DEMOCRATIC | NOMINATION. FOR GOVERNOR,

HENRY D. FOSTER. OF WESTMORELAND CO

THE END OF KANSAS. We trust the country is at last to see the nd of the Kansus question. It has disfurnished capital for demagogues and fanatics until the country is sick of the infliction Once a State, and she can "paddle her own canoe," and neither Massachusetts nor South Carolina can find cause to agitite. It was for this reason, because we de ired to see the question taken out of on politic that we favored its early admission under the Lecomption constitution. It is for this reason that we are now gladto see that the bill for her admission under the Wyandotte constitution has passed the House, and to hearifs passage through the south probable. We regret greatly that the evidence of a sufficient population were not such as to justily a unanimous cote upon the question. Those members who had advocated the English bill, as estable damen proper rule for theorganization of voites montained their position, tho al interests of the two or three Northern Democrats who voted against admission .-We do not doubt the Republicans will chain hereafter that the Southern vote was

At the lattles ion of Congress, the bili for the almesson of Oregon was passed. lo tre voic Southern men, headed by the Hon VH Stephens. This proved that there was no ectional objection to free in-titutions when they had been adopted fairly

It is time that some rule of population should be established, proper to qualify new States for admission. At an earlier period of our history. Territories were settled o slowly, and it was so important to accord to distant, communities the advantages of self-government, that a very small numb i of inhibitants, was deemed sufficent to sustain the responsibilities of a State. But the case is altered. Immigration enjoys such facilities of cheap transpolitition across the ocean and gift-lands in the West, that the mungrant population of a single year has been sufficient to have formed at least to work States as Florida at the 14. of her almoster. Hence unless some limitation shall be imposed upon the population required to organize a State, there sno reason why the whole national domain may not be subdivided amongst a comparatively small population, and the equilibrium of the government overthrown by batches of new States formed and admitted without pupilage or preparation.

There is, indeed, something startling in the rapidity with which new communities have founded and administered the government. We are very far from objecting the place. Our word for it, the place will to the creation of new States. We are de be honored by him. voted to the development of liberty and have perceived "the political influence" to cers. This is as it should be. The Gardie be deproved from the addition of new States is an acknowledged organ of the party favorable to their policy, and it is plain from the numerous bills pending or prowell as for what the party does as well as for what the party leaves undone posed for the organization of new Territo- In view of this weight of responsibility they that they design to abuse the policy nothing could be properer than that the of enlarging the confederacy by admitting sparse and immature communities to a full sovereights. We observe that the Hon. Mr. There propose to establish the "land district" of Utali, and infer from his remarks that he expects thereby to avoid the vexed question of popular power which has atisen in the l'erritories. It is difficult to behalf of Republican success-we shall see how communities of people, resident in a remote interior, can get along without more law than an unorganized community possesses of itself, and without at least the Congress has the power to establish. It is greatly to be doubted whether the general legislation of Congress over citizens of the to whom we refer. The difficulty cannot thed upon the public domain is a judicial settled by the courts. Perhaps we may into the Union with less than the represent dive quota of population. With these two propositions settled, the new State question will cease to be a subject of con-

A few years since the Editor of the New York Tribing quietly submitted to have his nose pulled and his ears slapped by Rest, of Arkansas, in the streets of Wa hington The other day this said Editor of the Technic wrote and inserted in his paper an infamous article on Jefferson Days, in which the noble hearted, but somewhat hot headed Senator from Mississippi, is denounced as the "veriest of cowands " It is very refreshing to hear Greeley call Davis a coward. The best answer to this is, that while Davis was riding at the he d of his Mississippians through a hailstorm of bullets, on the field of Buena Vista the white livered graven who wrote rity, and great moral worth. But the rehi that article sat in his garret scribbling a defense of the Mexicans; trusting that they would welcome his countrymen with they would welcome his countrymen with His mental vigor and bodily health are bloody hands to hospitable graves. To put our neighbor of the Gazette perfectly at his case in regard to our position, we beg to assure him that if Dorglas M. C's. were appealed to, and in two weeks is nominated at Charleston next week, we raised one hundred and thirteen dollars and thirseless hall raise his name with a great deal of pleasure, and support him as enthusiasticly as any other man. There is no "comthe next morning. At this time, half a dozen Southern gentlemen, and all slave holders, while discussing the merits of to support regular nominations, hence it sparkling Catawba at Willard's casually will not be hard for Buchananites to swallow." the nomination of Judge Dore-LAS, or any other gentleman named in connection with the Democratic nominalitionists assert now that the reason that tion. The "harmonious Republicans" are having a good time among themselves, if all we hear is true. They have organized est concerning the visit of the Japanese a club, but the club appears to be very Embassy to this country. The arrival of much like an Irishman's shillalah at Donabrook fair-it is handled in the middle. and raps both friends and foes over the head. At the meeting of the club last week, officers were elected, and an Executive Committee appointed. In arranging this delicate matter, due caution was had and the places filled by "Whigs of ye ancient renown." Not a smell was given to "original" anti-slavery men, as represented by the True American, or to that class of "patriots" who left the Democratic party for the Democratic party's good, as represented by the "buzzum friend" of Cameron in this city. Indeed, we have been turbed our polities long enough! It has told there was quite an amusing scene when the officers came to be elected. The list, officers, executive committee and all, had been filled up, save one place on the executive committee, by whig fossils, when one of the faithful nominated Cameron's "buzzum friend" to fill the vacancy. No sooner said, than one of the "royal family" nominated Ex-Senator Skinner. Here was a go! One of the "buzzum friend's" blowrs and strikers, got up and made a flaming speech, the burthen of which was the necessity of having "one of the solid men of Erie" in the executive committee. Skinner wickedly suggested that he-the blow er and striker—should go on himself! This in another boat. On landing our President brought down the house, and Skinner was politely leaped out ahead, to help—the voted in, and the "buzzum friend" outand this accounts for the "milk in the fol lowing cocoanut," from the last American We reproduce it as evidence of the perfect peace, and harmony, and love, which exists in the ranks of the party. CLUB.-The organization of our city Republican Club is finally effected, as indicated by the proceedings elsewhere published. We product for the Club exceeding efficieney during the ensuing campaign. It will be mighty to the pulling down of the strongholds of satan and his host—the unwashed Democracy. The Officers are all unexceptionable men. That they are all earnest and reliable Republicans is sufficiently vouched for in the fact that former ly they were all, to a man, actively identified with the old Whig Party. There is no "visible admixture" of original republicanor republicans of democratic antecedents on the list of Officers. This fact augurs well for that harmony and unanimity of action and that freedom from from dissention which are so necessary to the efficient working of the organization. With a board of officers representing all the different ly prove so satisfactory—the capacity of factions of the party, the result could hard-seriously impaired. Besides, inasmuch as the old line Whigs may be supposed to be Republicans from necessity rather than from choice, their present right to take charge of the concerns of the party in preferance to all others, and to the exclusion of all others, is obvious. No one ought to complain—the Club has pursued a natural and discreet course, and good must come of it. In the Executive Committee is vested nearly all the power and vitality of the organization. It is really the Club itself. -

We are consequently greatly gratified to have the name James G. Payne, Esq., at the head of that Committee. It strikes us that a happier selection could not have been made. Mr. P., although a moderately young man, is innocently so, and is aldaly known for his aminent sory. ices in behalf of our common cause. would be hard, just on the moment, to mention another gentleman in our city, whose name, whether at home or abroad. the rapidity with which new communities is so directly calculated to strike terror to under the impulse of the railroad and the hearts of the foe whose annihilation is homesterd system may be clothed with an object dear to each of us. > PREPARING FOR DEFEAT .- Under this head the Detroit Daily Advertiser, which is recog nized as the Seward organ in Michigan, has the following on the Chicago noming tion. "Marvellous as it may seem," yet it s strictly true that this article embodies the real sentiments and feelings entertained by the Seward men towards the friends of Hon. John McLean. That it was dieta ted at Washington, and not made public until after due consideration, we have htthe doubt. Its perusal will be refreshing to > our Democratic friends: "Marvelous as it may seem to men of sense and foresight, there seems to be no doubt that the design is seriously entertained amongst certain intriguing members of Congress, claiming to have the good of the Republican party at heart, of nommating old Judge McLean at Chicago. nomination of Mr. Bates would be distasteful enough to the Republicans of the North west. But that of Judge McLean would be even more so. He is admitted to be an amiable, fair minded man, of street integmerits end—or at least, there ends his qualifications for the Presidency. The only two Anti-Locofoco Presidents we have had within the last thirty years, died before their terms had been half served out, and the consequences that followed were fatal to the party which elected them. Do Republicans wish a repetition of such calamities to themselves? If we must have a candidate whose election would be no vic-Judge McLean."

THE JAPANESE BREAKY .- We collate from sundry sources the following facts of interthe Candinmarrul, at San Francisco, was unexpected, it having been sent ahead to announce the coming of the full Embassy in the Powhattan. Lieut. CROOKE, of the U. S. N., was in Japan and his services were procured to pilot the advance expedition across the Pacific. A San Francisco writer thus describes their doings and sayings in that city: Next day was Sunday. Our city officials knew scarcely what to do. If they invited the distinguished Pagans to Church it might alarm their semitiveness, for they have had a national experience of Jesuits; if they ignored all church-going, it would scarcely be the thing for a Christian city's fathers. At last, four of the Supervisors, headed by their President, Teschemaker (we have no Mayor, you know,) were row ed off to the corvette-were announced as of rank enough to talk familiarly with even the Admiral, were graciously saluted. and then invited the strangers to see the city under their escort. The Admiral agreed, but it took half an hour to manage the order of the going. The admiral pro-posed to take his own boat and certain of men, he invited Teschemaker to ride with him, but would not hear of the propo sition that "his men" should go too. Lieut. Brooke had a hard job of it to convince his Honor that Teschemaker was no better than "his men," to wit, the other Supervisors. Finally, the Admiral and the President were rowed off together, and "the men" of the two officials despatched

Admiral out, and had a narrow escape of giving offence by thus taking the prece dence. The two walked up side by side mutely, the others, in careful order of rank - the democratic crowd humoring the strange notions of eliquette by opening for the noble gentlemen to pass to their curiages. Here another half hour was spent in getting the right order of rank. Then up to the International parlots. Fortunately our modest little Irish Governor Downey, was in fown. Hearing what wa up, he went over to honor the occasion. Entering with a single componion, it tool all the faith the strangers could command to believe that a little man m'a black coal with no retinue could be a genuine Gov

While these two high or inds thus consult ed, the other official, returning to their carriages, were being conveyed through the principal streets, in sight of the crouch ing hors, past the churches and hotelaround the plaza, over Rincon Hill, and to Steamboat Point Here is being construc ted a magnificient boat for the Sacramente route - a -ort of a New World or Isau Newton One glance sufficed for their expression of admiration, and they returned o business. By the way, Mr. Keno says the Japanese, in coming over showed themselves experts in every department of engineering, but not extraor linary as sailors. It was not until they had been several days at sea that they consented to divide into watches-it was a new idea to them; but when they had tried it a day, they seemed to relish it won-derfully. They had Dutch chronometers on board, and gave evidence of Dutch education. Back to the hotel, they dined, rather awkwardly handling our unequal and barbarous choosticks but managing notwithstanding to do justice to their dinner. They marched back after dark to

DEMOCRATIC VICTORY IN HARRISHING -Whenever the Republican party carries : town election, whether in Vermont or Ohio, or any other well known abolition-locality. the telegraph is at once set at work, and the important fact heralded far and wide all over the country. But let the Demo crats achieve an important victory, and presto change, the telegraph is alent — t case in point is the Harrisburg municipal election which took place last week, Fri day. It was the first under the city charter and was looked upon by both parties a important. The result, though not her alded far and wide, is no less gratifying the Democrats having carried the city by from one to two hundred majority. Heretofore Harrisburg has generally been ; closely contested town, the opposition in most instances having a majority, as for nyample: In 1858 John M. Read, Republican, had a majority of 91 in Harrisburg In 1859 Cochran, Republican, carried the town over Wright, by a majority of 6 votes These were strict political contests, and how that the Democrats of Just tearry the town by almost 300 majority last year," a
