

The Slave—The Case Stated.

On Friday, last week, at a general meeting of the friends of the cause...

But this was only one of the alternatives which John Brown's scheme involved. If the slaves could not be removed peacefully...

A MATTER OF PRINCIPLE.—Ever since the Lawrence Herald of Freedom made the damaging disclosures about the career of old Bowser in Kansas...

Such would have been the character of his act if he had contemplated the liberation of a single individual only...

The correspondence which passed between the members of the Cabinet and Gen. Fremont...

Local and Literary.

On Congress meeting Monday, and the House was called to order by Mr. Allen, the Clerk of the last House.

When the House is full, the Republicans will have 115 votes; Democrats 92; Anti-Leopoldism Democrats 9; and Southern opposition...

The Question Settled.—It will be recollected that the street railroad cars and other public conveyances...

They are going to have a calico dress ball in Harrisburg for the benefit of the poor of that village.

How TO WORK MIRACLES.—Those who love useful books, and such as minister to amusement of a novel and innocent character...

It is said in the newspapers that Tom Thaub is about to be married to a lady of his own size, and the Home Journal asks...

CAUGHY & CLARK have removed their wholesale establishment to the new building they have been erecting during the summer...

The Editor of the Argus, Dunkirk, is still a little "how come you so." He insists some one has been putting liquor in our drink...

George Gallagher, a son of Wm. S. Gallagher, Esq., of this city, was very severely injured, by a kick from a horse...

The "John Brown sympathizers" held a grand pow-wow the other night in Cleveland, and the National Democrat, in noticing it says...

The noodles of the press who act as toddlers of the New York Tribune are now publishing its prospectus and encouraging its circulation...

The advertisement of Dr. Hall's Cough Remedy will be found in another column. This medicine has been before the public for a number of years...

The "quick-and-cuts" on the Sunbury and Erie Railway are again giving the company considerable trouble.

We see by the New York papers that the balloon exhibition of Prof. Lowe, at New York, is finally closed for the season...

We thought some cute Editor would "nose out" the reason why lady printer attempted to shoot a gentleman printer in Cleveland a few weeks ago...

GRACE GREENWOOD'S "Little Pilgrim," a monthly journal for Boys and Girls, commences its seventh volume on the first of January.

Some backstairs connected with a theatre recently undertook to cowhide the local editor of the Pittsburg Chronicle.

The Troy Times, in accordance with custom in such cases, announces that John Morrissey, the distinguished wit...

Local and Literary.

On Friday, last week, at a general meeting of the friends of the cause...

When the House is full, the Republicans will have 115 votes; Democrats 92; Anti-Leopoldism Democrats 9; and Southern opposition...

The Question Settled.—It will be recollected that the street railroad cars and other public conveyances...

They are going to have a calico dress ball in Harrisburg for the benefit of the poor of that village.

How TO WORK MIRACLES.—Those who love useful books, and such as minister to amusement of a novel and innocent character...

It is said in the newspapers that Tom Thaub is about to be married to a lady of his own size, and the Home Journal asks...

CAUGHY & CLARK have removed their wholesale establishment to the new building they have been erecting during the summer...

The Editor of the Argus, Dunkirk, is still a little "how come you so." He insists some one has been putting liquor in our drink...

George Gallagher, a son of Wm. S. Gallagher, Esq., of this city, was very severely injured, by a kick from a horse...

The "John Brown sympathizers" held a grand pow-wow the other night in Cleveland, and the National Democrat, in noticing it says...

The noodles of the press who act as toddlers of the New York Tribune are now publishing its prospectus and encouraging its circulation...

The advertisement of Dr. Hall's Cough Remedy will be found in another column. This medicine has been before the public for a number of years...

The "quick-and-cuts" on the Sunbury and Erie Railway are again giving the company considerable trouble.

We see by the New York papers that the balloon exhibition of Prof. Lowe, at New York, is finally closed for the season...

We thought some cute Editor would "nose out" the reason why lady printer attempted to shoot a gentleman printer in Cleveland a few weeks ago...

GRACE GREENWOOD'S "Little Pilgrim," a monthly journal for Boys and Girls, commences its seventh volume on the first of January.

Some backstairs connected with a theatre recently undertook to cowhide the local editor of the Pittsburg Chronicle.

The Troy Times, in accordance with custom in such cases, announces that John Morrissey, the distinguished wit...

Local and Literary.

On Friday, last week, at a general meeting of the friends of the cause...

When the House is full, the Republicans will have 115 votes; Democrats 92; Anti-Leopoldism Democrats 9; and Southern opposition...

The Question Settled.—It will be recollected that the street railroad cars and other public conveyances...

They are going to have a calico dress ball in Harrisburg for the benefit of the poor of that village.

How TO WORK MIRACLES.—Those who love useful books, and such as minister to amusement of a novel and innocent character...

It is said in the newspapers that Tom Thaub is about to be married to a lady of his own size, and the Home Journal asks...

CAUGHY & CLARK have removed their wholesale establishment to the new building they have been erecting during the summer...

The Editor of the Argus, Dunkirk, is still a little "how come you so." He insists some one has been putting liquor in our drink...

George Gallagher, a son of Wm. S. Gallagher, Esq., of this city, was very severely injured, by a kick from a horse...

The "John Brown sympathizers" held a grand pow-wow the other night in Cleveland, and the National Democrat, in noticing it says...

The noodles of the press who act as toddlers of the New York Tribune are now publishing its prospectus and encouraging its circulation...

The advertisement of Dr. Hall's Cough Remedy will be found in another column. This medicine has been before the public for a number of years...

The "quick-and-cuts" on the Sunbury and Erie Railway are again giving the company considerable trouble.

We see by the New York papers that the balloon exhibition of Prof. Lowe, at New York, is finally closed for the season...

We thought some cute Editor would "nose out" the reason why lady printer attempted to shoot a gentleman printer in Cleveland a few weeks ago...

GRACE GREENWOOD'S "Little Pilgrim," a monthly journal for Boys and Girls, commences its seventh volume on the first of January.

Some backstairs connected with a theatre recently undertook to cowhide the local editor of the Pittsburg Chronicle.

The Troy Times, in accordance with custom in such cases, announces that John Morrissey, the distinguished wit...