West Ward Subscribers.

We have a new carrier in the West Ward this week, and as he is not acquainted with the route, many of our subscribers may not receive their papers. If there are any such, they will be supplied by calling at the office.

SCHOOLS. The term of our public schools will close to-day, Friday, and a vacation of peat them. about two months will be given. The Erie Academy closes its session at the same time. and for about the same period. Most of the private schools about the city have closed during the last week or two.

Man Dog .- A dog belonging to Mr. Wm. F. Rindernecht, of this city, was discovered to be mad on Thursday, and shot soon after. During the day previous he had evinced an unusually quarrelsome disposition, but no one suspected him to be mad, until the next morning, when he was discovered to be frothing at the mouth. Some half dozen dogs that he had-bit, have been killed.

THE EMBOLLMENT .- The enrolling officers have finished their duties in the towns and townships named below, and we give the number of persons found subject to military duty: Class 1. Class 2.

From Girard-borough, Girard township and Fairview we have not the classified returns and can only give the totals. We hope to publish a complete table, before long, of the county: Girard borough 104, Girard township 369, Fairview 277.

The Erie Observer states that there are no Lodges of the Knights of the Golden Oircle in this county, and adds that it regards all political secret societies as useless or misshievous. Right, Observer, for once, at least. The history of that monstrous proscriptive humbug, the Knew Nothings, ought to teach every thoughtful man to avoid all secret political societies, whatever their name or professed blect.-Girard Union.

We commend the above extract, from one of the staunchest Republican papers in the coun-Royal League. It will be seen that Democrats are not alone in their condemnation of these dangerous political organisations.

A meeting was to have been held in Edinboro on some evening of the present week, but whether it came off at all, and what success attended it, we have not learned.

The Gazette says that "companies are drilling in Fairview, Girard, Springfield, Waterford, and other portions of the county, preparatory to an anticipated emergency.

Strange as it may appear, no action has yet been taken in our city towards obtaining recruits, though it is conceded by everybody that there never was a period when the country demanded men so strongly as the present .-Several meetings have been proposed, but as no one was willing to take the lead in them. they were not announced. The Governor has issued a proclamation, fixing our quota at 1,000, which we shall either have to raise or stand disgraced in the sight of our fellow citizens in other parts of the State: The counry, we are sure, will do its full duty; will the city fail to perform her's?

WN. A GALBRAITH, Enq -Our fellow Democrate in Erie county will be pleased to know that the high esteem in which this distinguished gentleman is heldest home, is entertained in other parts of the State. During our attendance at the State Convention, we had many opportunities of seeing the affection in which Mr. Galbraith is held by Democrats of other sections, and we confess that we were deeply gratified. We risk no fear of contradiction when we say that there was no other member of the Convention whe possessed more influence, whose opinions were will be obtained. more frequently consulted, or who was more generally respected than Mr. Galbraith. Without any effort on his part, and indeed entirely contrarysto his wishes, he was brought forward by a large number of delegates for the preminent position of President of the Convention, and only failed by one vote in being selected for that place by the Committee on organization. Had his name been presented directly to the convention, and his position relative to the Gubernatorial admination been fairly understood, we do not believe that half a dozen ballots would have been cast against bim. We were somewhat surprised to notice how extensively Mr. Galbraith is acquainted with the prominent Democrate throughout the State. Almost every delegate appeared to know him personally, and they all greeted him with that cordial spirit that shows the existence of true affection. He is generally

The Democrats of Erie county have cause for congratulation that they possess a leader such as Wm. A. Gaibraith. His many manly qualities endear him to the people, without regard to political creed, and no man can doubt the sincerity of his political sentiments/ In a county where our party is vastly in the minority he has stood up, firm as a rock, in defence of what he believes to be the right-Had he coveted office, he would only have needed to abandon the principles of his heart, and join hands with the opposition, and they would have been only too glad to receive him, and give him anything he asked for. In these days of corruption, and political faithlessness, it is cheering to see men like wm. A. Galbraith bravely defending the principles of the Constitution and Union, and willing to risk obloquy, misrepresentation and party hatred for the sake of the country.

ARRESTED FOR DESERTION. -Henry Smith George Kent, Chauncy Eaton and Nathan Vining, of this township, and a man named Allen, of Lockport, were arrested on Wednesday by Deputy Provost Marshal S. B. Benson for desertion, and taken to headquarters at Waterford. It will be difficult, we think; to make out a clear case of desertion in any of the above cases, and while it is perfectly proper to inquire into such instances of alleged desertion, we would suggest to that wonderful officer Simon Bolivar Benson, that if he would not put on such ferocious airs when in the discharge of his duties, his reputation for greatness would not suffer materially, and he sight cause less pain to the subjects of his awful visitations.—Girard Union.

We are really astonished that our cotempo rary should speak in such uncomplimentary language of "that wonderful officer. Simon Bolivar Benson." GREAT NATIONAL GIRCUS. -An Institution nost significantly different and vastly superior in extent, attractiveness and respectability, will visit this place on Monday, the 13th inst. Its entire management devolves upon Mrs. C Warner, a lady much better known in this community as Mrs. Dan Rice, the wife of Dan Rice, the somewhat famous clown. The fair manageress, always deservedly popular with the people, and at all times the commandants of their respect and admiration, has collected a fine company of sterling performers and purchased an unequalled stock of blooded horses, acting ponies and educated mules, thus being enabled to considently rely upon the appreci ation and good taste of the public for their support and endorsement. Mr. W. A. Baldwin, Superintendent of this division of the Phile. & Erie R. B., has gone to Harrisburg, to offer his services to the Governor in any capacity where he may desire them.
