

VILLA CRAIG.	ORDERS at WHOLESALE or RETAIL Kxecuted promptly and fairly.	denance, "I'm not atraid of it."
JUSTICE OF THE PRADE-Office in New	Produce, orders on Stores, old Instruments, Lani ber, and any thing etse I can sell agalu or use in my ben inens, will be taken in exchange for Piano Fortes, Melo-	Beg "Mike, what kind of potatoes are those you are planting?"
DIC. MIN & BENNETT, A HOLEMATE AND RETAIL Dealers in Hard- Crorkery, Glassware and Saddlery, Nos. 11 and 12 Block, corner of Fifth and State streets, Brie, Pa-	decose, Dutcimers and any thing else I have in my store. PLANOS TO LET !	Risk ones, to be sure. Be the houly postker! an' does yer honor think I would be afther plantin' biled ones?"
KNY, KANGEN AND AND AND AND AND AND AND AND AND AN	TUNING DONE WELL ! NEW MUSIC EVERY WEEK ! NONE BUT THE BEST ARTICLES ON HAND	A MELON-CHOLLT FUNERALIn De-
(Successors to Barney & BT Conkey.) 	THE GRNUINE UNRIVALED Chickering & Son's Plano Fortes,	were following a corpse to the grave. In the wagon in which they were seated, was time, but, Pa	ALWAYS OF MAXD.	a large water melon, from which each curved and ate with a gusto, and strewing
1 LAHOR, in the room recently occupied by Fey as a Law Office, and over the Store of N were the Reed House and Brown's Hotel.	Have you ever heard of a poor Chickering Piano : - Let maknow where it is and I will exchange it. Wik WILLING	the road on each side with the rinds.
AINFORD & CO., DEALRES IS GOLD, Silver, Bank Notes, and fileperit, Ac. Sight exchange on the prin-	TO EDITORSYou all remember the offer Mr Horses Waters of New York, has made for advertising in your papers. The undersigned will do a	Differ one of them good wages to work for you, and ten chances to one if the old wo-
Susception of the Source Free Source Free Source Free	little better, if you will favor him with a call, and will furnish you with any Plano you order or desire. Giv- me your order. WW. WILLING	man can space any of her girls ; but just pro- pose matrimony, and see if they don't jump
I MIL & (ROOK & CO., BUILLOKKS and Mapufacturers of Sash, eval donds, it schot, in the shop formerly occupied	Erie, Jane 18, 1859 -2	at the chance of working a life-time for their victuals and clothes.
D MINIG.	And Intermediate Ports !	as lke came home from school very [], Drukk in Groceries, Provisions, Pro- sk, FJ. Salt, Grain, Flour, Fruits, Nuts, Glass, Contox, Patts, Woodeng Willow and Stone Ware,	ONE OF THE PEOPLE'S LINE OF Propaliers will leave this Port for Chicage and	much agitated because he could not un- derstand the principles of Allegation, as the tash Prices low No. 4Wright's Block,	Intermediate Ports on WEDNENDAY and MATUR- DAY of each week, wind and weather permitting.	laid down in Greenleaf. "There dear," said Mrs. Partington, "don't fret about it.
ILE & RATHBUN, DESTING, Office in Beats's Company statistic side of Public Square, fermiorly occupied by	G. J. MORTON, Rris, June 4, 185062.12 Public Poek.	you must tell the teacher that you sin't no alligator, and I know he'll relinquish you."
(KAN & FARRAR,	MILLINERY.	The fail was greatly comforted.
1 Wavessarr GROCKRA, and dealers in evolutia. Goods Powder, Shot, Caps, Safety Fuse, W. Charts, Foll and & Are, No. 7, Bounell Block.	MRS. CURTIS has returned from New York, and is now receiving her Stock of	The Hon. Horatio Seymour, in his speech in Minnesota, and that in "the good e struct, bries, l'a	Consisting of	old colony days, and the earlier days of the republic, the New England States devoted
JOHN HEARN & CO., Howward and Commission Merchants, Commission Line of Annual States, Flour, Fish, and agent for a daily line of	Silk, Satin and Straw Bonnets, CAL	themsalves exclusively to making "rum- pure rum." which they took to the African
I ake Steamera, Public bock, Brie, Pa.	Head Dresses, Caps, Flowers, Ribbons, xnches, Chesilles Veivet Ribbons, Collars, Laces, &c., &c., Also, Consetts' Hoop Shirts, Hosiery, Zephyr Hoods, Kaliting Yarp and	coast and traded for slaves. Hence is sup- posed to originate the practice of calling those benighted Africans "run customers."
NANUTATI KARN of Steam Engines, Bollers, "NTING, Agricol tural implementar failroad Care,	materials for Emproidery, Lace teris, and diover, india-	BO. In one of his "Preachings upon
MINT F. K. RHODEN,	The quality, sc., sc., an of which will be mond as no un can be bought elsewhere. If MILLINERES supplied with all goods in their line a. Wholesale, Kris, Oct. 1, 1859.—17.	Popular Proverbs," Timothy Titcomb says
A benefit & Wilson's Sewing Machines Rooms over a leasity Store, West Park, Rus, Pa. 27 Stitch- a 1. Order	DURNING FLUID-As discovered by	and brotherhood of sin groan under the un- charitable jurigements of those who, but for (+ ORGE H. CUTLER. ATTORNEY AT LAW, Girard, Eris County.	D Prof. Greenough, that will not explode. for sale by the only authorized agent in Eric. Aug. 20, 1859. CARTER & BRD.	circumstances interposed by other power than their own, would have been among
" torse and other business attended to with	A LWAYS READY. Colt's and other manufacture of Pistola, for sale AUSTINN,	their number." Rather bold, that, Timo- thy, but true.
JUIN SWEENY. JUNTIE OF THE PRACE, Office in Beatty's	March 12 AUSTIN'S, March 12 Paragon Building. CHINGLES! SHINGLES !!	Corney did a bit of natural history
('II GHRY de CLARK. WHOLDAUR GROCERS, and Deslers in	CARTER & MALLERY'S	the other day : "What did Mr. Jones mean by saying you were a 'funny dog,' pa ?"- in and Imported Wines and Liquors, also Regars, and, Frait, Fish, Oil, and Agents for Moffats Buffalo No. 7 Bonnell Block, State street Eris, Pa.	Rept. 3, 1850 -13. Steam Planing Mill. GROCERIES, &.O.,	asked Corney's little girl. "What is a fun- ny dog?" "My dear," said Corney gravely, "a
IV N. CATGHET, N. J. CLARK.	SELLING CHEAP FOR BEADY PAY!	funny dog is always provided with a waggish tale : and it is somewhat singular," he con-
MANTFACTURE, Wholesale and Retail 	No. 2, Wright's Block, Erie, Pa., OPTER AT WHOLEBALE OB RETAIL SUGARS of all DESCRIPTIONS,	tinued, knocking the ashes out of his pipe, "that cutting his tale short always affects
) VRR & KELSER, in Boots and Shoes at Whole-	AT LOW PRICES;	his choler."
- and Retail, at No. 13, depicted's Block State street,	AND IMPERIAL TEAS, OF DIFFRENT GRADES;	refused to contribute anything towards the support of "stated preaching of the Gospel," () ^{1.D*} & LOW. HANTFACTURERS & Wholesale and Retail		recently surprised his friends by contribu- ting to the purchase of a new bell for a new
 a Well and Cistern Pumps of superior quality, the end and best now in new. Shop on Twelfth street e deach, Frie, Pa. 	AND	church edifice. On being asked the reason for this exercise of liberality, he replied
I P to unduct for carrying water for family, farm of 	SYRUPS AND MOLASSES, OF ALL GRADES ; RICE, SOAP, STARCH, CANDLES, RAISINS,	that he never put his money where he could not hear it ring!
N. O. L. KLLIOTT, Examples The Desting of the State of the State of the State of the State State State of the State State State of the State Sta	BAKING POWDERS, PRUNES, FRUIT, NUTS, &c., WHITE FINH,	14 is said of the Marquis of Townsond
A east of Frie Bank buildings.	CODFINE and MACKEREL PORK,	that when young and engaged in battle, he saw a drummer at his side killed by s ('EORGE J. WORTON. FORWARDING and Commission Merchant k. Erie, Jealer in Coal, Salt, Fish, Flour and	BACON,	cannon hall, which scattered his brains in every direction. A superior officer observ- ing him, supposed he was intimidated as
WEARTER & KELLOGG.	LARD, RGGR, DKIRDAPTLES,	the sight, and addressed him in a manner to cheer his spirits. "Oh," said they
WHOLEMELE and Retail dealers in Groceries Step, Ship Chandlery, Wood and Willow ware do. Step Street, Erie, Penn.	WILLOW WARE,	young Marquis with calmness but severity
MPIRK STORES.	Together with a large assortment of all kinds of GOODA kept in a Grocery Store, which we offer to split at the lowert marker arise. CALL AND SEE US 1	I will work a supplication of heading as may to be
J. WR A GREWOLD, Jubber, and Retain the rety description of Foreign and Romestic Dry the rety of the green of the line of the street of the street the street of the st	April 16, 1860. No. 2, Wright's Binck.	Ely S. Parker, Chief of the Six Na
HILLINE THORNTON, HILLINE THORNTON, HITCH OF THE PART. Deals, Agree	WHO WANTS A SAFE.	tions, is an engineer in the employ of the Fisheral Government at Galena, Ill. The
¹ Born and Mortgares, Leanes, &c., accurately an Virana Office on French, street, over Jan. 8	HERRING'S SAFE, which he will suppose all encap her Cash or approved paper. W. Ly SCUTT.	I what Parkar started this morning for
- IND W SING.	MANY PERSONS SUFFER intensely	New York. He goes on to Buffalo to pay his annual visit to the Six Nations. He
"I further in the Averal Courts of Strie County I function of the further attention in all bandmon en bits hands, either as an Atterney or Magistrate	by the application of the Extract of Smart Weed. H is	filiments of civilization, puts on the gar
Pa Pa	and Hot Brops in use. Just try it. "Aug. 20. CARTER & BRO-	to their complaints, adjusts their grievan
W. IHII 1-1. 1754, ATTORNEY AT LAW ()file removed to one went of State Street, on the purchaids of th	HOSTETTER'S BITTERS for sale by the Agenta, Aug. 20. CARTER & MED.	des, and harmonizes their diverse opinious Cupt. Parker looks about half-and-half In dian; he is portly, as if fed upon turt
De Ve AND REIND.	TNDIGO, First quality, wholesale and re- tail at the new Drug Harvoof	oup, has a dark but pleasant eye, long traight hair, the copper complexion, high
DR GRISWOLD, Denlist ann.	Aug. 20, 1808. CARTER & BRO	buttened with white, and generally doe
"A while sitention exclusively to the treatment while the Eye and Ear. Fet 19, 1666	he carried on protably at Hammonton. See adver themant of Hommonton Lands.	tomahawks or scalping knives."

present of bright silver pieces, as a motive to dry her tears, but all to no avail; she VISSE. R. -"The trurh is, that the great sisterhood · · ···· & W mighty armies, in battle. Far, far away cried and cried, and when he left her to thing too often to be mistaken, and finally and brotherhood of sin groan under the uning hope and energy. I have not a dollar teft with which to get back again to my family, and even if I had, I could not bear from "the pomp and circumstance" of awful war, or the glitter of imperial courts, pursue his walk, she cried the more. Half told them he would bet them all the mon-an hour afterwards, while he stood at the ey he had, that he was right. charitable jurigements of those who, but for • 1 () d circumstances interposed by other power GFORGE H than their own, would have been among their number." 'Rather bold, that, Timomy story follows a pale, slender, melanend of the Battery, watching a distant ship Several of the party cust quick glanced to tell them that I had spent their little t stions choly youth, an exile and a wanderer upon coming up the bay, the little girl came di-rectly in front of him, and holding up her is a chap who has more money than brains. savings at the gaming table." the earth, having few friends and many thy, but true. I felt a tear trickling down my cheek. foes-his family traduced and despised tearful face, silently invited a kiss. What and we had just latter clean him out." TOUS SWE and walked away deeply regretting my own inability to afford him any relief. was the young Prince to do ? He confessed and scattered to the winds-toppled from "There," said the gambler excitedly Corney did a bit of natural history rz, up-sta their high thrones into the dust, and wanthe other day : "What did Mr. Jones mean afterwards that he was embarrassed. But drawing a small leather bag from his poch The next morning at the breakfast ta сленки dering from place to place, unnoticed and well nigh forgotten. Weak in health and the little one came closer to him, and still et, which was now filled with gold twenties by saying you were a "funny dog," pa ?"— asked ('orney's little girl. "What is a fun-ny dog?" "My dear," said Corney gravely, "a ble, I looked for my friend of the previous well nigh forgotten. proffered the really tempting rubies .--"I'll just bet you any amount that this is No. 7 Bon evening, but he was not to be seen. No one had observed him getting off at any of delicate in frame, this youth was remarka-Hastily glancing around him to see that no the ace," at the same time pointing to the funny dog is always provided with a waggish ble for nothing save a restlessness and one was near, he bent his head and suffer | card as before. W N. CATOR the stopping place during the night, and "I'll bet you fifty dollars," said one of the moody thoughtfulness, unsatisfied ever, tale : and it is somewhat singular," he coned her to kiss him. Like the memorable his abremained a mystery during the kiss which Sydney Smith tells about, as TOUN W. A and always looking into the dreamy, dark tinued, knocking the ashes out of his pipe, "that cutting his tale short always affects passengers, an honest looking man, and one rest of the trip. A few days afterwards, I was sitting in haunting him in his sleeping and waking hours, the embrace of this strange child and uncertain future. Dark, indeed, was its aspect for him! The glory of his uncle had departed—his star had set in the deepthe had evidently seen but little of the -veron all ki ""e and Dinte gambling world. I had been watching this his choler." the reading room of the Planters House, could never, he said, be forgotten by him. Unwillingly he remained away from his man for some time. At first he appeared indifferent with regard to the gambler's do-BARK & N in Leavenworth, engaged in the perusal of A gentleman who has for two years est gloom ; and man judged him as he was, a St. bouis paper, when my eye fell upon a paragraph under the heading of "Drown-od." The article stated that the body of a - and Retail, and talked of what he had not, rather than morning walks for a week afterwards, but returned again, hoping to find his childish efused to contribute anything towards the ings, but he gradually became more interwhat he had, achieved. A dishonor attachsupport of "stated preaching of the Gospel," ested, and now seemed at the highest pitch recently surprised his friends by contribu-ting to the purchase of a new bell for a new church edifice. On being asked the reason ed to the name of Bonanarte, and the brand admirers in a state of quiescent satisfaction; but she was not in her old place, nor did he ever find her, in the few rambles which ()".D" & LO of excitement. drowned man had been found in the river of illegitimacy had already been fixed upon "No sir," returned the gambler, to the fifty dollar offer, "I want either to make or s a Wellar a short distance above the city, and then the brow of the sorrowful wanderer, Charles proceeded to describe his dress and aplose something worth while; if you want to i Penchi, Frie for this excruise of liberality, he replied Louis Napoleon. Parting from his mother, the gay Duch-ess de St. Leu, in one of the quiet little his short stay in New York permitted him pearance, which exactly coincided with that he never put his money where he bet three hundred dollars. I have no objecto take. W ULDE that of the person before mentioned. The Some time afterwards, the wandering tions, but I wouldn't think of taking any not hear it ring! article added, in conclusion,-"There was villages of Switzerland, after some little and well nigh penniless Louis Napoleon offered himself in marriage to an English beauty, who smilling disdainfully at his prething smaller. If you don't wish to take DR. 0. 1.. no money found on his person, which fact time there, the young man crossed the ocean, and we find him, in the year 18-... that, I will put the cards in my pocket, 11 is said of the Marquis of Townsond, gives rise to the suspicion that he had been . and Inel that when young and engaged in hattle, he saw a drummer at his side killed by a speaking with an air of the utmost indif obbed, and drowned to prevent the de-Areast of July 10. a guest of the well known New York mersumption, refused him, and to whom he erence tection of the robbers.' chant, Abram 8------. While a resident in this city, he was noted for his quiet, dismade answer in the words, so often aftercannon hall, which scattered his brains in (KONGE "I'll go a hundred," exclaimed the man "Yes, he had "been robbed, but it was at before mentioned, apparently very much excited, "that's all the money I've got." "And I'll go another hundred," came wards made the subject of derision: "Madevery direction. A superior officer observi k, En the gaming table." tant, and extremely high-bred demeanor. ing him, supposed he was intimidated at am, you have cast away a throne." And His marked courtesy to all women, young in speaking of this haughty lady one even-ing to the Counters of Blessington, he con-HARPER'S FERRY .--- Harper's Ferry is one the sight, and addressed him in a manner to cheer his spirits. "Oh," said they and old, with whom he came in contact, young Marquis with calmness but severity, and his sternly keeping aloof from the com-M. CARLER from another passenger : and soon the thre of the first towns in Jefferson county, Vir and his sternly keeping aloof from the comsaed that the cause of his first admiration hundred was upon the table by the side of ginia, and romantically aituated at the conthe gambler. "Now," said the gambler, you bet that t i be, "hip pany and companionship of the gay young for this particular beauty was her striking resemblance to a fair little girl whom he had once met in the parks of New York, I am puzled to make out how any man men of society who pestered him with their with such a quantity of brains came to be this card (pointing to the one in which the the spot which Thomas Jefferson dec Блыкка olicitations, and who were eager to shower and relating his strange parting with the child, he said : "Though years have passed, company seemed confident) is the ace of above all description, unless what could be stientions, dinners, suppors, &c., on the 14. 80.88 First Ely S. Parker, Chief of the Six Na-The young prince! the grandson of the ugly crooked little lawyer of the little town of Ajaccio. in the monstring status + through young prince." hearts. painted as "the most stupendous scene in tions, is an engineer in the employ of the I remember that wild little creatures inno-"Yes, yes," come from a dozen. all creation." It was once known by the Winner Rederal Government at Galena, Ill. The Eubuque Herald of the 13th inst, says : cent kiss as freshly as if she gave it to me yesterday, and I think I shall not forget it "Well turn it for yourselves." name of Shenandosh Falls, and its present Ajaorio, in the mountains of Corsica-It was turned in a twinkling, and was designation was taken from the famous for 6 . · · · not the ace, but the king! The party ry which there crosses the Potomac. The seemed petrified with astonishment, appar- little town encircles a hill, and has the rep-"('apt. Parker started this morning for where his grandmother, Letitia, prepared as long as I live,"-New York Sunday Times. 1 ITAWB New York. He goes on to Butfalo to pay her own and her husband's boullon every his sunual visit to the Six Nations. He day, and where, as she often beasted after-161. Plain men think handsome wom - + . 3HD YY ently dumb-founded, for they thought they utation of being a very prosperous place.goes every year, divosts himself of the ha-liliments of civilization, puts on the garb family, and spread it in the sun long before of the Red Man, and as their Chief, listens the fair dames of Paris lifted their sleepy want passion, and plain women think could not possibly be mistaken, while the The United States Armory employs usually W. 11 gambler coolly-put the money in his pocket. about torse hundred person, and the Arse. The man who had staked the first hun- nal gives work and federal pay to revent oung men want phiteness. Dull writers I romine to the total and tota hink all residers devoid of taste, and dull dred, all the money he had in the workl. Dthers, Nearly 100,000 stand of arms are seemed almost distracted. If cursed his regularly in charge of the Arsenal custo-foolishness, and lamented the loss of his dinns, and some 10,000 muskets are seni lids from their soft white nillows. Howard to their complaints, adjusts their grievanreaders think witty, writers devoid of bril-- Pa es, and harmonizes their diverse opinions. er there is nothing ignoble in the fact that liancy. Gross and vulgar minds will al-ways pay greater respect to wealth than worth; for wealth, though a far less effi-Guit, he is portly, as if fed upon turtle and fragal housekeeper of humble means: ه يون. 14 مرد ا mondy in words which seemed to touch out by the Armory mechanics every year. oup, has a durk but pleasant eye, long but the young scions of American aristoc cient source of power than worth, is a far every heart in the party -every heart but traight hair, the copper complexion, highly racy would have found it so if they had toftened with white, and generally does only kept their eyes on that side of the 11: 11: 15 the gambler's. more intelligible one. the gambler's. Again the cards were thrown even more will labor to put down intemperance. Unit is so deep but that a shall sharly than before, and it seemed imposed Umph! It will be no labor for him to put pot present any appearance suggestive of house of Bonaparte. But they did not .ntin hir Saof the ble that the company could be mistaken. down liquor. omahawks or scalping knives." - They forgot all about Madam Bonaparte low place may be found in him. fet 14, 1566

Ber "Mike, what kind of potatoes are haughtily accepted with all its risks. In the midst of his triumphs, and with the sympathies and the prayers of the people on his side, the lucky container pauses, suddenly, over the maximum contains of "haw ones, to be sure. Be the houly pouker! an' does yer honor think I would that he had not weighed the chances had gift to him of his motion with the had not ealculated the contingencies of his St. Leg. and in it he often set down hi A MELON-CHOLLY FUNERAL.-In De troit the other day, a party of mourners were following a corpse to the grave. In great movement-in short that he had the wagon in which they were seated, was made a great mistake, and must retreat .a large water melon, from which each This revealed the culpable weakness-the funo in the early plans of the self-consti-tuted leader, and will never be forgotten, curved and ate with a gusto, and strewing the road on each side with the rinds.

no matter what shape Italian affairs may assume. But heavens ! what mad glee has not, this failure caused ? Talk of man's sympathies for "down-trodden Italy !" Pshaw! There is not one of the many million haters of Louis Napoleon who not supremely happy at the failure of his effort to redeem that unhappy country.-

They were begining to fear his success, great courage and his magnanimity, and 16 lke came home from school very were beginning to accord him their tardy admiration : but the news of his last sudmuch agitated because he could not understand the principles of Allegation, as den action has put an end to all this, and laid down in Greenleaf. "There dear," has caused more intense joy throughout the world than Italy's freedom ever could. Napoleon is a blunderer! This is their said Mrs. Partington, "don't fret about it, you must tell the teacher that you ain't no alligator, and I know he'll relinquish you.' grand discovery, and, in the eyes of men, to be a blunderer is a greater crime in a statesman than to be a villain. But I am not going to write a political article, as my heading will show ; yet it is impossible to speak of Napoleon III. without glancing at the facts of his last great engagement before the world, upon the probable results of which the attention of all nations of mankind is now fixed with such all absorbing interest.

those benighted Africaus "rum customers." My little chapter upon the "conquerer of Lombardy," is of a theme and an hour far removed from the Emperor of France, 19. In one of his "Preachings upon Popular Proverbs," Timothy Titcomb says and the noise raised by the thunders of his light hand laid on his shoulder, and, on Again he took the cards, and throwing turning there stood his little friend, hold-them slowly, as previously, with the face down, he asked the spectators which was ing out towards him a small memorandum book, covered with a richly carved pearl the ace this time, apparently feeling conficase having a jewelled butterfly in the dent that he could not again make a minsin presigers, around the lable, nearly all of whom were acquainted with gambling tricks, now seemed to be more interested stray thoughts. In an abstractod mood he had laid the book upon one of the benches in the game, and some of them could searceof the Battery, and forgotton it, and the little maiden had found it. He immedily restrain front smiling at the unsuccess ful attempt of the "Greeny" who handled ately became acquainted with the childthe cards. found that she was sent out to sell the lit-

This time half a dozen pointed simultathe bunches he had seen her arranging, and neously to the card which they were confinally he gave her, that morning, money fident was the ace, but the gambler, with enough to cover the whole value, twice told, of her little basket. an air of certainty, assured them that they were mistaken, and pointed, himself, to Every morning the little mint seller another card, which he knew was the ace. watched and waited for the approach of The passengers again turned the card, and as they expected, were again right, the her generous friend, who sometimes sufgambler now appeared to be very much asfered her to seat herself near him and chat while she tied up her sweet selling mer-chandise. And doubtless the grave Louis tonished, he could'nt account for it at all. he was certain that he hand performed the found more amusement in the prattle of trick before, and could give no reason why this queer little damsel than in the remarks he couldn't do it now.

upon the weather of the more pretentious The crowd now seemed very much pleas and fashionable young misses whom he was wont to meet. His matutinal rambles had very knowing looks at each other, while very knowing looks at each other, while quite a charm for him, and he never failed he seemed completely dumb-founded, and o sit a few moments beside the little girl. made a motion as if about putting the cards who would sometimes ask him to lend her back in his pocket, but then again, with a his pocket knife to cut the cord with which determined air, he threw them again upshe tied her leaves together, if she hapon the table as before, remarking that he pened to forget her own. One morning h would try it once more and if he didn't found her crying bitterly, and the only succeed he would never make a fool of reason she could give was, that her stephimself agsin.

The passengers quickly pointed out the card as before as confidently as if they saw mother was going to remove across the river and instead of selling her mint she would have to go tending chickens. The it lying face up : but the gambler seemed young gentleman consoled the child as well to be more confident than ever that they as he could, and he made her another did not point to the right card, and as they insisted, he appeared to get angry, and told them he was certain, he had done the same on the Andrew that the gambler was not started for the the gambler was not in the barrier that the arked to the clerk, beside where it with that "I guessed we had losPoir entropy of friend." "Yes," he require they all got off at

"The gamblers." "You don't mean to say that"-olmervng that the old man and also the young me had disappeared-"That the old gentleman who proposed the five hundred dollar bet, and the young man who won the two hundred dollars were the Monte-players accomplices." "And----

"That their whole conduct was feigned, and they have not lost a cent." "And yet you countenance these swindlers knowing them to be such.' "They are our best customers," he replied significantly. I turned away, and ascended to the hur-ricaane deck, having become uncomforta-hly warm below, and discovered a man leaning against the wheel-house, evidently in deep meditation. He was the person who had lost the hundred dollars in the first bet with the gambler. I spoke to him in rather a cheerful manner, and after s few observations he said :----

"Ah! sir, you are not aware of the anguish which the loss of that money causes me. To some men it would be but a trifle --- a loss which might be sustained over day without being felt; but with me, sirwith me, it is a far different matter. That money was the savings of several years of toil. It was carned and saved by myself and wife, with a large family, in the hope we might purchase a home in the far West. It was a small amount for such a purpose, but we felt that it might be made to secure us a home, no matter how humble. But it is gone now, and with it my little remain-