we are rejuctably obliged to announce that Le enormous advance in the price of printing contrary is specified materials has compelled us to make an addition of any per cent to our rates of subscription This course is not taken without careful consideration. We supposed when we issued our uss number, that we would be able to bear up under the crisis, at our old price, but the difficulty we find in collecting our hack accounts and the discouraging prospect for an early reduction in the cost of white paper, ink, and In dring so we only follow the example of nineitenths of the leading papers in the country, most of whom advanced their rates a month

From and after this date, therefore, the reguser subscription price of the Observer will be $1 50 a year, when paid in advance, and $2,00 when not paid until the end of the year

For the accommodation of those who do not trei themselves able to pay more we shall althe larger edition. PHILAD'A, JUNE 23, 1961. J. NEWTON BROWN DR. Jackson-Drak Six:—I have been frequently requested to connect my name with commendations of different kinds of Medicines, but, regarding the practice, as out of my appropriate sphere, I have do all cases declined, but with a clear proof in various instances, and particularly in my own family, of the usefulness of Dr. Hoofiand's German Bitters, I depart for once from my anual course, to express my full conviction that, for graneral debility of the system, and especially for Liver Complaint, it is a safe and valuable preparation. In some cases it may fail, but usually I doubt not, it will be very beneficial to those who suffer from the above causes.

Yours very respectfully, J H EENNARD
