Democratic County Convention.

A Democratic County Convention will be held in the City of Erie, on Tuesday, the 7th day of February, at 10 o'clock, P. M., for the purpose of appointing delegates to the 7th Legislature, and to transact such other business as may come before the Convention, and to elect a delegate to the National Convention, to be held in Philadelphia, on the 10th day of February, 1890.

The President's Message.

We gave last week, in advance of all our contemporaries, the message of President Buchanan to the 39th Congress. It has doubtless been read by most of our readers, and a calm and deliberate opinion formed in regard to its merits. That it will please a large class of the people of the north, and a similar class in the south is not to be expected. Extremes meet in every thing else; hence we find Democrats and Unionists both agree upon a common platform, and are ready to condemn any President that stands between them and their designs. It has been his fortune, or rather misfortune, of Mr. BUCHANAN to have those two classes arrayed against him with more vigor than almost any of his immediate predecessors. He has done nothing to please them. He has striven to maintain the Union, to preserve the Constitution, and to put down fanaticism. He has given no heed to the clamor of faction. He has administered the Government within the prescribed limits of the law. The recommendations of a President thus true to his oath of office, true to the whole country, irrespective of section, should be scoffed at, ridiculed, found fault with, and condemned, is a natural result as far as the teachings of the Tribune and other organs of Republicanism should lead men to expect. Such calumnious charges as which calumnies against Mr. BUCHANAN, and around the conservative portion of the country to the dangers which menace the Union. Hence we find the Republican press full of all manner of bitterness against the President. They do not like his allusion to Harper's Ferry. They call it a call to arms, a call to arms in an official form, and they start and turn pale, and cry out in their agony, "Our damned spot!" They deny any such application as the President makes to the Dred Scott case. They are not content that the territorial question should be settled legally or at all. Professing to be better than the President, they grow in unmeasured terms because the President says "all lawful means at his command have been employed to execute the laws" that traffic in slaves. A portion of these fault finders profess to be favorable to the protection of domestic industry—but they can find no words of bitterness sufficiently pointed in which to condemn the President's recommendation for an increase of duty on foreign imports sufficient to defray the necessary expenses of government. And while they are thus made unhappy over the statements of the message of our domestic affairs, they are equally as troubled over its statements of our foreign relations, and the recommendations incident thereto. The proposed acquisition of Cuba troubles them; the recommendation to secure rights in Mexico by the strong arm of power is not to their taste; in short, whatever the President measures forthrightly.

But while this is so (and we would doubt our judgments of its merits if it were not so) we are gratified to be able to add that, with the Democratic press, it is received with almost universal favor. Upon one question alone treated by the President is there any diversity of opinion—and the difference upon that is so slight that it cannot result in any permanent division of the party. The President pronounces the question of slavery in the territories a judicial question. Even Judge Douglas and the great body of his friends acknowledge that this is so. This point of agreement is all that is essential to perfect harmony. The Supreme Court has decided that slaves in the Territories are property—that they stand on the same footing as other property. The Territorial Legislatures may give this property extraordinary protection, or they may give it only such protection as they give to other property; and the tribunals to pass upon the validity of any laws they may pass in that connection, are the Federal Territorial courts in the first instance, and the Federal Supreme Court in the last resort. Right there the matter lies. There let it lie. This is the impregnable ground upon which the Democratic party can stand, and that is the only solution of the question Congress or the Federal government have any thing to do with it except to enforce the decisions of the courts, in each case as it shall arise, whatever those decisions may be—the Democratic doctrine in this regard being, non-interference by Congress with slavery in State and Territory, or in the District of Columbia.

Equally as emphatic in approval of the message in its general features, are the conservative journals of the country, representing our commercial and industrial interests. The Boston Courier, then, which no paper in New England, yields a more conservative and whole-some influence, regards it as one of the most comprehensive and able state papers that has ever emanated from the Executive department. The National Intelligencer, (a most able and competent journal, the New York Times, (opinion) Baltimore Sun, (independent) and many other journals, either adverse or neutral in their political sentiments, speak of the message in the same language of approval. With such evidence of appreciation the President need not heed the attacks of fanatics North or South.

A beautiful premium.—The proprietors of the "Saturday Evening Post," of Philadelphia—that old and celebrated Weekly—are presenting all their subscribers with a large and beautiful old engraving, called "THE SPEAKING LILY." A copy of this engraving is now before us, and it really is a very beautiful thing. It is a picture of a mother and child, and can hardly fail to please generally. The child is looking through an oval frame, and of course the picture is as natural as life itself. We are informed that the price of this engraving in the Philadelphia print stores, is FOUR DOLLARS. It is sent, however, as a premium to any subscriber to The Post, who remits in advance five cents to pay the cost of postage, mailing, &c. Of course any one mailing the publishers of The Post $2.25, will get not only their celebrated Weekly for one year, but this gem of a picture besides. Club subscribers also are entitled to the engraving by remitting 25 cents in addition to their regular club rate. Address DEAN C. & PETERSON, No. 132 South Third Street, Philadelphia, who will send a sample copy of The Post gratis to any one requesting it.

NEXT GOVERNOR.

Notwithstanding the Democratic State Convention will assemble in less than two months from this time, we have but comparatively little to say as to who is to be our standard bearer for Governor. First, the demand for a bold man, indicating, as we think it does, the true Democratic spirit of abstaining from a determination of merely acquiescing in the status quo. We have, however, been gratified in observing in various sections of our State, an earnest sentiment in favor of the Hon. JAMES C. MANSFIELD, of Erie, as the Democratic candidate. We are well aware of Mr. Mansfield's disqualification for again entering the field of public life, but we regard him as eminently the man for the time, and sincerely hope that existing exigencies may induce him to forego, at least for a season, his fondness for private life and pursue, and consent to the use of his name in connection with the gubernatorial campaign.

We must have a strong man in every sense of the term, as the Democratic candidate for Governor, inasmuch as his success may depend the result of the Presidential election. We know of no man within the broad limits of Pennsylvania who would make a better candidate for Governor than JOHN L. DAWSON, of Erie. We know of no man within the broad limits of Pennsylvania who would make a better candidate for Governor than JOHN L. DAWSON, of Erie. We know of no man within the broad limits of Pennsylvania who would make a better candidate for Governor than JOHN L. DAWSON, of Erie.

In addition to his home popularity, Mr. Dawson has the character, talents, and personal address to secure the support of the people, and excite the enthusiasm of the Democracy, wherever he may go in the capacity of a candidate. It has become a fixed usage for the candidate for Governor to take the stump. Mr. Dawson is admirably qualified for this duty. He has a fine personal appearance; a bold, original, and commanding manner; a clear, incisive intellect, and a model courtesy and grace in support of the Honorable bill, have given him a strong hold upon the affections of the masses, which would tell largely in his favor in the election. He is a man of high character, and all things considered, Mr. Dawson is the strongest man that could be started for Governor. His record is all right; his character is all right; his talents are all right; and his record is all right.

John Brown's Career in Kansas.

Lawrence, Kansas, Dec. 17th. A "John Brown" anti-slavery meeting was held in Lawrence last evening, December 16th. After some of the speakers had finished their addresses, a severe storm, and one of them alluded to the Potawatomi massacre, which had been laid at John's door. Mr. Stevens said he did not believe John Brown had anything to do with it; but there was a gentleman who could tell us. "Name him," several called out. "It is Captain Walker," (now Sheriff of Douglas County, and one of the bravest of the Free State leaders.) Captain Walker then said: "Gentlemen, there is no use in keeping back the truth or perverting facts. John Brown told me himself that he was present at the murder of those men on Potawatomi Creek. This started him as a thunder-bolt in his room. John Brown had been in his power, and he could have kept them prisoners. For himself, he never could justify taking a man prisoner and then decapitating him. He said that he was there when he took prisoner, had threatened to cut his throat, had insulted his wife, and threatened her life, yet he never felt justified in taking his life when his prisoner." "Then," said Charles Robinson, also said that he believed John Brown had acknowledged to him he was present and approved of the killing of those men on Potawatomi Creek. He had not and could not justify the execution of those men. The State men after they had the civil power in their hands. Dr. Adair, a nephew of John Brown, was questioned in reference to John Brown's interference with the Potawatomi massacre. He said John Brown had told him that he was present at the killing of those men. But there were palliating circumstances connected with it. I am not a questioner, but I have heard from persons who know the facts, that John Brown planned and carried out that massacre. This is the impregnable ground upon which the Democratic party can stand, and that is the only solution of the question Congress or the Federal government have any thing to do with it except to enforce the decisions of the courts, in each case as it shall arise, whatever those decisions may be—the Democratic doctrine in this regard being, non-interference by Congress with slavery in State and Territory, or in the District of Columbia.

THE LEGISLATURE.—The Legislature of this State met on Tuesday, and organized by the election of Hon. W. M. FRANCIS, of Lawrence, Speaker of the Senate, Francis E. Egan, Esq., of Pittsburgh, Clerk; W. C. A. LAWRENCE, of Dauphin, Speaker of the House, and a Republican Editor named RAY, from one of the eastern counties, Clerk. Of course they are all Republicans, or rather followers of the fortunes of Gen. CAMERON.

The Governor's message was delivered on Wednesday, and we have the pleasure of laying it before our readers to-day.

THE WOMAN who "spared that tree," has run short of wood, and is almost "splitting" with vexation to think how green he was. He now "axes" a donation from the gentleman at whose request his destructiveness was stayed.

UNIVERSALITY.—On our first page, we published a communication recommending Hon. JACON FAY, of Montgomery, as a suitable person to receive the nomination of the Reading Convention, for Governor. Mr. Fay has filled the place of Auditor General of the State for the past three years, and in that capacity has won the regard and friendship of a large number of friends throughout the State. His claims to the nomination will be pushed with a good deal of spirit.

GOVERNOR'S MESSAGE.

To the Honorable the Senate and the Honorable the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your resolutions, passed at the session of the General Assembly, in relation to the proposed amendment of the Constitution, and to inform you that the same have been forwarded to the proper authorities for their consideration.

The receipts at the State Treasury, from all sources, for the fiscal year ending on the 30th of November, 1889, were $2,825,350 14, to which additional balance in Treasury, December 1, 1889, $89,257 76, and it will be seen that the whole sum available for the year was $2,914,607 90. The expenditures for the year, for all purposes, during the same period, were $3,709,664 81, leaving an available balance in the Treasury, on the 1st day of December, 1889, of $89,257 76, included in the expenditures for the fiscal year, are the following sums, viz:

Loans received, $89,257 76
Loans cancelled, 4,137 00
Interest certificates paid, 4,843 20
Making of the public debt, 89,257 76
The funded and unfunded debt of the Commonwealth, on the 1st day of December, 1889, was as follows:

6 per cent loan, $445,180 00
10 per cent loan, 84,210 00
11 per cent loan, 28,250 00
12 per cent loan, 100,000 00
Total funded debt, 737,640 00
Unfunded debt, 12,500 00
Total unfunded debt, 12,500 00

Making the public debt on the first day of December 1st, $752,640 00. Since the close of the fiscal year, the Commissioners of the Sinking Fund, have collected from the sale of the bonds of the Commonwealth, at this time, funded and unfunded, $3,478,961 07. If we deduct from this sum the amount of the bonds of the Commonwealth, on the 1st day of December, 1889, we have $2,927,961 07, the remaining debt of the Commonwealth, the principal and interest to be provided for, from the ordinary sources of revenue.

When it is remembered, that on the 1st day of December, 1889, to the 31st day of December, 1889, the ordinary demands upon the Treasury, there has been actually paid on the principal of the public debt, $1,845,000 00. When it is remembered, that during this period, the law reducing the State tax upon real and personal estate, from three to two and a half mills, has been in full force, and that nothing for the last three years has been received from the Pennsylvania railroad company, on account of tax on tonnage, making the receipts, from these two sources of revenue, less by four hundred thousand dollars, than they were in the preceding year, it is a source of congratulation that, under such circumstances, a result so favorable has been produced by the ordinary operations of the Treasury.

For nearly two years, the State has been entirely free from the ownership or management of canals and railroads, and the gratifying result, thus far, is that her public debt is less than it has been for many years. The rate of nearly one million of dollars per annum. It is now morally certain, that nothing but the present mismanagement of the financial interests of the State, could prevent this result. We should not, however, be misled by this fact, and suppose that the State is now in a position to undertake any large enterprise, without first securing the approval of the people, and the consent of the Legislature.

The Legislature of this State met on Tuesday, and organized by the election of Hon. W. M. FRANCIS, of Lawrence, Speaker of the Senate, Francis E. Egan, Esq., of Pittsburgh, Clerk; W. C. A. LAWRENCE, of Dauphin, Speaker of the House, and a Republican Editor named RAY, from one of the eastern counties, Clerk. Of course they are all Republicans, or rather followers of the fortunes of Gen. CAMERON.

being mortgage bonds amounting to two millions of dollars, will be sold, and the proceeds will be used to pay the principal of the bonds, and the interest will be paid by the Commonwealth, from time to time, with the progress of the work, as required by the terms of the mortgage. The bonds, however, will be sold, as directed by law, the State will still hold, as absolute owner, three and a half millions of dollars of mortgage bonds of the company, payable in the year 1872, and in the six succeeding years, as mentioned in the act of Assembly, with interest, at the rate of five per cent, per annum, payable semi-annually, on the 1st day of January and July of each year. Interests on the Commonwealth is in the early completion of this important thoroughfare, it affords no great pleasure to be able to inform the General Assembly, that the progress of the work, for the last year has been highly satisfactory.

The Eastern division of the road, extending from the city of Erie to the city of Northumberland, to Wheeling, in the county of Clinton, a distance of eighty-one miles, is finished; passenger and freight trains passing over it daily. The Western division, extending from the city of Erie to the city of Warren, in Warren county, a distance of sixty-six miles, is also completed, with regular passenger and freight trains running over it daily. Making 147 miles of road, by rail route, that have already been brought into practical operation—107 miles of which, exclusive of sidings, were finished during the past year. On the intermediate portion of the road, between Erie and Northumberland, a distance of 110 miles, 92 miles are graded, leaving but 18 miles yet to be graded, to place the whole of the unfinished portion of the road in a practical condition for operation. If no untoward event shall delay its vigorous prosecution, another year will not pass before the entire line of the road will be finished and in use; thus affording a direct and rapid route for the transportation of freight from the city of Philadelphia to the harbor of Erie.

By the 22d section of the act approved the 13th day of April, 1862, "The Pennsylvania Railroad Company," is provided "that all tonnage, of whatever kind or description, except the ordinary baggage of passengers, carried on or over said railroad, shall be subject to a tax of one mill per ton, for each ton, or fraction thereof, on each and every year, after the 1st day of January, 1863, and on or after the 1st day of January, 1864, and on or after the 1st day of January, 1865, and on or after the 1st day of January, 1866, and on or after the 1st day of January, 1867, and on or after the 1st 1885, and on or after the 1st day of January, 1886, and on or after the 1st day of January, 1887, and on or after the 1st day of January, 1888, and on or after the 1st day of January, 1889, and on or after the 1st day of January, 1890, and on or after the 1st day of January, 1891, and on or after the 1st day of January, 1892, and on or after the 1st day of January, 1893, and on or after the 1st
