

THE OBSERVER.

B. F. SLOAN, Editor. TERMS: $1.50 PER YEAR IN ADVANCE. SATURDAY MORNING, AUGUST 21, 1859.

State Democratic Ticket. RICHARDSON L. WRIGHT. JOHN ROWE.

Two Palaces.

We have in the United States two classes of political enthusiasts, each intensely hostile to the other, but each equally as intense in its own conclusions.

On the other hand, as the more intelligent classes of our institutions, who appreciate the beauty of our constitution...

But they also are prone to be fanatics of one kind when they reason of the institutions of other countries.

They are not the speech of the laborer on his own time in Spain or America. They convene constituent assemblies...

They are not disposed to drag any man into the controversy, and are sought by the members of the Know Nothing...

It is not the fact, like poor dog Trav, he was caught in bed company, and has no one to blame but himself.

The editor of the Patriot and Union, in Harrodsburg, in a recent publication, says: "The editor returning to his duties after a protracted absence, takes occasion to express his regret that the Patriot and Union should have contained personal flings at any candidate for the Democratic nomination at Charleston."

It is not the fact, like poor dog Trav, he was caught in bed company, and has no one to blame but himself.

It is not the fact, like poor dog Trav, he was caught in bed company, and has no one to blame but himself.

The Recent Elections.

THE RECENT ELECTIONS.—The vote of the State was the Nashville Union, will we think they will be much the largest vote...

Among the announcements in this week's Gazette is the name of W. KELLEY, Esq., of this city, as a candidate for the Legislature.

Down in Chautauque county it is said the foot cut down every thing but the county taxes, which we thought was "piling it on pretty thick."

The Crawford Democrat states that on last Thursday, James and Isaac Coyle, who resided in the eastern part of that county, were in the field rolling logs.

The action of the Board of Directors of the Sunbury and Erie road, in locating the Depot at the foot of French and State streets, as noticed briefly by us last week, appears to give very general satisfaction.

There is to be an "Old Soldiers' Convention at Fairville, Ohio, on the 23d, next Tuesday. The Cleveland Democrat says it promises to be an occasion of unusual interest.

The philosopher of the New York Tribune—the modern Dogens of the white coat and hat—writes from Pike's Peak that "white men with two or three squaws each are quite common throughout this region."

The Buffalo Republic says that one night last week, as a brakeman employed on the Central Railroad was coming from the Montegone House, Suspension Bridge, to the American Hotel, in that place, a man stepped up to him, placed his left arm around his neck so as to disable him by choking, and then deliberately bit the Central Railroad brakeman's nose off down to the bones of his face.

The editor of the Patriot and Union, in Harrodsburg, in a recent publication, says: "The editor returning to his duties after a protracted absence, takes occasion to express his regret that the Patriot and Union should have contained personal flings at any candidate for the Democratic nomination at Charleston."

It is not the fact, like poor dog Trav, he was caught in bed company, and has no one to blame but himself.

Local and Literary.

THE PUBLIC AFFAIRS of this city will open on the 6th of September.

Blondin, the great rope walker at Niagara Falls, has got an infanterist. A Monsieur DeLays, opposed the Geneva River at Rochester, on a tight rope, on Tuesday.

On Friday morning of last week, PUTTIP MATHEW, a glue manufacturer of this city, died suddenly of disease of the heart, while riding in a wagon near the Cemetery.

James Gordon Bennett, of the New York Herald, doubtless being ambitious to distinguish himself, is traveling from New York city to Niagara Falls with his own carriage, accompanied by two ladies.

Notwithstanding the liberal appropriation of $100 by our "City Fathers," to be placed in the hands of the Mayor for the purpose of suppressing rowdism in the city, we are told the "Short Boys" are as busy as ever every night.

The Crawford Democrat states that on last Thursday, James and Isaac Coyle, who resided in the eastern part of that county, were in the field rolling logs.

The action of the Board of Directors of the Sunbury and Erie road, in locating the Depot at the foot of French and State streets, as noticed briefly by us last week, appears to give very general satisfaction.

There is to be an "Old Soldiers' Convention at Fairville, Ohio, on the 23d, next Tuesday. The Cleveland Democrat says it promises to be an occasion of unusual interest.

The philosopher of the New York Tribune—the modern Dogens of the white coat and hat—writes from Pike's Peak that "white men with two or three squaws each are quite common throughout this region."

The Buffalo Republic says that one night last week, as a brakeman employed on the Central Railroad was coming from the Montegone House, Suspension Bridge, to the American Hotel, in that place, a man stepped up to him, placed his left arm around his neck so as to disable him by choking, and then deliberately bit the Central Railroad brakeman's nose off down to the bones of his face.

Local and Literary.

THE PUBLIC AFFAIRS of this city will open on the 6th of September.

Blondin, the great rope walker at Niagara Falls, has got an infanterist. A Monsieur DeLays, opposed the Geneva River at Rochester, on a tight rope, on Tuesday.

On Friday morning of last week, PUTTIP MATHEW, a glue manufacturer of this city, died suddenly of disease of the heart, while riding in a wagon near the Cemetery.

James Gordon Bennett, of the New York Herald, doubtless being ambitious to distinguish himself, is traveling from New York city to Niagara Falls with his own carriage, accompanied by two ladies.

Notwithstanding the liberal appropriation of $100 by our "City Fathers," to be placed in the hands of the Mayor for the purpose of suppressing rowdism in the city, we are told the "Short Boys" are as busy as ever every night.

The Crawford Democrat states that on last Thursday, James and Isaac Coyle, who resided in the eastern part of that county, were in the field rolling logs.

The action of the Board of Directors of the Sunbury and Erie road, in locating the Depot at the foot of French and State streets, as noticed briefly by us last week, appears to give very general satisfaction.

There is to be an "Old Soldiers' Convention at Fairville, Ohio, on the 23d, next Tuesday. The Cleveland Democrat says it promises to be an occasion of unusual interest.

The philosopher of the New York Tribune—the modern Dogens of the white coat and hat—writes from Pike's Peak that "white men with two or three squaws each are quite common throughout this region."

The Buffalo Republic says that one night last week, as a brakeman employed on the Central Railroad was coming from the Montegone House, Suspension Bridge, to the American Hotel, in that place, a man stepped up to him, placed his left arm around his neck so as to disable him by choking, and then deliberately bit the Central Railroad brakeman's nose off down to the bones of his face.

Local and Literary.

THE PUBLIC AFFAIRS of this city will open on the 6th of September.

Blondin, the great rope walker at Niagara Falls, has got an infanterist. A Monsieur DeLays, opposed the Geneva River at Rochester, on a tight rope, on Tuesday.

On Friday morning of last week, PUTTIP MATHEW, a glue manufacturer of this city, died suddenly of disease of the heart, while riding in a wagon near the Cemetery.

James Gordon Bennett, of the New York Herald, doubtless being ambitious to distinguish himself, is traveling from New York city to Niagara Falls with his own carriage, accompanied by two ladies.

Notwithstanding the liberal appropriation of $100 by our "City Fathers," to be placed in the hands of the Mayor for the purpose of suppressing rowdism in the city, we are told the "Short Boys" are as busy as ever every night.

The Crawford Democrat states that on last Thursday, James and Isaac Coyle, who resided in the eastern part of that county, were in the field rolling logs.

The action of the Board of Directors of the Sunbury and Erie road, in locating the Depot at the foot of French and State streets, as noticed briefly by us last week, appears to give very general satisfaction.

There is to be an "Old Soldiers' Convention at Fairville, Ohio, on the 23d, next Tuesday. The Cleveland Democrat says it promises to be an occasion of unusual interest.

The philosopher of the New York Tribune—the modern Dogens of the white coat and hat—writes from Pike's Peak that "white men with two or three squaws each are quite common throughout this region."

The Buffalo Republic says that one night last week, as a brakeman employed on the Central Railroad was coming from the Montegone House, Suspension Bridge, to the American Hotel, in that place, a man stepped up to him, placed his left arm around his neck so as to disable him by choking, and then deliberately bit the Central Railroad brakeman's nose off down to the bones of his face.

Local and Literary.

THE PUBLIC AFFAIRS of this city will open on the 6th of September.

Blondin, the great rope walker at Niagara Falls, has got an infanterist. A Monsieur DeLays, opposed the Geneva River at Rochester, on a tight rope, on Tuesday.

On Friday morning of last week, PUTTIP MATHEW, a glue manufacturer of this city, died suddenly of disease of the heart, while riding in a wagon near the Cemetery.

James Gordon Bennett, of the New York Herald, doubtless being ambitious to distinguish himself, is traveling from New York city to Niagara Falls with his own carriage, accompanied by two ladies.

Notwithstanding the liberal appropriation of $100 by our "City Fathers," to be placed in the hands of the Mayor for the purpose of suppressing rowdism in the city, we are told the "Short Boys" are as busy as ever every night.

The Crawford Democrat states that on last Thursday, James and Isaac Coyle, who resided in the eastern part of that county, were in the field rolling logs.

The action of the Board of Directors of the Sunbury and Erie road, in locating the Depot at the foot of French and State streets, as noticed briefly by us last week, appears to give very general satisfaction.

There is to be an "Old Soldiers' Convention at Fairville, Ohio, on the 23d, next Tuesday. The Cleveland Democrat says it promises to be an occasion of unusual interest.

The philosopher of the New York Tribune—the modern Dogens of the white coat and hat—writes from Pike's Peak that "white men with two or three squaws each are quite common throughout this region."

The Buffalo Republic says that one night last week, as a brakeman employed on the Central Railroad was coming from the Montegone House, Suspension Bridge, to the American Hotel, in that place, a man stepped up to him, placed his left arm around his neck so as to disable him by choking, and then deliberately bit the Central Railroad brakeman's nose off down to the bones of his face.

List of Traverser Jurors.

Common Pleas to be held on the 24th Monday in Sept. 1859. J. C. Austin, Editor, W. W. ...

Common Pleas to be held on the 24th Monday in Sept. 1859. Josiah Blair, Girard, John L. ...

Common Pleas to be held on the 24th Monday in Sept. 1859. Josiah Blair, Girard, John L. ...

Common Pleas to be held on the 24th Monday in Sept. 1859. Josiah Blair, Girard, John L. ...

Common Pleas to be held on the 24th Monday in Sept. 1859. Josiah Blair, Girard, John L. ...

Common Pleas to be held on the 24th Monday in Sept. 1859. Josiah Blair, Girard, John L. ...

Common Pleas to be held on the 24th Monday in Sept. 1859. Josiah Blair, Girard, John L. ...

Common Pleas to be held on the 24th Monday in Sept. 1859. Josiah Blair, Girard, John L. ...

Common Pleas to be held on the 24th Monday in Sept. 1859. Josiah Blair, Girard, John L. ...

Common Pleas to be held on the 24th Monday in Sept. 1859. Josiah Blair, Girard, John L. ...