

Its Evident Tendency.

The faint condemnation of a portion of the republican press of Old John Brown's foray into Virginia, and the open approval of it on the part of others, is working out its legitimate result. It is fast making the cause of Brown the cause of the republican party.

What's up! The Philadelphia News, the organ of one branch of the "opposition" in this State is becoming reticent under the Cameron rule of the party, and is disposed to kick in the shins.

The Democratic Governor and State officers are elected in Louisiana by a vote of 7,000 to 10,000 majority. Their majority in the State Senate will be eight, and in the House twenty-five.

James Redpath is preparing a history of Capt. John Brown. Brown will be the hero of the work, and the hero we think; but there is no accounting for taste.

The "Whisky Insurrection" in this State, twenty-five years ago, was a far more formidable attempt to oust the Government than the recent one at Harper's Ferry.
