In a conversation recently held in Bos ton. Gen. M'Clellan is reported to have said that he was preparing a history of the Peninsular campsign, which will oucupy a large share of his time for come weeks. The public will look for it with a great deal of interest.

Tax Legislature of New York, on Tuesday, elected Ex.Gov. Morgan United States Senator for six years from the 4th of March next. The Democrate supported Mr. Erastus Corning, at present a member of the National House of Rayrecentatives from the Albany district. -Mr. Morgan is said to be a moderate Republican, and his election is regarded us & triumph of the Weed and Seward wing of the party, over the radicils under the lead of Greeley and Fields.

> THURLOW WEED'S NOTE OF WARNING Thurlow Weed publishes a long letter in the Albany Journal, of Ssturday, in power, he has sustained the Administration, and that his relations with the Presicordial. He then utters the following warning against Horace Greeley and the of the nature and cause of the accusation, to be confronted with the witnesses against malignants :---

"I have referred frequently to the incondiary principles of the New York Tribune, because that journal, by its vast circulation, exerts a malign influence throughout the whole North. I again ad nonish my countrymen to shake off this incubus to emeripate themselves from their mental thraldom, before all is lost. Mr. Greeley, the infatuated victim of the wildest Ambition, will soon, amid the "crash of worlds and the wreck of matter," be seized with a anteed to every citizen by the Constitution "RENORSE THAT COMES TOO LATE." I speak not idly. This "Architect of Ruin" has much to answer for.'

THE CANERON BRIBERT CASE .- The New York Post, the most influential and respectable of Republican papers, speaks thus of Dr. Boyer's charges :

"Mr. Cameron, we believe, holds still. the office of Minister to Russia. In jusnot only ignorant of the law, but must be | for their character, should at once invesintentionally so, for the Constitution of tigste these charges. If it can be proved them on hand, ragged and sadey, if not

CAPTURE OF PRIZES .-- As a happy set-off on Thursday of last week. The cargo of the Princess Royal was most valuable, embeacing among other things eight Whitworth guns, four steam engines for gunboats, a large stock of rifles and powder and a party of English workmen skilled in the manufacture of projectiles. The particulars of the capture of the English ship Antons on the 6th ult; which have just come to hand, are equally pleasing. The Antona was laden with a complete battery of brass field-pieces, a lot of quinine, opium, several thousand pairs of shoes, numerous boxes of tes, about five hundred kegs of powder, Enfield rifles, medicines, clothing, &c., &c.,

- Une more instance showing treach-ery at the headquarters of Gen. Burnside. A letter from the army dated the 27th save: "The morning that Gen. Burnside's order was read to the troops, announcing that the auspicious moment had arrived when we were again about to meet the enemy the rebel pickets read all of the order across the river, to our pickets, our men thus getting knowledge of the order for the first. And now every day our men are hailed by the rebels to know if the "auspicious moment has arrived ?"-Truly does the writer say, "it is about time some of these traitors in the army and in Washington were shot, if only for the example.

- Intelligence is received from Fortress Monroe of an engagement on Friday, near the Blackwater, between the rebels under Gen. Prvor and a portion of Gen Peck's command. Gen. Pryor's forces savanoed across the river and made a demonstration with artillery on Gen. Peck's advanced brigades, but were repulsed, and rewhich he states his position. The fighting appears to have been quite brisk, resulting in a loss to us of about one hundred in killed and wounded. The rebel loss is unknown, dent and every member of his Cabinet are | but a number of prisoners were taken. Corcoran's brigade was in the engagement, and fought gallantly.

-The drafted regime nts of Pennsylvania troops mustered into service are offi-cered as follows : 158th, Col. D. R. Mo-Kibben ; 165th, Col. Charles H. Buehler 160th, Col. Andrew J. Fulton; 167th, Col. Dyer 176th, Col. A. A. Leckler; 177th Colonel Beorge B. Wiestling; 178th, Col. James Johnson.

-At the meeting of the book publishers in New York, to protest against the speculative combination of the paper manufacturers, it was stated that a number of new books, all stereotyped and ready to be printed, are being kept back because the publishers must either issue them at an immediate loss, or kill their sales with unusual prices.

Haval Battle at Charleston

The news of Wednesday was of a startling and unexpected nature. If we may credit the rebel accounts, the Confederates did a good day's work on the 31st uit. On the morning of that day Com Trans ham with two of their gun-boats attacked and surprised the Federal blockading fleet of Charleston, S. C., and after sinking two of our gun-boats and burning or diabling an indefinite number of other vesels, returned to receive the congratulations of the citizens and declare the blockade of Charleston formally at an end The number of the blockading fleet at the time of the attack is said to have been thirteen. On the following day twenty blockaders were reported as off the bir
