

Has Got what it Wanted.

The New York Tribune, which is the oracle of Republicanism, some weeks since expressed a deep anxiety that the country should be blessed with a panic, or, at least, really expressed it, "a high old panic," one that would smash up things generally, and put a stop to European importations...

Hon. A. H. Stephens, a few days since, made a speech at Augusta, Georgia, against the secession movement. It was a bold, calm, and very able recognition against the schemes of that class of politicians who are acting upon Mr. Yancy's programme, and seeking to plunge the cotton States, by some sudden movement, into revolution.

Eight of the "Free" States, Pennsylvania included, have endeavored to nullify the Constitution and laws of Congress by the passage of "personal liberty bills," intended to prevent the execution of the fugitive slave act.

PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION.

OFFICIAL VOTE OF PENNSYLVANIA.

Table with columns for Counties, Electors, and Votes. Lists counties like Adams, Allegheny, Armstrong, Berks, Blair, Bradford, Bucks, Butler, Cambria, Carbon, Centre, Chester, Clarion, Clearfield, Columbia, Crawford, Cumberland, Dauphin, Delaware, Elk, Erie, Fayette, Forest, Franklin, Fulton, Greene, Huntingdon, Indiana, Jefferson, Lancaster, Lawrence, Lebanon, Lehigh, Luzerne, Lycoming, McKean, Mercer, Mifflin, Monroe, Montgomery, Northampton, Northumberland, Perry, Philadelphia, Pike, Potter, Schuylkill, Snyder, Susquehanna, Tioga, Union, Venango, Warren, Washington, Westmoreland, Wyoming, York.

A Washington letter writer states, that after the formal though mild censure of Gen. Harney by the Secretary of War, the gallant General was invited to dine en famille with the President, among the guests were Gov. Floyd and Col. John P. Taylor, the only brother of "Old Zack," and an old friend and brother officer of Harney.

General News.

A Register that describes the "wails of the Chicago epidemic," says that the cholera is in a more advanced stage than it was some weeks since. Common deaths of the cholera are said to be...

The Governor will send in his message at four o'clock to-morrow. He will recommend that the Legislature should, to some extent, encourage and foster direct trade with Europe and the continent, by taking upon itself a part of the losses which might flow from the establishment of direct trade...

Gov. Gist, in his message devotes many pages to local and State affairs. He says the view of secession becomes doubly important, as it will have to be decided soon after the State secedes he will sever his connection with the Federal Government, and obey the call of the State.

The Governor advises the prohibition of the introduction of slaves from the Southern States into the Southern Confederacy, and particularly border States. He says let them keep the slave property in our border, and the only alternative left them is emancipation by their own act, or that of these confederates.

The Governor, in referring to the action of South Carolina in seceding from the Union, says that the secession of that State is a violation of the Constitution, and that the Union is still intact.

A woman was arrested last week in Philadelphia, for inhuman treatment of her child. In a fit of passion she tore the hair from one side of the child's head, dashed it upon the ground, and so beat the little sufferer that there was not upon its entire body a single hair without a bruise.

A similar bet was made by Clayton Phillips, and Charles Malone, of East White-Land. The former is a Lincolnite, and the latter for Breckinridge. Mr. Phillips agreed, if his candidate should be nominated, to wheel a load of lime from the Green Tree, in Willistown, to West Chester, a distance of ten miles.

The Chicago Times says that about forty agents of that city have organized a military company under the name of "Freedom Guards." One of the objects of their organization is to rescue fugitives from the hands of government officers, whenever any such shall be captured.

Local News.

The American People Company of Buffalo, to carry off a large quantity of grain from the Union, mostly of wheat, to the suffering people of Kansas.

The Dunkirk Union wants us to "note" that its name "is the Union and not the Free." Well, as Artemus Ward would say, let 'em note!

A man named David Huxton came to his death from a very singular cause last Monday in West Greenway. While handling a barrel of salt he hurt his finger slightly, and from some poisonous substance in it, his finger began rapidly to swell, and finally terminated in lock jaw, causing his death.

Carl Behring, one of the distinguished gentlemen who sided in bringing on the present deplorable state of affairs, has taken time by the forelock, and gone to Washington. It is not known whether he went on to hurry up those homes for the homeless, or whether he is after his bank pay and pension money.

The conservative men of Connecticut are coming to their senses. On Friday last the Charter election in Norwich, George R. Shelwell, Esq., Democrat, was elected Mayor by 47 majority. At the Presidential election held on the 6th inst., the Republicans carried the town by over 100 majority.

The past week has been one of unusual severity—some of the time the weather would have done us no discredit in January. Sunday, in particular, was such a day. Snow drifts, together with a cutting wind, were not calculated to invite people to church, or improve us favorably with prosaics for pleasure or health.

A few years since a barbers' face was considered absolutely essential to goodness, but now the beard and moustache appear to be gaining ground even among the clergy. The Boston Herald states that on one occasion, last, there were three full-bearded ministers in the pulpit of Park Street Church.

A Mr. Talbot, the keeper of a hotel at Bardonia, N. Y., was shot and killed by a young man named Hiss, a slaughter, about a year ago. Hiss got a change of venue from Nelson to Bullitt county, and recently was admitted to bail, the jury failing to agree upon a verdict.

The Chicago Times says that about forty agents of that city have organized a military company under the name of "Freedom Guards." One of the objects of their organization is to rescue fugitives from the hands of government officers, whenever any such shall be captured.

Local News.

The American People Company of Buffalo, to carry off a large quantity of grain from the Union, mostly of wheat, to the suffering people of Kansas.

The Dunkirk Union wants us to "note" that its name "is the Union and not the Free." Well, as Artemus Ward would say, let 'em note!

A man named David Huxton came to his death from a very singular cause last Monday in West Greenway. While handling a barrel of salt he hurt his finger slightly, and from some poisonous substance in it, his finger began rapidly to swell, and finally terminated in lock jaw, causing his death.

Carl Behring, one of the distinguished gentlemen who sided in bringing on the present deplorable state of affairs, has taken time by the forelock, and gone to Washington. It is not known whether he went on to hurry up those homes for the homeless, or whether he is after his bank pay and pension money.

The conservative men of Connecticut are coming to their senses. On Friday last the Charter election in Norwich, George R. Shelwell, Esq., Democrat, was elected Mayor by 47 majority. At the Presidential election held on the 6th inst., the Republicans carried the town by over 100 majority.

The past week has been one of unusual severity—some of the time the weather would have done us no discredit in January. Sunday, in particular, was such a day. Snow drifts, together with a cutting wind, were not calculated to invite people to church, or improve us favorably with prosaics for pleasure or health.

A few years since a barbers' face was considered absolutely essential to goodness, but now the beard and moustache appear to be gaining ground even among the clergy. The Boston Herald states that on one occasion, last, there were three full-bearded ministers in the pulpit of Park Street Church.

A Mr. Talbot, the keeper of a hotel at Bardonia, N. Y., was shot and killed by a young man named Hiss, a slaughter, about a year ago. Hiss got a change of venue from Nelson to Bullitt county, and recently was admitted to bail, the jury failing to agree upon a verdict.

The Chicago Times says that about forty agents of that city have organized a military company under the name of "Freedom Guards." One of the objects of their organization is to rescue fugitives from the hands of government officers, whenever any such shall be captured.

Local News.

The American People Company of Buffalo, to carry off a large quantity of grain from the Union, mostly of wheat, to the suffering people of Kansas.

The Dunkirk Union wants us to "note" that its name "is the Union and not the Free." Well, as Artemus Ward would say, let 'em note!

A man named David Huxton came to his death from a very singular cause last Monday in West Greenway. While handling a barrel of salt he hurt his finger slightly, and from some poisonous substance in it, his finger began rapidly to swell, and finally terminated in lock jaw, causing his death.

Carl Behring, one of the distinguished gentlemen who sided in bringing on the present deplorable state of affairs, has taken time by the forelock, and gone to Washington. It is not known whether he went on to hurry up those homes for the homeless, or whether he is after his bank pay and pension money.

The conservative men of Connecticut are coming to their senses. On Friday last the Charter election in Norwich, George R. Shelwell, Esq., Democrat, was elected Mayor by 47 majority. At the Presidential election held on the 6th inst., the Republicans carried the town by over 100 majority.

The past week has been one of unusual severity—some of the time the weather would have done us no discredit in January. Sunday, in particular, was such a day. Snow drifts, together with a cutting wind, were not calculated to invite people to church, or improve us favorably with prosaics for pleasure or health.

A few years since a barbers' face was considered absolutely essential to goodness, but now the beard and moustache appear to be gaining ground even among the clergy. The Boston Herald states that on one occasion, last, there were three full-bearded ministers in the pulpit of Park Street Church.

A Mr. Talbot, the keeper of a hotel at Bardonia, N. Y., was shot and killed by a young man named Hiss, a slaughter, about a year ago. Hiss got a change of venue from Nelson to Bullitt county, and recently was admitted to bail, the jury failing to agree upon a verdict.

The Chicago Times says that about forty agents of that city have organized a military company under the name of "Freedom Guards." One of the objects of their organization is to rescue fugitives from the hands of government officers, whenever any such shall be captured.

Local News.

The American People Company of Buffalo, to carry off a large quantity of grain from the Union, mostly of wheat, to the suffering people of Kansas.

The Dunkirk Union wants us to "note" that its name "is the Union and not the Free." Well, as Artemus Ward would say, let 'em note!

A man named David Huxton came to his death from a very singular cause last Monday in West Greenway. While handling a barrel of salt he hurt his finger slightly, and from some poisonous substance in it, his finger began rapidly to swell, and finally terminated in lock jaw, causing his death.

Carl Behring, one of the distinguished gentlemen who sided in bringing on the present deplorable state of affairs, has taken time by the forelock, and gone to Washington. It is not known whether he went on to hurry up those homes for the homeless, or whether he is after his bank pay and pension money.

The conservative men of Connecticut are coming to their senses. On Friday last the Charter election in Norwich, George R. Shelwell, Esq., Democrat, was elected Mayor by 47 majority. At the Presidential election held on the 6th inst., the Republicans carried the town by over 100 majority.

The past week has been one of unusual severity—some of the time the weather would have done us no discredit in January. Sunday, in particular, was such a day. Snow drifts, together with a cutting wind, were not calculated to invite people to church, or improve us favorably with prosaics for pleasure or health.

A few years since a barbers' face was considered absolutely essential to goodness, but now the beard and moustache appear to be gaining ground even among the clergy. The Boston Herald states that on one occasion, last, there were three full-bearded ministers in the pulpit of Park Street Church.

A Mr. Talbot, the keeper of a hotel at Bardonia, N. Y., was shot and killed by a young man named Hiss, a slaughter, about a year ago. Hiss got a change of venue from Nelson to Bullitt county, and recently was admitted to bail, the jury failing to agree upon a verdict.

The Chicago Times says that about forty agents of that city have organized a military company under the name of "Freedom Guards." One of the objects of their organization is to rescue fugitives from the hands of government officers, whenever any such shall be captured.

To-Day's Advertisements.

Bank & Commerce Money. WANTED AT PAR in Exchange for... Park Hall Clothing Store! JOHN GRAHAM, MERCHANT TAILOR. East Side Market Square, PHILA. ERIC received a New and Fashionable Military order also begins to show itself among those who have usually been deterred by their cloth, from warlike occupations, although chaplains, in revolutionary times, occasionally wielded the sword or musket. It is stated that the Wilkes Guard, a military company in Washington, Co., have elected the Rev. G. G. Norman, of the Methodist Church, captain in place of their late captain, Hon. I. T. Irv...

To-Day's Advertisements.

MOORE'S RURAL NEW-YORKER. The Rural New-Yorker is published weekly, and contains a large amount of interesting and valuable information for the farmer, the mechanic, the tradesman, and the general reader. It is published by Moore, Wendell & Co., No. 100 Nassau Street, New York. The Rural New-Yorker is published weekly, and contains a large amount of interesting and valuable information for the farmer, the mechanic, the tradesman, and the general reader. It is published by Moore, Wendell & Co., No. 100 Nassau Street, New York.