A most formidable and widely extended riot occurred in New York; on Tuesday, incited by opposition to the draft. The riot commenced in the morning at the corner of Forty-Third street and Third

The draft which had commenced in the 18th ward was also stopped on account of the riot. The police and a small force of the militia repaired to the scene of the Asylum, an armory corner of 21st street and 2d avenue, the house of Col. Robert fice was attacked and fired, but by the timely arrival of the police was saved. The negroes in all parts of the city were attacked, besten, and in some instances killed. In one case a negro was hung to a lamp-post. There were a large number of casualties among policemen, firemen and the rioters. The telegraph wires were tracks being torn up in several places, and some of the cars coming into the city were stoned. Some terrible scenes were enacted on Tuesday, the mob having meanwhile in creased in number.

"In the afternoon a company of the 12th infantsy, together with a platoon of police, met the mob on 5th avenue near 46th street. The mob stood fire, and finally were driven by a bayonet charge. They broke before the cold steel, several being severely wounded.

"Another bayonet charge was made, in the morning, on Broome street. In two minutes the mob was dispersed, five or ing ten minutes, in which fifteen rioters were killed and wounded, and two hundred carbines captured from the mob. On company, forty in number, of invalid sol diers. These were soon overnowered. their muskets wrested from them, and of the soldiers were carried away terribly mutilated. On Tuesday afternoon th Tribure office was attacked a second time per which had been erected.

"The most appalling occurrences of the day, however, were on 2d and 3d avenues where the fight took place in which Col O'Brien was so brutally murdered. The instance. mob seems to have presented its most determined front in this locality. The ne-gro-quarters, in the 4th Ward, principally, were also the scene of some heart sickening events. Gen. Rosechans, pursuing Brace into the heart of the South, has been unable to force him to a battle; but he has taken 4,-000 prisoners. If we understand the reports aright, East Tennessee should now be open to his victorious arms.

THE COMING DRAFT. HOW IT IS TO BE CONDUCTED. Form of Application for Exemption.

The interest in the draft grows more intense as the period for it to take place approaches neurer. We are unable to state, at the present period, the exact time, at which the event will eccur, or the number that will be drawn, as the quota of our county. Persons who claim to be informed however, say that no names will be drawn for one or two weeks yet, the preparations not having all been completed.

The drawing will take place at the Provost Marshal's office in Waterford, near which town a camp has been established, which is to be the rendervous for this district. Col. Campbell has already received a large supply of clothing, arms, &c., sufficient to furnish all who are likely to enter the service from the district. The names we presume will be lief drawn in nearly the same manner as they were during the last draft. They will be written on alips of paper or card, and put into a wheel, from which they will be drawn by some person blindfolded. We expect that the proceedings will be public, or at least that a number of persons belonging to the various political organisations will be invited to be present.

The following extracts from the law under which the draft is to be made, will be found
