We announce, with feelings of the deepest regret, the death of Hon. Jonn J CRITTENDEN, of Kentucky, at Frankfort, in that State, on Sunday, the 26th of July. He was in the 77th year of hisage, having lived more than the allotted period of man. Mr. CRITTENDEN, during the greater part of his vigorous life, was an opponent of the Democratic party, but has acted with it almost uniformly since the election of Mr. LINCOLN. He was a man of great intellect, and unspotted integrity, and his loss will be mourned by all who admire true patriotism, ho matter to what party creed they are attached.

THE Pittsburg Gazette, the leading organ of the Administration in Western Penasylvania, has been engaged for some weeks past in an intensely fierce crusade against Goy. Curtin. It charges him with being weak, simid, corrupt, vascillating, and utterly unfit for a crisis like the present. How. O. H. BROWNING, of Illinois, who was elected to the U.S. Senate by the Republicans of Illinois, and whose term expired at the last session, has formally announced his intention to act with the Democratic party in future.
