In square a year, changeable at pleasure, $10.

Access 3 months, $6; 6 months, $6; 9 months, 1 year, $40

Lyes, $10

Lyes COTT & RANKEN,
DRALKES in all kinds of Coal, Salt, Pinker, Flour,
Fish, &c., &c. Public Dock, Erie, Pa.

A. SOOTT,
J. E. RANKER. namn, or 10 squares—one year, $60; 6 months, and the state inserted in the Business Directory at $3 per a card, over six, and under C. SELDEN, WHOLERALB and Retail dealer in all kinds of English, German and American Hardware, Anvils, Vices, Iron, Nalls, Steel, &c. Seddlery and Carriage Trimmings, Machine Belling and Packing Preach street, opposite the Reed House, Eric, Pa. and Editorial notices, 10 cents a line; but no nearly will be inserted among the Special Notices and such that the summer is a state with the summer will be innerted among the Special Notices with no one dollar.

Wherchants and others requiring frequent changes will sufficient a will be allowed two aquares, paper, for $10. For additional space, the charges will perform, and the dvertisements must be strictly by the legitimate business of the advertiser. Paying transment advertisements required in advance-type advertising will be presented half-yearly

BUSINESS DIRECTORY.

PARIS RV.

Dyalak in Imported Wines and Liquona, Daule of French Brandies, Glina, &c., Champaigne, caref, Madeira, Malaga, Sherry, Portand all kinds and the Wines also manufacturer of rectified WiriaField Rive Hourbon, Monongahela, &c., Reed House, on

C. BURGESS & CO.. WHOLKSALE DEALERS IN GROWERIES AND THE STREET, NO. 10 Brown & Block

M. COLE.

BOOK BINDER, BLANK BOOK MANIFACTURER,

LISTOTY Of RINDERDS block, Love, Pa DWING, WILSON, DWING, WILSON, Altorist & Counsellion at Law, Eric Pages State Street, near the Parks in the American and Assorting the buildings occupied by F. & M. will all the will always be found in his office, and assignmentally attended to

HICKMAN, KENDIG & CO., WHOTNALK AND RETAIL GROWERS, and FROM, Pork, Fish, Salt, Seeds Wood and Ware, Name and Glass, at No. 2 Wright's Block,

WALL NOFFENDERT BENES BEENMAN, FLEKKNING OHN W. WALKER.

We case prompt attention to the locating of land oracles and the payment of leaves in the Stational Mission than town win about in oracle for the purchase Mission town wing land, A.

S. NEWTON PETTING VITONING COLUMN CONTRACTOR STATE OF THE COLUMN COLUMN

The M. Al-TIN.

Decrease to Clocks, Watches, Fine downsprins, I also Warr, Looking Gissess, truly of the sould Fancy Cools, Paragon Building, West fast time feaches.

HOLDAN, WHOLESCHA RETAIL DESCRIPTION OF STREET OF STREET OF STREET OF STREET OF STREET, THE SHORE OF STREET, THE S A DAVENPORT. ATTORNEY AT LAW Office in Central
A Numberger & Haker's Clothing Store - Fu

M. A. GALBRAITH. ATTORNEY AT LAW Office on 6th street, to the Court House, brie, is

A Secretary of Steam of State and State and Secretary of Secre

WILLIAM S. LANE.
APTORIES AND OUNSELOR AT LAW LO CHANGE to corner rooms of Rosensweig's Block, a See Street and the Public Square, Free, I's DRIGDEN & HUTCHINSON.

ATTORISM AT LAW - Office in Rosen k spposite Brown's Hotel, cutrance on the

W. Hutchinson is Notary Put he and Commos-A REGION . D. W. H. T. HISBOY. W. E. MAGILLA

DESTINAT, toffice in Roger 20 1 FN A. CRAISS

P. Ot. Ell's & BENNES & A. MOLESALE AND RETAIL IN alers in Hard-to-Crockery, olsasware and Saddlery, Nos 11 and 12 ... Block, corner of Futh and State atreets, Ere. Pa

CONKEY de NHANNON.

(Successors to Barney & M'Conkey con on highish, terman and American Hardwar and critical, Naila, Anvila, Vicea, Iron and Steel, No few Hense, Frie, Pa JAMES LYTLE.

TAILOR, in the room recently occupated by core Sill, Esq. as a Law Office, and over the Store of N
Surphy between the Reed House and Brown's Hotel

SANFORD & CO.,
DEALERS IN GOLD, Silver, Bank Notes,
criticates of Deposit, &c. Sight exchange on the prin,a. thee constantly for sale. OfficeNo 9 Reed House Square, Eric.

BULLERS and Manufacturers of Sash.

Hours and Binds, Peach et , in the shop formerly occupies

Hugh Jones

P. MINNIG.
DEALER in Groweries, Provisions, Procore, Pork, Piel, Salt, Grain, Flour, Frusts, Nuts, Glass,
Nath Brootin, Paris, Wooden, Wolfow and Stone Ware, Lering Carl, Prices Iow. No 4Wright's Block,
Note Street, 4 doors above the Post Office, Free Pa

Block north State Square, formerly occupied by Magill & Co. All work warranted GRAY & FARRIR.

WHOLDRAIL GROURE, and dealers in Next India Goods Powder, Shot, Caps, Safety Fuse, I bacco, Cigara, Fish, oil, &c., &c., No. 7 Hounest Block, saits street, Eric, Pa. 8 1818. TORN HEARN & CO., F) FORWARDING and Commission Merchanta vants in coal, Flour, Fish, and agent for a daily line o upper Lake Steamera, Public Bock, Erie, Pa

I IDDRIL, MARSH, & Co., MANUFACTURES OF Steam Engines, Sodiers, N. | George, Agricultural implements, Railroad Care, N. | Frie, Fa

FASRIONABLE DEEM MAKER, and Agent for wheeler & Wilson's Sewing Machines Austin's lowelry Store, West Park, Erie, Pa. Stitchmer done to Order (*RORGE H. CUTLER.
ATTORIET AT LAW, Grand, Eric County,
Collections and other business attended to with ROASTED.

compiness and dispatch TOHN SWEENY. JUNEAU THE PERCENT CHECK IN BESTLY'S

WM. M. OACGERY, YOHN W. AYRES.

MASTERACTURES, Wholesale and Retail brailer in all hinds of Fancy, Brawing Room, Rocking oning and Dining Chairs, No. 4 Key stone Block, Erie, Pa

PARR & KELNEY,
DEALERS in Buots and Shoes at Wholes are and Retail, at No. 13, Cadwell's Block State street ()1.DS & LOWMAKUPACTURERS E Wholesale and Betail lealers in Well and Clutern Pumps of superior quality, the brapest and best now in use. Shop on Twelfth street

rear Peach, Erie, Pa.

The Aqueduct for earrying water for family, farm mechanical purposes for sale cheap N. O. I., KLLIOTT, RESIDENT DESCRIPTION OF SHARE THE PARK ROW.

GRORGE J. MORTON. FORWARDING and Commission Merchant Public Dock, Erse, dealer in Coal, Salt, Fish, Flour and Planter

We mean every genuine Lady, such as uses the Garden Rake and Franing Knife, should procure a Pair of the VCLCANIZED INDIA RUBBER GLOVES, by which her hands will be perfectly protected from injury, and rendered soft, white and delicate, to be had at New Drug Storé of April 8, 1856.

CARTED M*CARTER & Le Rela-OGG.

MOLERIE and Retail dealers in Groceries,
Provisions, Ship Chandlery, Wood and Willow ware &n., Ac., State Street, Erie, Penn.

WILL A. GRINWOLD, Jobber, and Retail bealer in every description of Foreign and Domestic Dry tuneds, Carpetings, Oil Cloths, &c. No. 13, State street, other of Fifth, Eric. Pa.

WILLIAM THORNTON, Iverior of the Praces. Deeds, Agreement Bonds and Mortgages, Leases, &c., accurately and artilly drawn. Office on French, street, over Jas. S.
Terrett, Grocery Store Krie, Pa.

F. DOWNING.
ATTORNEY AT LAW AND JUSTICE OF THE PRACK Will practice in the several Courts of Krie County,

3-3 give prompt and faithful attention to all business eagers prompt and faithful attention to all basiness of trusted to his hands, either as an Atturney or Magistrate.

Fig. Pa.

Fig. Pa.

W. DOUGLAMS, ATTORIET AT LAW.—Office removed to new building west of State Street, on the north side of the Park, Fine Pa.

DEAF AND BLIND.
DE. Gaiswoln, Oculist and Corist, No. 230 Main Street, Buffalo, N. Y. buttoes his attention exclusively to the treatment of Feb 19, 1859 .- 37.17.

every thing in the line of PAINTS, for sale at the Store May 12. TARM LANIS EOR SALE 25 MILES from Philadelphia by Railroad in the State of New Jersey. Soil among the best for Agricultural purposes, being a good loam sail, with a clay bottom. The land is a large tract, divided into small farms, and hundreds from all parts of the country are now settling and building.—The crops produced are large and can be seen growing.—The climate is delightful, and secure from frosts. Terms from $18 to $20 per acre, payable within four year by instalments. To visit the place—Leave Vine Street Wharf at Philadelphia at 7½ A. M. by Railroad for Hammoniou, or address R.J. Byrnes, by letter, Hammonious Fost Office, Atlantic Country, New Jersey. See full advertisement in another column. TER THER DITSTERS

PERMINS WANTING CHANGE OF

B. F. SLOAN, EDITOR & PROPRIETOR.

For Sale at a Great Sacrifice !

THE owner having no use for them!
India knbber Air Bed, little used. Prims Goose Feather Bed, weigh 50 lbs. Chamber Suit, Marble Tops, Gilt Flowers, Gilt Mirror best plais, 40x18, Sofs Bedstead, nearly new, Moss Mattrass and Coverlid, with Kitchen Requisites. For Sale on Commission, by Erie, July 9 G. W. ELLSEY, State Street.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, to all persons having friends in the Enited Fresbyterian Burying ground, (on the corner of Eighth and Fresch Streeta,) in Krie, to remove or cause the removal of their remains, on or before the 18th day of October next.—Those remaining in the grounds after that time will be removed by the Trustees of the Congregation, agreed to the provisions of the Act of Assembly, passed at the last seasion of the Legislature, authorizing said removal. Erie, July 2, 1859.—4td By order of the Trustees

F. A. LONG, M. D.

Physician, Surgeon and Dentist.

UNION MILLS,

DR. L. having permanently located at Union Mills, will attend all calls in his profession with promptness. All useful operations on the Teeth performed and warranted. Artificial teeth inserted from one to an entire sett. July 2, 1859.—4

REED HOUSE:

FRONTING THE PUBLIC SQARE,

P. ELLIOTT, Proprietor.

THIS LARGE AND ELEGANT HOTEL

Has been thoroughly repaired and refurnish-d, and is now open for the reception of guests.

unable terms, the Proprietor pledging himself that no effort shall be unnting to give entire satisfaction Private Parties, Onner Parties, or Managers of Public Balls will find the accommodations at this House superior to any other in the city and the charges as rea-sonable.

For Chicago

And Intermediate Ports!

() NE OF THE PEOPLE'S LINE OF

NEW GOODS! NEW GOODS!!

FRENCH AND AMERICAN MILLINERY

BONNETS, RIBBONS, FLOWERS, &c., &c.

Mrs. M. desires to inform the public that she is prepared, by a new and beautiful process, to renovate and Color Straw, Mopolitan, Chip, and Leghorn, in a most superior stellar.

Orders solicited, and satisfaction warranted. Store Corner of State and Eighth Streets, Erie Pa.

Peach St., above the Depot Erie, Pa Has just opened a new and splendid Stock of

STRAW GOODS
RIBBONS,
BILLIES,
PLOWERS AND TARRES

NEW GOODS!

SPRING AND SUMMER MILLINERY

M. R.S. M. CUKTIS.

In now receiving a large and Full Assortment of MILLINERY and FANCY GOODS, consisting of a great variety of White and COLORED STRAW BONNTES, BLOOMERS,

GROCERIES, &c.,
SELLING CHEAP FOR READY PAY'
BECKMAN, KENDIG & CO.,
No. 2. Wright's Block, Eric. Pa.
OFFER AT WHOLESALE OR RETAIL
SUGARS of all DESCRIPTIONS,
(4.17 AM. DESCRIPTIONS)

SYRUPS AND MOLASSES, OF ALL GRADES.
RICE, SOAP, STARCH, CANDLES, RAISINS, BAKING POWDERS, PRUNES.

FRUIT, NUTS, &c.

WHITE FISH.

CODFISH

and MACKEREI.

PORK.

BACON,

BUTTER,

ARD, RGGS,
DRIED APPLES,
WOOD and WILLOW WARE,
NAME AND GLASS,

NASIM AND GLAMM,
Together with a large assortment of all kinds of GOGIS kept in a Grocery Store, which we offer to sail at the lowest market price. CALL AND SER US

BECKMAN, KENDIG & CO.,
April 16, 1859.

No. 2, Wright's Block.

The subscriber has one large size
HERRING'S SAFE, which he will dispose of cheap for Cash or approved paper. W. L. SCOTT

Cash or approved paper. W. L. SCULL Erie, April 9, 1859.—44.1f.

RENCH SNOW WHITE ZINC,

dry and ground in white Damar Varnish, for Por colain finish, at No. 5 Reed House.

Erie, Jane 4, 1859.—52.

DAINTS! PAINTS!! PAINTS!!

White Lead, dry and in oil, American and Prench Zinc, Raw and Belled Linewed OM, Venetian Red, French Ochre, Chrome and French Green, and in short every thing in the line of PAINTS, for sale at the Store May 12.

T. S. SINCLAIR.

WHO WANTS ASAFE.
The subscriber has one lar-

GROUND.

AND IMPERIAL TEAS, OF DIFFRENT GRADES:

JAVA

MRS M. CURTIS.

AT LOW PRICES

RIO COFFEE

of the latest styles

MRS. M. CURTIS.

April 9, 1809

GREEN, BLACK

ARD.

Krie, June 4, 18a9 | 52.1f

MRS. M. A. MORGAN, intent styles of Straw Goods.

April 16, 1859 - 45tf

G. J. MORTON, Public Dock

AND

MILLUNERY

GOODS.

MILLINERY

ERIE, PA.

VOLUME 30.

$1,50 PER ANNUM IN ADVANCE.

NUMBER 10.

Charles saw at once that the delay must be said: descend the steps and welcome her sister with a kiss.

"Le me, if there isn't the squire kissing of her tu," said Patty; "well, I declars, I de > see no one within. Several children were at play round the door, who, having seen Charles approach, with mouth and eyes wide

"You little rascal, I say, where's the school ma'am?" "She jest went down that road," said the bling those of a musical box than anything

"She started alone," said the boy, "and a man met her out there a little ways, and Stephen Jones was too early a riser for Charles Robinson, and, in any enterprize where both were concerned, was pretty turned about and went with her." Charles felt that his cake was all dough sure to take the lead, except where money could-carry the palm, and then, of course, it was always borne away by Charles. As and Lucy Brown walked very leisurely Miss Lucy had been absent the most of the home through the woods, and Charles and the scales were better played on the puno the boys went very leisurely in the boat week, and was to be at home that afternoon, Charles Robinson had made an ar-rangement with his mother and sister to have a little tea-party in the evening, for the purpose of inviting Miss Brown; and when they started. And when they reached then, of course, he should walk home with the wharf, Charles in order to show that he her in the evening; and then, of course, had been a fishing, took a long string of fish stronger than our fear We enter the would be a good opportunity to break the ice, and make know his feelings and wishes. Stephen Jones, however, was more prompt in his movements. He had got been informed of the proposed tea-party for the key; all the girls scream out at been informed of the proposed tea-party for the evening, to which she was to be inwind of the proposed tea-party, although himself and sisters, for obvious reasons, had vited, and to which Stephen Jones and not been invited, and he resolved not to Susan Jones were not to be invited: and await the arrival of Miss Brown and her visit when Miss Lucy's invitation came, she sent back word that she was ENGAGED.

a little out of the village. As ill luck would have it, Charles Robinson had been out in the same direction, and was returning with an armful of green boughs and wild flowers, to ornament the parlor for the evening. He saw Stephen, and noticed his dress, and there was a king weighing 50 pounds, the direction he was going and he at once and there was a gold hat weighing 25 Joseph has it in her power to be a deliver. smoked the whole business. His first im pounds. He also states that more than er from evil, through grace, and a Minispulse was to rush upon him, and collar him, three thousand persons were digging in the ter of good to aching hearts and erring

A YOUNG MAN SAVED .- Burleigh the Stephen was walking very leisurely, and New York correspondent of the Boston Journal, relates the following anecdote as unconscious that he was in any danger of a competitor on the course, and it was imillustrating the ease with which a young portant that his suspicions should not be exman may be saved as well as ruined. cited. Charles therefore remained perfectly one of the leading brokers of New York quiet till Stephen had got a little out of had a young man in his employ. The vast hearing, and then threw down his bushes amount of money in his hands was a great and flowers and ran to the wharf below the store with his utmost speed. He had one missed day after day, one quarter, then

Now, let me see no more of this."

He went to his work. He did not diswas a splendid offer for their services, and they jumped on board with abscrity, and appoint the man's confidence. He did honor manned the cars Charles took a paddle to his employer. And the other day he was inducted into one of our banks in an honorable position, and his employer became his bondsman to the amount of $10,000. Itends returning to it in the Fall. He does so entirely for the benefit and assistance by water was a little less than by land, and although Stephen had considerably the start of him, he believed he should be able claimed his dishonor—perhaps he would have ended his days in the State Prison, have done-sent the boy away and proto reach the School house first, especially his pace. In one minute after he arrived and been sent to his tomb in the garb of at the whart, the boat was under full way. a convict. But one young man was res-The boys laid down to the oars with right cued from ruin, who had been placed amid good will, and Charles put all his strength the temptations of money and for a moupon the paddle. They went shooting ment was overcome. over the water twice as fast as a man could

WHERE THE LAHOH CAME IN .- Bunce' and Sizer's farm adjoined each other. Sizer had an unruly sheep which was in the habit of getting into Bunce's field. Bunce expostulated with Sizer several times, and then told him if he did not keep his sheep at home, he would fix him so he wouldn' jump any more fences. But Bunce soon found the sheep back again; so he caught him, and with a knife severed the cuticle or skin just beyond the gambril joint, and coming in sight, ordered the boys to stop rowing, and he grasped his paddle with between the main cord and bone, then thrust the other hind leg through the aparture, and then put the sheep back over the fence, breathless anxiety and waited for Stephen who went off hobbling on three legs. Sizer soon after discovered the sad plight his sheen was in, and he knew very well who was the cause of it, but he concluded to take things coolly, and await some suitable opportunity to revenge himself. Presently, Bunce's old sow broke into Sizer's field, when he caught her, and with a sharp knife cut her mouth almost from ear to ear, and turned her back. When Bunce discovered this, he went to Sizer in a great rage, and demanded of him what he did that for .-Sizer said, "upon my word neighbor Bunce, I didn't do any such thing. Your old sow split her mouth laughing at my sheep through the This, of course, added new life to the ence!"—Syracuse Standard. boys and increased the speed of the boat.

A WAGGISH CHAP, whose vixen wife, by drowning, lost her precious life, called out his neighbors, and told them that his spouse was drowned—and could not be found. He knew, he said, the very nook where she had tumbled in the brook; and he had dragged along the shore, above the place, a to compel him to reveal her parents. She mile or more. "Above the place?" the people cried. "Why, what d'ye mean?" The man replied, "Of course you don't suppose I'd go and waste the time to look her. Recently he has refused to support her. or to deliver the property or disclosure. how! I've known the woman quite a the facts connected with her birth. spell, and learned her whimsies passing well-alive or dead, she'd go, I vow, against the current, anyhow!".

is one feature which is apparent all over tated leg was four inches shorter than it. the West; while the towns and cities have fellow, but perfectly sound. The patient has diminished in business and population, the country has increased in both. Men who could not live in town have gone out upon of "going ahead," even if it is by me in the prairies, put their hands to the plow, of a wooden propeller. and determined that it is better to raise wheat at fifty cents per bushel than it is through the water. He flew up the bank, and along the road, till he reached the house. The door was open, but he could open, stared at him.

"Where's the school ma'am ?" said Chas.
hastily, to one of the largest boys.
"Why," said the boy, opening his eyes still wider, "is any of the folks dead?"

boy, "two or three minutes ago."
"Was she alone?" said Charles.

the pond home. His mind was at once made up. He would go round and meet ama to the 22d ult. have been received.— The rifling of old Indian graves in the disshe got out of the chaise. How does she look, Jack?"

In and up. The would go round and meet the rating of out indian graves in the district of Chiriqui was on the increase. The bern on her walk. There, in that winding "Handsome as a pictur," said Jack. "I haint seen a prettier girl since last Thanks. In and shady trees overhead, and the wild tall and shady trees overhead, and the wild tall and shady trees overhead, and the wild the rating of out indian graves in the district of Chiriqui was on the increase. The brig Josefa, Capt. Patterson, a New Englished on the 20th for the new haint seen a prettier girl since last Thanks. grapevines twining round their trunks and climbing to the branches, while the wild birds were singing through the woods, and few English adventurers, and one Monte "Blue," said Jack, "but all-fired bright." the wild ducks playing in the coves along dealer. The accounts of golden images Hewett, a Southern lady, formely of Min"Tall or short?" said Stephen Jones who the shore, surely there, if anywhere in the and trinkets found in the huacas were world, could a man bring his mind up to growing more extravagant daily. A hat the reconciliation of Mr. and Mrs. Sickles made of gold had been found, and a gold woman. It was reported that one man had Merchant's Record. washed and brushed himself up, and put said on his Sunday clothes, and started on his expedition. In order to avoid observation, many hundreds of Indians. The gold is mentioned in the sacred history, was he took a back route across the field, intending to come into the road by the pond | bodies in whose honor the images were de- of Jerico was taken, and no other soul-

and demand that he should return back. But when he recollected that in the last scratch he had with Stephen, two or three years before, he had a little the worst of it, hashed upon his mind at once that the question must now he reduced to a game of speed. If he could by any means gain the speed. If he could by any means gain the school-house first, he should feel a good Hereupon Mrs. Jones assumed at air of the most perfect indifference, as the surest sail, but had been disappointed. Her new a moment's warning to start on an expedition of this kind, for Sunday clothes were the peculation. The broker showed him he could detect the abstraction of the There was a light canoe belonging to his There was a light canoe belonging to his smallest sum from his money; the young father lying at the wharf, and a couple of man stammered and confessed. "Well," Brown were seen coming down the road, stout boys were there fishing. Charles said the broker, "I shall not discharge I shall not dis row him across the pend as quick as they you-and make a man of you. You will be a vagabond if you go along in this way. ter of a dollar apacee. This, in their view, DERENONS WANTING CHANGE OF climate for boath. See advertisement of Hammon and Lands, another columns.

See advertisement of Hammon and Lands, another columns.

Limit to defend her red eyes from the rays of the an interest no less intense, watched every charles' paddle made the warter fly like the to trade on credit with no securities and no setting sun, and her skinny chin protrumovement of the other. They had ceased tail of a wounded shark, Charles urged them pay.

THE MYSPERIOUS PLANG-PLAYER -- A COTrespondent of the Musical World relates the following droll incident:—Not long since I was invited to pay a visit to some friends out of town. In the family were three young ladies, besides young children. Being musical, we spent the greater part of the first evening of my visit in singing and playing, and, at a proper hour retired for the night, as we supposed. As I was a great favorite with all the girls, each one wanted to sleep with me, and to effect this, it was decided that instead of going to my room, I should remain in their double bedded room. Accordingly, instead of going to sleep, we lay and talked (as girls often do) some hours. Milly touched me on Fanny, who were in the other bed. "There! now, girls don't you hear it.-

Some one is playing on the planowith "Who can it be?" said Milly. "Why did you not lock it, Fanny, it is your place to do it?"
"Well," said Fanny, "I did, and the key is in the pocket of my dress."

This, of course, we would not believe.— So, trembling from head to foot, she got up. dark as it was, found the dress, with the key in its pocket. All this while we heard the piano, sounding in simple scales from top to bottom, and vice versa, but producing the most wonderful quantity tune, resem-else. We had all heard of spirits, and were quite sure there were some in the house for it was not probable that any of the children would be up at that hour of the night. So it was decided that we should hold each other by the hand, and go acros-the hall to the father's room. At this time as if some one had been ordered to practice procession after him with chattering teeth but with eager faces, for our curiosity was

"Don't open it; it must be spirits."
But Mr. W. does not believe in piano playing spirits, and opens the instrument while we are all huddled together, and he exclaims:

"Gracious me, it's a mouse" How we laughed and screamed, and looked for the little animal, but it was no one.

MR. AND MRS SICKLES.--Mrs. H. O. C We give a specimen, as we find it in the found in earthen vessels by the side of the saved, with all her family, when the city

Dh has it in her power to be a deliver Cannot some one recommend a panacea for their distress?

A GEORGIA RAILROAD .- The railroad by tween Kingston and Rome, in Georgia, it it is not a one-horse concern, is a mighty slow team. A friend of ours rejoicing in the name of Tick—a telegraph man, too was riding upon the lightning train on the temptation to him. Small sums were goad, when he spied a negro tolding alone with a pack on his back. In the exuber ant generosity of his nature Tick sere uncel out: "Halloa, Uncle! come about descours aboard and ride to town!" The polite and glistening African touched his beaver and replied: "Beg pardon, massa, but I can't mus' git dar soon, and haln't got to the spar!" When we met Tick in Rome (cl. time afterwards, he expatiated warmly up on the merits of the sair road Soul la "It is the cheapest road in the United States-you can ride on it il day to a

> THE BLACK ART .-- Edwin P. Christs who made a large fortune in the Negro Minstrelsy business, and then returned in of George Christy, who is connected with ing laboriously carned his property, de-carefully kept it. George left E. P. som-years ago, and joined the Wood Minstrel Wood and he afterwards quarreled Since then, you will remember, George was for bidden to perform in the city, and fined for attempting to do so, he having signed a written agreement to that effect soon as George's term of probation has expired, Ned Christy and he will open on Broadway, and the two, with a good company, will do all in their power to crush out Wood.

"My son," said a philosophical old gentleman, "when draymen take the tem perance pledge and the police refuse bubes when an omnibus half empty goes the same pace as a full one; when the law o. private property extend to umbrellas and when a bachelor in lodgings finds a shirt without a button off, then thou mavest chance to find a wife who will not object to travel without eight and twenty packages and who will show herself possessed of such angelic self-derial as even to refuse thine offer of a dress simply because she thinks that she doesn't need it." N. Y., which bears the name of "Painted

The origin of the name is told as Post.'' follows: It takes its derivation from a wooden monument in the form of a large hewn square post, painted red, with images in black, which was erected by a band of victorious Indians, at that point, some time in the Seventeenth Century, in commemoration of a bloody battle in which some sixty or seventy of an opposing tribe were slain and captured.

SINGULAR LAW SUIT .- A singular law suit is in progress in New York. A young lady, nineteen years old, suesher guardian her, or to deliver the property, or disclose Exchanging Less .- A gentleman's leg was amputated on Wednesday, at the Massachusetts Hospital in order that he might A Western correspondent says, there have an artificial leg applied. .. The ampu

God hears the heart without the

ERIE, PA., SATURDAY MORNING, AUGUST 13, 1859

"AT REST."

Poetical

When the march of day is ended, And we need no more keep time To the clanging sounds of active life, With their slow and measured chime.

How sweet to droop our wearied lids O'er wearied eyes, while rest, Like a holy benediction, floats

To us from islands blest. But oh, if sin hath left its cross On the tablets of the day, Rest will not still the harp of life, But on its chords still play.

Ringing sad and fitful changes With a chiding touch and low, Till every quivering string gives forth A shivering voice of woe

Thus will it be when death's dark night Shall settle like a pall Around us, and we fold our hands The dead past to recall.

Our hearts will wildly wail; But white days will a glimmer throw Within the darkened vale.

If darkened days fill upfihe ranks,

Choice-Literature. A SWEETHEART RACE.

BY SEBR SMITH.

Found Stabling attached where guests from the country will always find attentive hostlers to take charge of their teams.

May 6, 1859-1448 Hardly any event creates a stranger senation in a thinly settled New England vilage, especially among the young folks, than the arrival of a fresh and blooming Propellers will leave this Port for Chicage and Intermediate Forton WRDNRSDAY and SATUR-DAY deach week, wind and weather permitting for freight or passage apply to Manney Miss, who comes to make her abode in the neighborhood. When, therefore, Squire neighborhood. When, therefore, Squire for Jack was coming by the squire's when Johnson, the only lawyer in the place, and she got out of the chaise. How does she very respectable man, of course, told look, Jack?" Farmer Jones one afternoon that his wife's sister, a smart girl of eighteen, was coming in a few days to reside in the family, the news flew like wild-fire through Pond village and was the principal topic of conversation for a week. Pond village is situated has just returned from New York with c largest and most complete assortment of FRENCH upon the margin of one of those numerous and beautiful sheets of water that gem the whole surface of New England like the AMERICAN bright stars in an eveningsky, and received its appellation to distinguish it from two or three other villages in the same township, which could not boast of a similar location. When Farmer Jones came in to Ever brought to this city, including all the his supper about sunset, that afternoon, and took his seat at the table, the eyes of INONNETS. RIBBOAN, FLOWERS, &C., &C.
In short, every thing in the Millinery line, which will be sold wholesale or retail at prices that defy competition.
Country Milliners supplied with Goods at New York prices, adding a small Commission. As she has made arrangements to receive Goods every two weeks, she offers peculiar inducements to those buying to sell again to make their purchases at her establishment. was a peculiar working about his mouth and a knowing glance in his eyes that alwould probably have rolled the important and invite her to go with us."
secret as a sweet morsel under his tongue "Agreed," said Stephen Jones. secret as a sweet morsel under his tongue for a long time, had not Mrs. Jones, who was rather of an impatient and prying turn ] of mind, contrived to draw it from him.

North and the sea, "what is it you are going to say? Do, out with it; for you've MRS S HELLINERY GOODS. been chawing something in your mind ever ince you came in the house."

lones, with another knowing glance of STRAW GOODS, his eve. "Now, father, what's the use?" said Sutell us what 'tis." PLOWERS. "La, who cares what 'tis!" said Mrs.

Ac. Ac. Also, BONNETS, RUSCHES AND TABBS, Jones; "if M was anything worth telling, machine and hand-made, bonnet frames and crowns, we shouldn't have to wait for it. I dare we shouldn't have to wait for it. I dare DRESS BONNETT, DRESS CAPS, & HEAD of the latest styles. Particular attention paid to enforme, bleaching and Pressing. Roomers and Riding Hate dressed in the most fashionable style.

Allo, a superior lot of Ladies Honery together with a general assortment of Ladies Honery together with a general assortment of Ladies Honery. way, was a very improper term to apply in the case; for it was only the working of obstinacy attached to it.

There was a pause of two or three minutes in the conversation, till Mr. Jones passed his cup to be filled a second time, when, with a couple of preparatory shems, he began to let out the secret. "We are to have a new neighbor here in few days," said Mr. Jones, stopping short when he had uttered this much, and sipping his ten and filling his mouth with COLORED STRAW BONNTES, BLOOMERS, And Children's Hate of every style, Shaker Hoods, Roy's Hate, &c. &c. Ribbons, Flowers, Rucher, Cape, Head Dresses, Alexandre's Kid Gloves, Hossiers, Lace Vells, French Corsetts and Skirts, Materials of all kinds for Embroidery, Valenciennes, Lace, Applique and French Work, Collars, Sleeves, &c. MHLLINERS supplied with Goods at wholessale, also, Plaster Bonnet Blocks. Bleaching and Pressing done in the best mannet, also, Straw Bonnets colored Drab, Brown and Black. Mrs. Jones, who was perfect in her tactics, said not a word, but attended to the affairs of her table as though she had not noticed what was said. The farmer's secretiveness had at last worked itself out, and he began again.

"Squire Johnson's wife's sister is coming here in a few days, and is going to live with: The news being thus fairly divulged left iree scope for conversation.

"Well, I wonder if she is a proud, stuck up piece," said Mrs. Jones.

"I shouldn't think she would be," said Susan, "for there ain't a more sociable woman in the neighborhood than Mrs. Johnson. So if she is at all like her sister. I think we shall like her."
"I wonder how old she is?" said Stephen, who was just verging toward the close of his twenty-first year. "The squire called her eighteen," said Mr. Jones, giving a wink to his wife, as much as to say, that's about the right-age for Stephen.

"I wonder if she is handsome," said Susan, who was somewhat vain of her own looks," and having been a sort of reigning belle in Pond village for some time, she felt a little alarmed at the idea of a rival. "I dare be bound she's handsome," said Mrs. Jones, "if she's sister to Mrs. Johnson, for where'll you find a handsomer woman than Mrs. Johnson, go the town through?"

After supper, Stephen went down to Mr. Robinson's store, and told the news to young Charlie Robinson, and all the young fellows who were gathered there for a game at quoits and ring at wrestling. And Susan went directly over to Mr. Bean's and san went directly over to Mr. Bean's and told Patty, and Patty went around to Widness and told Patty, and Patty went around to Widness and told Patty, and Patty went around to Widness and told Patty, and Patty went around to Widness and told Patty, and Patty went around to Widness and told Patty, and Patty went around to Widness and to Patty went around to the window, and once or twice when most like a bird, carrying a white bone in her moth, and leaving a long ripple on the fair view they all had of her at meeting on the Babbath, served but to increase their admiration, and to render her more and with his paddle. Although Stephen upon the squire Johnson's door. Of course the garded by all as a prize, and several of them. Stephen at a slow walk, Charles still had the control of the window, and once or twice when most like a bird, carrying a white bone in her moth, and leaving a long ripple on the glassy wave behind her. Charles' hands trembled, but still he did good execution with his paddle. Although Stephen upon the run was a very different thing from the window, and once or twice when most like a bird, carrying a white bone in her moth, and leaving a long ripple on the glassy wave behind her. Charles' hands trembled, but still he did good execution with his paddle. Although Stephen upon the run was a very different thing from the window. eyes of the whole village were turned in that direction. Sally Davis, who was just in order to win her. The two most promiting his point. He sveral times caught coming in from milking, set her pail down nent candidates, however, for Miss Brown's glimpses of Stephen through the tress, and, on the grass by the side of the road as soon favor, were Charles Robinson and Steon the grass by the side of the road as soon favor, were Charles Robinson and Steas well as he could judge, the boat had a litate chaise came in sight, and watched it phen Jones. Their position and standing the the best of it. But when they came out till it reached the squire's door, and the among the young men of the village seem into the last opening, where for a little way gentleman and lady had got out and gone ed to put all others in the back ground. into the house. Patty Bean was doing up the ironing that afternoon, and she had just taken a hot iron from the fire as the till the whole ceremony of alighting, greeting, and entering the house was over. Old Mrs. Bean stood with her head out ding about three inches in advance of a couple of stubs of teeth, which her open mouth exposed fairly to view.

"Seems to me they are dreadful loving,"

to speak to each other about her, and if to spring with all their might, and one of the boys making a desperate plunge upon the arm in the middle of a most interesting account I was giving her of the operation.

The second week after her arrival, of the other oar headed the boat from land.

of her tu," said Patty; "well, I declare, I take charge of it. This announcement at sprang from the boat, and rushed toward would waited till I got in the house, I'll first threw something of a damper upon the shore as fast as he was able to press die if I wouldn't. It looks so vulgar to be the spirits of the young people of Pond kissing afore folks, and out of doors tu; I village. But when it was understood that should think Squire Johnson would be the school would continue but a few weeks, sshamed of himself."

Bean, who came up that moment, and who | urday afternoon and spend the Sabbath, it had passed the chaise just as the young lady alighted from it. "I shouldn't be "Why, is she handsome, Jack?" said

Patty.
"Yes, she's got the prettiest little puckermouth I've seen these six months. Her cheeks are red, and her eyesshine like new buttons.

group of young fellows with him were standing in front of Robinson's store, a little further down the road, and watching the scene that was passing at Squire Johnson's. They witnessed the whole with becoming decorum, now and then making a remark upon the fine horse and the hand-some chaise, till they saw the tall squire bend his head down and give the young lady a kiss, when they all burst out into a loud laugh. In a moment, being conscious that their laugh must be heard and noticed at the squire's, they, in order to do away the impression it must necessarily make, at once turned their heads another way, and Charles Robinson, who was quick at an expedient, knocked off the hat of the lad who was standing next to him, and then they all laughed louder than before.
"Here comes Jack Bean," said Charles, giving day, when Jane Ford was here to visit

'now we shall hear something about her,

Susan Jones." "Black eyes or blue?" asked Charles. particular interest on that point.

Charles. "They called her Lucy when she got out the whole family were upon him, for there | married, I s'pose her name must be Lucy

Brown. "Just such a name as I like," said Charles ways told them when he had any thing of interest to communicate. But Farmer Now suppose, in order to get acquainted with her, we all fands take a sail to-morperament note the most active, and he row night, about this time, on the pond,

> "Agreed," said Eack Bean. "Agreed," said all hands. The question the harose who should carry being rather baseful on that store, it was finally settled that Susan Jones should least to most of the young men of Pond village; and promptly an hour before sunsan: "we all know you've something or set most of them were assembled, with other you want to say, and why can't you half a score of their sister and female cousset most of them were assembled, with ins, by a little stone wharf on the margin of the pond, for the proposed sail. All the girls in the village of a suitable age were there, except Patty Bean. She had undergone a good deal of fidgetting and call Mr. Jones' obstinacy, which, by the her old flap-sided bonnets she declared she would not, if she never went secretiveness, without the least particle of Brown were seen coming down the road. went through the ceremony of introdu-cing Miss Brown to each of the ladies and > when we sail here," said Charles Robinson, "and there is our sail-boats," pointing to a flat-bottomed scowboat some twenty feet long by ten wide.

> "We don't use sails," said Jack Bean

'tisn't, we row. The party were soon embarked on board cinating manner; she had told stories and sung songs. Among others, she had given Moore's boat song with the sweetest possible effect; and by the time they returned to the landing it would hardly be turned to the landing it would hardly be coming in sight, ordered the boys to stop to the landing it would have the stories and landing in sight, ordered the boys to stop to stories and landing in sight, ordered the boys to stop to stories and sight in the sound of the oars might attract. too much to say that half the young men her. less animated, till at last she became quite ed into a quick run.

reserved and apparently sad. She, however, "Now, boys," says Charles, "buckle to reserved and apparently sad. She, however. on landing accompanied her home to Squire | your oars for your lives and if you get to the Johnson's door, and cordially bid her good shore so that I can reach the school-house night.

The casual glimpses which the young dollar apiece."

This, of cour during the remainder of the week, as she loys and incress. of the window, her iron-bowed spectacles resting upon the top of her forehead, her shriveled hand placed across her eyebrows shamed of himself."

"Well. I shouldn't," said young John Miss Brown would come home every Satwas not very difficult to be reconciled to the temporary arrangement. The week the point of speaking of love.

Accordingly a little before noon, Stephen the direction he was going, and he at once deal of uneasiness for the consequence .-

an every day affair with him,

f Stephen should not see him and quicker again to disappear. But just as he was upon the point of passing behind some trees before Stephen does, I'll give you half a ashamed to kiss such a pretty gal as that, any how; I'd kiss her wherever I could catch her, if it was in the meetin-house." ed the days impatiently till Saturday, they

"Well," replied Patty, "if she'll only take the shine off Susan Jones when she goes to meetin Sunday, I shan't care." While these observations were going on at old Mr. Bean's, Charles Robinson and a was rather short himself, and therefore felt "Rather short," said Jack "but straight and round as a young colt.' "Do you know what her name is."

of the chaise," mid Jack, "and as Mrs. Johnson's name was Brown before she was bear the invitation, and accompany her to the boat, where they should all be in wait-"It's my tobacker, I s'pose," said Mr. ing to receive her."

The next day was a very fong day, at > Presently Susan Jones and Miss Lucy joke was hushed, and each one put on his best looks. When they arrived, Susan possibly could, he would give them a quar-> gentlemen present. "But how in the world are you going to sail?" said Miss Brown, "for there isn't a and stood in the stern to steer the boat, breath of wind; and I don't see any sail- and help propel her ahead. The distance hoat either." "Oh, the less wind we have the better

"sometimes, when the wind is fair, we put a bush to help pull along a little, and when

The party were soon embarked on board the scow, and a couple of oars were set in motion and they glided slowly and pleasantly over as fine a sheet of water as ever glowed in the sunsetting ray.

In one hour's time the whole party felt perfectly acquainted with Miss Lucy Brown. She had talked in the most lively and fascinating manner: she had told stories and still it was very like Studies wish and could be stories and still it was very like Studies wish and could be stories and the water twice as fast as a man could walk, and Charles already felt sure of the victory. But when they had gone about half a mile, they came in the range of a little opening in the trees on the shore, where the road was exposed to view, and there, at that moment, was Stephen pursuing his easy walk. Charles heart was in his mouth.

in the party were decidedly in love with A stern regard to truth requires a remark to be made here not altogether favorable to Susan Jones, which is the more to be replaced in the more greted as she was in the main an excellent stopped short, turned square round, and hearted girl, and highly esteemed by the stood for the space of a minute looking steadily at the bout. Then lifting his hand, and shaking his fist resolutely at Charles, as much as to say, I understand you, he startoccasionally stood at the door or looked out of the window, and once or twice when most like a bird, carrying a white bone in Charles, whose father was wealthy, had thought Stephen ran faster than ever; and every advantage which money could pro-cure. But Stephen, though poor, had de-the school-house than Stephen was, he chaise passed the door, and she ran with it in her hand and stood on the door steps till the whole ceremony of alighting, greeting, and entering the house was over.

Old Mrs. Bean stood with her head out mouth exposed fairly to view.

"Seems to me they are dreadful loving," said Mrs. Bean, sashe saw Mrs. Johnson descend the steps and welcome her sister the district school was offered to Miss Brown the district school was offered to Miss Brown.

counted the long and lagging hours to noon They had both made up their minds that it would be dangerous to wait any longer and they both resolved not to let another Sabbath pass without making a direct proposal to Miss Brown.

ISTHMUS OF PANAMA.-Letters from Pantheyihad a fair view of each other-Charles