There is no place in our chain of Lakes that confessedly possesses so many advantages do not more of our people turn their attention Figure, fillnois and lows, W Bbl., Eric County, Superfine. do not more of our people turn their attention to this source of wealth? The question is not wheat Flour, Yout, wheat to answer We see about us all the elements for the profitable manufacture of almost every kind of goods-glass, iron, shoes, nails, agricultural implements, wooden ware, edge tools-in short every thing that yankee inge- | Potatora, nuity can invent, can be manufactured here cheaper than amid the bleak hills of New England, or in the crowded and over populated region round about Philadelphia. With one line of communication to the coal fields, and points, there will be no lack of fuel to drive machinery. The Lake Superior region will furnish us iron and copper as cheap as any other city on the Lakes-with communication by Lake, by Canal, and by Rail in every direction—surely there is no field that possesses so many advantages as this for the investment of capital in the direction indicated. Why cannot shoes be made as cheap here as in Massachusetts! Why not class as cheap as in Pitts. burg! Why not cutlery as cheap as in Philadelphia! Why not wooden ware, brooms, nails, window glass, eandy, and every thing else our merchants buy from eastern manufactures. They can. It only requires the will. and a liberal encouragement on the part of our citizens, to draw the necessary operatives and capitalists to our midst, and thus to build up a manufacturing city second to none in the coun-

SPIRITUALISM TO SOME PURPOSE -The West field Republican tells of a gentleman of that village who has long been a believer in Spiritunlism, and had it impressed upon his mind recently, by some friendly spirit, that riches were in store for him in the oil regions of Pennsylvania: and that a certain sleeping medium, or clairvoyant doctor, who has also resided here for a short time, would be used as the instrument, by disembodied existences, to indicate the locality, in the vicinity of Titusville, where, was e abosomed inexhaustible sunplies of oil. The two set out for Titueville, and reached there in one of our coldest times, and were at once impelled by some invisible power, to prospect in a certain and out of the way locality, and having provided themselves with the necessary implements, did so. The medium dropped down thto the snow, went to sleep, or passed into a clairvoyant state: and after reone of the "institutions" of the city -and it maining in that condition for a time that startdeserves its well-carned reputation.
