or so can be shown across Millereek-but those Millereek hiteen years than would have served to bridge it from Buffalo street to the Bay - Side Walks, $220 80 " That's a good item. for the amusements of the Councils and their constituents. In conclusion, from a superficial examination of this expose of our city finances, we are more than ever convinced that the time has arrived when it is absolutely necessary for one or the other of the two political parties to assume the responsibility of our affairs. As it is no party is responsible, and the result is our taxes have run un enormously without any corresponding advantage in the way of im-

We confess to a liking for a good buresque; especially a burlesque upon that flunkypinion, we should say that the fellowing "ode sm so common to the newspaper press, which to June," by a "Practical Man," was not write seeks to make great men or women out of ten this week. If it was, then it is the coolest small material. For a time, as our readers will performance, with the mercury at 98 in the recollect, both newspapers and readers went shade, we ever recorded: mad over the "divine Fanny Ellser," simply be. cause she had acquired a wonderful dexterity in the art of dancing. At that time heels had it and heads were no where; and so high did the fever rise that we believe a parcel of two-legged jackasses in Baltimore unharnessed the more sensible horses attached to her carriage, and after harnessing themselves in, triumphantly drew her "divinity" to her hotel. Then, to pass over a good many other of a similar character, we had the Kossuth humbug and the the Jenny Lind Barnumism. In these cases, it is true, there was a marked improvement over the one alluded to. Heels were no longer

"trumps," but the "gift of gab" and the "gift of music" were. But they had their "day and generation" and passed from the stage other singers came and sung; other "patriots" fulminated, but the charm of novelty had departed, and hence no furor could be raised over them. This, we suppose, may be accounted for on the principle of the old adage that "the devil cannot be raised twice." But fortunately, just at this crisis, a new star arose in the firmament, giving all flunkydom a chance to air itself. A youth was discovered down in Lousiana who took to Chess as naturally as a man does the small pox, or as Colburn did arithmetic, and forthwith he was declared the "Ameri can Chess Champion," and posted off to Eu rope to beat Johnny Bull, and his most faithful ally, Jean Crapeau, at their favorite game. He did it, and therefore Chers became a national game. Everybody bought a chess-board and a sett of men. "Chess departments" in newspapers became a leading idea; and Bonner, made arrangements to secure the "Champion" to conduct the "chess department" of the Ledger. Nor did the idea of "Championship" pionship" in their respective "specialities," pummiled one another at Long Point until each was reduced to a jelly, while two other "champions" sweat through an entire night over a couple of Billiard tables at Detroit-their friends freely staked their money on the result, and all to determine who should be declared the "champion" of the cue. We have had, therefore, "champion" dancers, and champion" singers; we have listened to "champion" orators, and "champion" showmen : we have seen "champion" chess players, and "champion" billiard players, and have feasted and tossted them; and finally we have had "champion" pugulists, and, as a natural consequence, our youth are trying to imitate them in the "fistic art This being so, a little wholesome ridicule of the whole field of wcham pronship" is not amiss. And in this ling, we

The dodge of the Hotel keepers, dealrs in Indian Curiosities, &c. &c., at Niagars Falls, to attract a crowd, by having a foolhardy Frenchman walk a tight rope across the charm, succeeded admirably. The Buffalo Express says there were perhaps ten thousand there on Thursday to witness the daring feat of Mons Blondin. On this side the enclosure nown as White's Pleasure Ground, was made he place of starting. Here was collected per hans one thousand persons. On the bank and below for half a mile there was a crowd, on he opposite shore. There were stagings which accommodated a large number of specators, and a large crowd, which extended slong the bank above and below the rope. The British and American flags were near neigh pors, and a band was playing God Save the Queen, Hail Columbia, and other national airs At about four o'clock Mons. Blondin appeared n the planure grounds and performed some wonderful feats on the tight rope, while a band of music was playing. At about five o'clock he was ready for his feat, and the signal was given for his departure. He stepped boldly and numbly apon the rope, which extended across the chasm, amid the most deafening cherry from both silles of the river. He took with him balls of twine, with which to make ommunication with the Maid of the Mist, which was playing around in the stream be-He then balanced his pole in his hands and starfed with the same confidence and careless indifference that he would perform an act apon the stage of a Theatre. Mr. Wm. Kincade, The 100 Summerset Man, and BEST TUMBLER in the World. Mr. Kincade will also appear in his original Kalcidoscopion Contolity, the funciest of all the funny acts, called PETE JENKINS, ov OUR AMERICAN COUSIN'S Le Petite M'lle Elise,

The CHILD MIDER, is one of the most pleasing and tasteful factures presented by the great commissed force of talent. Young, pretty, and modest, although fearless, she gives an act of Equitation unsurpassable for Style, Exception, or Bously. The management of the National Circus feel satisfied in publicly declaring Mille KLISE to be the Toungast, Smallest, and Best Equestricance in the World.

BY KIRBY'S AMERICAN HARVESTER With all the Improvements for 1869.

THE LIGHTEST MACHINE IN USE. The Mower weighing only six hundred and thirty-nin-ounds, and the Reaper cight hundred and eight pounds LIGHTEST DKAFT—NO SIDE DRAFT. Requiring one-third less draft than any other machine is numerous tests at trials with the Dynamometer, an testimonials of farmers, abundantly show.

TRONGEST & MOST DURABLE MACHINE. Being all inox, except seat, pole and platform, and the reight so distributed as to give the greatest amount of trength with the least weight of iron. The Castings are noise of Salisbury iron, and the finger-bar is of wrought iron, with a fange on the front edge, thus giving it great trength with light weight. rength with light weight.
(1) PRESSURE UPON THE HORSES' NECK. The weight of the driver counterbalancing the weight is the front of the frame, and throwing the whole upon SELF-ADJUSTING FINGER BAR.

Shige-ADJUSTING FINGER BAR.

In this respect it is entirely anequalled by any machine yet produced. The finger-har works upward down independently of the driving-wheel, enabling it to go through dead increws and difficient, among alones and bogs, and over knolls and bfile, where no other machine can follow it. It can also be set to work at any height from two to eighteen inches, and the change can be made in an instant, thus adapting itseall kinds of work, whether moveton or resulting or sathering grans or clover seed. or reaping, or gathering grass or clover seed.

A PERPECT COMBINED MACHINE. Working equally well whether moving or reaping, an arpansing the best single mover, and the best single RAKERS POSITION EASIEST POSSIBLE. This point it surpasses all realers, the takers position rabling him to deliver the gravel at the side with but ne mayement of his arms, a high is as natural and easy if he here standing on the ground and raking.
EASHY MANAGED AND OPERATED. EASIL1 MANAGED AND OFERALED.

By meanby fa lever the driver can at pleasage through the outlers outhand in great; by another lever he can raiserither and the outher of the finger bar to pass over obstructions, or move from field to field; the change from mower to reaper is vasily and quickly made; the oil boxes botts, serves and nutrier easily accounties.
