DR. T. F. FRANK, OCULIST,

With the expenditure of much labor has finally succeeded in bringing that treatment for diseased eyes, so much recommended by writers on Uphthalmic medicine, which consists in the application of chemical funces and vapors, to a medicine have geneally neglected this only rational treatment for want of proper actentific aparatume, and with the risk of their patients eyes, substituted the valigar practice of introducing the crude drug directly to the gree; either in the form of solid caustic, or irrusting silves or washes. The consequence is that more even a reductoryed by the use of medicine than by disease. Dr. Frank has overcrome this obtaicle by the invention of his Ophthalmic Volatrilising apparatus, and has for a few years past proved by the greats number cure sunder his ears, that his treatment is suporableed.

The patient under it enjoys the full bancht auticipated from the medicine, without being subject to the distress produced by fireign substantes used as vehicles for drugs, or the impure ingredient generally combined with them. Pair and indammation is at ence subdued, even in cases of long shanding, and not an instance is known where opacits of the papil was produced by its Prank's treatment of the skind, without the use of Luna Canaticment of the pair was prediced by its prediction of the papil was produced by its reatment of the kind, without the use of Luna Canaticment of the individual programs which an irritating treatment of the kind, without the use of Luna Canaticmenting the even in a perfectly normal condition, not at all producing with treatment of the proper receive attempts, and cases of contrance an ourse a saw curved by these applications, averal cases of the distance will find this treatment on the calariant and deformities of the eyes, this treatment is a retrapilly recovering.
