AN ASSAULT ON A LOYAL MAN. -We learn from the Erie Gazette, that a brutal and cow. ardly assault was made on the Hon. M. B. Lowry, on Saturday night last, while he was proceeding from a point in that city, on his way homeward. The assaulting parties were a gang of copperhead traiters, who took that mode of rebuking the loyalty of Mr. Lowiy. The above is precisely the sort of paragraph-we expected to see in that most malicous and indecent of all the Aholision papers York with an extensive assortment of goods of this State, the Harrisburg -Telegraph. Without any acquaintance with the facts, or since the reduction in prices, and selected by any endeavor to ascertain them, it makes the Mr. Beebe himsel, who, it need hardly be hasty and false assertion that the assault on Mr. Lowry was made by a "gang of copperhead traitors who took that mode of rebuking" at least as low, and probably lower, than any his "loyalty." Every citizen of this community knows that such is not the case; that the young men who attacked Mr. Lowry were The dry goods store of R. S. Morrison of his own political creed; and that the matter was in no wise connected with anything of a partisan nature. How did the Telegraph arrive at the conclusion that it was the "copperheads" who assaulted him? It certainly did not get the information from any Erie paper, for not one of them had mentioned politics in connection with its report of the affair. Every honest man must be forced to the belief that the Telegraph jumped to the charge through sheer malice, and with the desire of making political capital. AN EDITOR'S PORTRAIT, DRAWN BY HIMthe local editor of the Dispatch) is one of the evils which the Observer's doctrine leads to. It teaches the ignorant and selfish mind to disregard all forms of law and all principles of manhood, to build up its own supremacy It acknowledges no subordination to the gov ernment, and consequently asserts its superiority to all cotemporaneous doctrines and sentiments. Instead of allowing a man to think and act, it would think and act for him If a man tells a truth which does not comport with its claims, it calls him a liar and a designing knave. If a people do not hug its principles to their breasts as the faith by which to live and to die, it terms them fools and fanatics. If men apply themselves to expose its inconsistencies, it designates them as hirelings or office expecting or patronageseeking adherents to party.
