

THE NEXT GOVERNOR.

Many of our Democratic exchanges, now that the election of a United States Senator and State Treasurer has been decided, are beginning to press the claims of their favorite candidates for Governor.

MORE FALSHOODS EXPOSED.

The abolition organs of this section have found no more fruitful theme of discussion and abuse than the alleged "Democrat outrages"—as they contemptibly call them—at Harrisburg and Albany.

We have taken some pains to find out the real position of affairs at Harrisburg, at the election of U. S. Senator, and we are convinced that the stories which have obtained general currency here are to a great extent unfounded.

In regard to the mass of citizens who gathered in the Hall of the House, and about the Capitol, during the voting for Senator, we have good authority for saying that it was a largely composed of the Opposition as Democrats.

"In the disorder on the floor, the Republicans have been conspicuous for noise and for threats. The Republican members, refusing a fair settlement, and resorting to corruption, prepared to carry through their programme, by stopping discussion. A leading Republican on the floor, who owned that the nomination of Mr. Callcott was calculated to excite the passions of the Democracy,"

"This has been the position of the House. The Democrats have offered fair compromise; the Republicans have refused, relying upon corruption. The Democrats have insisted upon full discussion of the question, and a full exposure of the corruption before an election should be made. The Republicans have attempted to crush out discussion."

"We know not which to designate the most an editor who will prostitute his columns to irresponsible scribbles, for the purpose of blackening the reputations of those whom, either through personal or political motives they may dislike—or the sneaking blackguard, who pens the slanders, and then skulks behind the editor's coat tail to shield himself from the effects of his meanness."

GEN. FITZ JOHN PORTER.

The court martial convened for the purpose of trying Maj. Gen. FITZ JOHN PORTER, on charges preferred by Major General Fox, has sentenced him to dismissal from the service, and the President has approved the finding and sentence in the following order:

"The foregoing proceedings, findings, and sentence in the foregoing case of Major General Fitz John Porter, are approved and confirmed, and it is ordered that the said Fitz John Porter be, and he is hereby cashiered and dismissed from the service of the United States as a major general of volunteers, and as colonial and brevet brigadier-general in the regular service of the United States, and forever disqualified from holding any office of trust or profit under the Government of the United States."

The assertion, says the Harrisburg Patriot, that the finding was unanimous we do not believe. We could not believe it without believing also that every member of the court was actuated by improper motives; for it is very certain that he was not convicted on the evidence, unless the testimony of General Fox himself, who is almost universally considered a habitual liar, was permitted to outweigh that of nine-tenths of the witnesses, gentlemen of unquestioned veracity and unimpaired honor.

The result, so entirely unlooked for by those who had closely followed the testimony, and only apprehended by a few sagacious minds that had narrowly scanned the decisions of the court on one or two important questions that arose in the course of the trial, is not in the least disparaging to the gallant officer, while it reflects enduring ignominy upon all concerned in the infamous plot to disgrace and destroy him.

It is stated in the telegraphic despatches that Gen. Franklin and Sumner, two of the bravest and best of the officers in the Army of the Potomac, have been pleased to term "these efforts to destroy it" it may seem a little singular to those who remember the position of these journals until within a few weeks, to find them talking of Free Speech now; but no matter, it suits their purpose just at present, and as consistency is no part of their attainments, they of course do not trouble themselves to consider about it.

It was idle longer to conceal the fact that rumors of disaffection, or at least discontent, in the army are very plentiful here now. It is charged that Gen. Franklin's troops clamor for McClellan, Franklin being as well known, one of the so-called "McClellan generals," that is, one of the generals who have ordinarily admired the generalship of McClellan. These rumors have assumed such a shape that they have received the attention of the President.

CONSIDERABLE discussion and bad feeling have been caused by rumors of a serious difficulty between Gov. Seymour and Gen. Wool, in regard to certain alleged assumptions of authority by the latter in relation to the organized militia of New York.

"Gen. Wool, on assuming the command of the Department of the East, instituted some inquiries for the more efficient organization of the forces in the Department. But he has received no orders from Washington, which create any conflict of military jurisdiction with the State authorities. The understanding between him and Gov. Seymour in regard to the limits of military command, is perfect, and in all respects cordial."

An ugly and most portentous looking cloud has thus safely blown over, says the Buffalo Courier.

THE NEW DEMOCRATIC DAILY. The NEW DEMOCRATIC DAILY, now published in Philadelphia, by Thos. B. Florence & Co. is to be removed to Washington City, where a daily Democratic paper is to be started in connection with the weekly metropolitan Democratic Journal at Washington, which has long been a fact, and we are satisfied that Col. Florence is the man of all others best qualified for the work.

PENNSYLVANIA AND THE WAR.

The report of Hon. A. L. Russell, Adjutant-General of this State, shows that since our important departure, our State Government has been very busy administering the report gives a detailed and interesting account of the part performed by Pennsylvania in the war for the Union.

A number of the facts were mentioned in the Governor's message, but there are others that may be stated here. We find that the number of troops furnished by the United States by Pennsylvania, since the war began, is 200,336, as follows:

Table with 2 columns: Category and Amount. Categories include Three months campaign, Pennsylvania Reserves, Organized under call for 500,000 men, Drilled men, Enlisted in regiments in service, Enlisted in other States and in Regular army estimated, and Total.

Besides these, about 50,000 men volunteered under the Governor's call for the militia, when the State was threatened with invasion last September. Of course it has not been possible to state the losses in the Pennsylvania regiments, but we find in the notes the names of no less than sixteen Colonels who were killed in battle, and of two who died in camp.

It is probable that this represents the proportion of the total losses, making the number of men from Pennsylvania regiments, who have perished in the war, by battle or disease, thirty-six thousand.

Boaz enthusiastic friend of John Cowles—chairman of the famous Smelling (and lying) committee—having made him a present of a gold-hilted sword, the World thus appropriately comments on the fact:

"On the whole, though, Cowles preferred to regard the gift not as a sword but as a symbol. So do we. And a very pretty symbol it was. The sword of Cowles was a gold-hilted sword. Could any thing more appropriate? To Cowles and Cowles, and the rest of them, every sword drawn in this war has a handle of gold. And if the handle will only come off in their hand, we don't believe they will much care what becomes of the blade."

THE TELEGRAPH informs us that Wm. B. PHILLIPS visited Mr. Lincoln, on Monday, at the White House, and was introduced to him by Senator Wilson.

On Sunday Wesley's rebel cavalry made a dash at a train of cars on the railroad between Nashville and Franklin, and succeeded in destroying two cars. Rebel cavalry continues to hover about our army in Tennessee, weakening our communications.

There is some confusion in the public mind as to the recent senatorial election in Indiana. The case stands as follows: When Mr. Wright was elected the Governor appointed Joseph A. Wright in his place. This appointment held only till the meeting of the legislature.

The sinking of the United States transport Histaria, off Galveston, was probably effected by the rebel steamer Orreto, and not the Alabama, as was supposed. The Orreto ran the blockade of Mobile on the 13th inst., notwithstanding there were six United States vessels of war stationed off the bar, and with full knowledge of the fact, she succeeded in her escape.

The Secretary of War, in reply to a resolution of the House for a full list of the men actually in the service of the Government on the ground that it would involve the examination of a dozen different muster rolls of about a thousand regiments, and the publication would not be compatible with the public interest.

On the 8th of December the Legislature of Utah met at Great Salt Lake City, and on the 10th, Hon. Stephen S. Harding, Governor of the Territory, sent in his message. It is remarkable for containing a long, elaborate and earnest argument against polygamy.
