State Central Committee have appointed eat Mass Meetings to be held on the 17th the anniversary of the adoption of the itution, in different quarters of the State. or North-Western Pennsylvania will be t Meadville, and it is designed to be one largest and most attractive affairs of nd ever held in the country. Several of ost eminent speakers in the State will be nt, whose names will be announced in eason. Excursion trains will be run up- Atlantic & Great Western R. R., Erie tsburg, and Franklin Railroads. The erats of Crawford county are making ex- e preparations to have this demonstra- uccessful in all respects. We hope to see e attendance from Erie county at the g. From all the indications at present be worth going many miles to attend.

ERTERS.—A reward of TEN DOLLARS e allowed for the apprehension and de- of a deserter from the military service United States, together with the cost of portation, and all reasonable expenses red in making arrests.

.—The Oil City Monitor says: "We will oil at the mouth at $7,00; and $5,500 at the wells, according to distance from quarters. We may reasonably expect an ce upon these prices, as the supply is r the demand, and the season for high s has just commenced. While a favor- exchange has thrown into foreign mar- our home demand has been left entirely pplied, and for a long while to come, pri- n this country will rule higher than will y exportation."

There have been no new wells struck since last, that we have been able to learn of, the production of this district amounts to t 6,000 par day.

RI APPROPRIATION.—On Monday evening in the Common Council, Mr Kuhn of- d the following resolution:

Resolved, That the sum of ten thousand rs, or so much thereof as may be neces- be raised on a pledge of the faith and it of the city, and appropriated to paying he exemption of such drafted men of this s, having families dependent upon them, unable to raise the means to obtain sub- tes, or to pay the three hundred dollars red to exonerate them.

Resolved, That a Committee of two members ach board of Councils be appointed to prompt measures to carry out the pur- of the above and foregoing resolution, to report at the next meeting of Councils, a special meeting to be called for the pose, whether the said sum can be raised, upon what terms as to time and interest.

he resolutions were passed by a vote of 5 them to 2 against them. The following is vote:

eas—Messrs. Boats, Carse, Clemens, Kuhn Siegel

ays—Messrs. Barr, Haverstick, and Rin- recht.

he resolutions were taken up in the Select ncil on the same evening, when Mr Fer- moved their immediate consideration, but motion not being seconded, no further ion was taken upon them.

MR. EDITOR:—Please announce the name Mr. Eager Orfusseeker as a candidate for y position they choose to give him, not less n Co. Commissioner, before the "Union," publican, "No-Party" Convention. Mr. O. well known to all the men, women and child- of Erie county as a man better qualified the office than any other in the county.— talents are of the very highest order: in scarcely exceeded by Daniel Webster's. Mr 's loyalty is of the very staunchest character d proved by the strongest evidence that can given to a loyal mind. Ever since the war menced, he has been urging others to go; thinks that Mr. Lincoln's Administration the Government, the same as Alexander's is Russia, and that it is treason to speak ins it; he calls Democrats "Copperheads." tternuts" and sympathizers;" he favors scription of white men and freedom to the es of the South; he believes that the war uld go on until every Southerner is exter- nated; in short, he holds to all the doctrines t constitute a truly loyal citizen. Mr. Or- seeker is too modest to ask for any position mself, but he has paid one of his friends to rite this first-class puff for him, and we sub- it his claims to the Convention, assuring the legates that if they want unequalled purity, rst-class intellect, and superior everything a public officer, he is the man.

TWO MILLIONS OF VOTERS.

DUTIES EXEMPTION.—The Gazette grows ite furious over certain organizations which pretends to exist in this county, for the pur- se of purchasing the exemptions of persons ho have been drafted. It is claimed that ey consist wholly of Democrats, and are tended entirely for the relief of members of ir party, or those of the opposition who dge themselves to vote for our ticket. We ow nothing of such a society, and believe it do exist entirely in the editor of the Gazette's agination. But even if one of that charac- r is established, there is precedent for it in e midst of many leading Republicans. We e informed that a number of voters in that rty, belonging to this city, have been en ergetic buy themselves exempt through the ntributions of their political friends. Not w Republicans attached themselves to as ociations, previous to the draft, for mutual sistance in procuring commutation-money, d we have never seen a line of objection to ese course in the Gazette columns. In at respect there is any more harm in Demo ats pursuing the same course, it will stag- er even the ingenuity of a bigoted Republi an editor to explain. Will the Gazette have e kindness to furnish us with the name of any wealthy member of the opposition who as been drafted or has a son drafted, who id not obtain exemption, either on physical rounds, or by paying commutation?

Dr. Thomas H. Stuart, of this city, is at present acting surgeon in Armory Square Hospital, located in Washington city. A cor- respondent of the Gazette, writing from the national capital, speaks of him in the most exalted terms, both personally and professian- ally.

Brief Paragraphs.

Our city Public schools will re-open on Monday next, the 7th inst.

"Doc." Thayer, the clown, appears to be very popular with "Uncle Samuel." He was drafted last fall, and again this year.

If you want, says an exchange, to make a sober man a drunkard, give him a wife that will scold him every time he comes home.

The last steamer, last week, that Dr. Belknap, of Girard, had been appointed examining surgeon for the draft, was incorrect.

The Spectator, a German paper, published in this city, has hoisted the names of Woodward and Lowrie as the candidates of its choice.

The Observer may be found for sale every week, immediately after publication, at the news stand of Mr. May, in the Post office, and the book store of Mr. Ensign. Brown's Hotel. tf.

Capt Woodward, of Edinboro, has been elected Colonel, and Capt. McCoy, of Crawford county, Lieutenant Colonel of the 83d regiment.

The certificate of deposit for the First National Bank of Girard has been received from the Government, and the institution will open as soon as the bills can be procured.

The draft struck hard upon the Catholic clergy of our city—two being taken from the German Congregation, in addition to Rev Thos. Tracy, late of St. Patrick's church.

We are glad to learn of the promotion of C. W. Lytle, a son of Mr. James Lytle's, to the position of 1st Lieutenant in Co. F, 145th regiment. Lieut. L. is also acting Adjutant.

The Oil City Register says the rumor that the cholera prevails extensively in that city is untrue, and in point of health that place compares favorably with any other locality in the State.

Two new soldier candidates have appeared on the opposition side—Lieut. Colonel McCreary for District Attorney, and Captain Dyer Loomis, of the 145th Regiment, for Prothonotary.

Some two dozen substitutes were sent forward to Pittsburg on Tuesday, from Waterford. They were strongly guarded by soldiers, and every precaution taken to prevent them from escaping.

S. S. Spencer, Esq., has received the appointment of Notary Public, and will enter upon the performance of the duties of the office next week. A better selection could not have been made.

Bishop Stevens will preach in St. Paul's (Episcopal) church on next Sabbath, in the forenoon and evening. He will administer the rite of confirmation to some thirty persons in the evening.

Mong Shaw Loo, "a native Burmese," will deliver an address in the Baptist Church, on Monday afternoon and evening. His descriptions of affairs in Burmah, and representations of Burmese character are said to be interesting.

A dispatch from Stevenson, Tenn., says:

"All statements implicating Col. Truesdail, Chief of the Army Police, in cotton speculations, on the authority of the Judge Advocate, are declared false."

The Republicans of this State have seized upon a new title, and now call themselves, in their official documents, the "National Union Party." This makes the sixth change of name which they have made in the same number of years.

Substitutes have been in active demand for the past week, but few have been obtained thus far. The price has generally been in the neighborhood of $300, though we have heard of several who were obtained for $200 and $250.

A Republican meeting was held at Farrar Hall, on Tuesday evening, which was addressed by two political preachers attending the Synod of the United Presbyterian Church. Their remarks were of the sort that is always expected from that class of people.

When asked what medicine to use for the complaints so frequent at this season of the year, we invariably recommend Carter's Extract of Smart Weed. This article is manufactured in our own city, and its merits have been attested to by many of our citizens.

Capt. T H. Stevens, of this city, has been placed in command of the monitor Patapsco, one of the fleet lying in front of Charleston. Capt. Collins, has been detached from the command of the Octarora, and ordered to return North—we trust, to receive charge of a better vessel.

Among the new announcements in the Gazette as candidates for county offices, before the Republican Convention, are Jacob Fritts, of Venango, at present a County Commissioner, for the same office: E. W. Twitchell, of Edinboro, for re-nomination to the Legislature: Jas. D. Smith, of Wayne, for Commissioner, and Samuel Rea, of Springfield, for re-nomination as Register and Recorder.

The Huntingdon Globe, an old Democratic paper, hoists the name of Curtin and Agnew.—Gazette.

The Globe has not been acknowledged as their organ by the Democrats of Huntingdon county, for the last three years. It has supported the present Administration ever since it came into power, and is in all respects as violent an Abolition sheet as the Gazette itself.

The Edinboro Normal School has commenced its fall session, with very encouraging prospects. A gentleman informs us that there were more pupils present at the opening of the school than it has ever had before. We are earnestly desirous that this fine institution should attain a prosperous career. It ought to be the pride of the people of North-Western Pennsylvania to sustain one Normal School at least—and do more than sustain it, make it a thing of profit as well as permanence.

A company of some 700 persons from Dunkirk visited our city last week, on board the propeller New York. The excursion was got up under the management of Loder Engine, Company No. 2, of Dunkirk, to raise funds for paying the commutation fees of several members of the company who had been drafted. The visitors seemed well pleased with Erie, and many of them were handsomely entertained by our people. Had they given notice of their intention to visit us we would have shown them a genuine specimen of Pennsylvania hospitality. We extend to them a cordial invitation to Erie again.

A respectable gentleman from Waterford assures us that in that vicinity offers have been made of money, varying in amount from $10 to $50, on condition of a pledge or oath to support Geo. W. Woodward for Governor.—Gazette.

That "respectable gentleman" must be a near relative of the "intelligent contraband" and the "reliable southern refugee." The idea of Democrats in a county like this, without a crumb of public patronage, and in a township like Waterford, where the Republicans have a heavy majority, and the Democrats are generally persons in moderate circumstances, paying from $10 to $50 apiece for votes is decidedly the most refreshing piece of humbuggery that the Gazette has recently endeavored to impose upon the credulity of its readers.

During the progress of the draft for this city, at Waterford, last week, a Republican seeing a Democrat present remarked that he hoped the latter would be drawn. The uncharitable wish had scarcely passed his lips until his own name was called out by the Provost Marshal. An honest country Democrat who had overheard the desire, turned round to his Republican neighbor, and added to his discomfiture by the remark, that "people who dig pits for others to fall into, are apt to tumble in themselves."

Waterford has been crowded with drafted men during the week, and the examining board have had a rough time of it. The applications for exemption on physical grounds are very numerous. Almost every person is anxious to get rid of paying $300, and all sorts of expedients are resorted to. The board are very stringent in granting exemptions, and comparatively few have succeeded in obtaining their "freedom papers."

Seven substitutes escaped from the guard house at Waterford, on Tuesday night, by removing the siding of the structure.—Their names are as follows: John Kelly, Wm. Jocylin, Wm. Allen, Chas. Howard, Geo. White, James Turner, John Bradley and Jas. Caldwell. A reward of $10 and all reasonable expenses of arrest will be paid for their recovery.

We were gratified to meet Capt. John Dunlap on Saturday last, looking somewhat thinner than when he left, but carrying as kind a heart as ever. He is home on a brief furlough, to recruit his health. He speaks in the warmest praise of Capt. Shirk, and says he is one of the best officers in the Mississippi squadron.

We call attention to the advertisement of the "Bohemian Glass Blowers." This is claimed to be the original troupe, and its performances are said to be interesting.

S. A. CLARK, Sec. I. EWING, Pres't.

HUMBUG.—For a week past the boxes and drawers in our post office have been afflicted with circulars from J. T. Lloyd, a New York map publisher, setting forth the value of his railroad maps, post office directories, etc. We would simply say that J. T. Lloyd is an arrant humbug. We advertised for him sometime since and he refused to pay for the same, according to agreement. Look out for him.—Covenant Reporter.

We cordially endorse every word of the above. If Lloyd's Maps and Directories are no more reliable than he is himself, they are not worth the paper they are printed upon. He is a great scoundrel, and those who send money to him will hardly be likely to hear from it again.

APHECTING APHAIR.—"Phairest of the phair," sighed the lover, "phancy my pheelings when I phorsee the fearful consequances of pleeing phrom your phasher's phamily! Phew phellows could have phaced the music with as much phortitude as I have; and as phickle phortune phails to smile upon our loves, I phind I must phorego the pleasure of becoming your husband. Phairest Phrances, pharewell pharever." "Hold, Phranklin, hold," screamed Phrances; "I will phollow you pharever." But Phranklin had phled, and Phrances phainted. The phen phalters and rephuses phurther to picture the inephably ephecting phrenzy of the aphianced pair. The cold folks seeing their distress relented of their prejudice against Franklin, and a reconciliation was effected, on condition that they should always afterwards purchase their groceries at the corner store of Jas. A. Bliss, corner of State and Eighth sts.

WANTED—BOOK KEEPERS, CLERKS AND ACTIVE MEN FOR BUSINESS.—Owing to the changes caused by the war, there exists throughout the country a most wonderful demand for competent and skilful Book-keepers, Clerks, &c. So great is this demand that notwithstanding the number of Students at the Iron City College, Pittsburg, Pa., has been more than doubled during the past year, it has not been able to supply the calls made upon it for Book-keepers and Clerks. Young men contemplating a preparation for business, which this year promises to be more active than usual, should avail themselves at once of the advantages afforded by this popular institution, and prepare themselves for fall and winter business.

PETERSON FOR SEPTEMBER.—This fine ladies' magazine is always as welcome to our table, as we are sure its monthly advent is to the boudoir of every lady in the country. The publisher, undismayed by powerful competition, is unremitting in his efforts to please his patrons, bringing in play the best literary and artistic talent that he can procure in the land. The frontispiece of the number before us, is a beautiful sketch called "Edith," while the colored fashion plates, wood cuts, and literary matter are of a high order of excellence.—Buffalo Post.

PENSIONS, BOUNTIES, ARREARS OF PAY &c., can be procured by the Widows, Orphans, and next of kin of those who have died in the service of the United States; also, by Soldiers and Seamen who are disabled by wounds received or disease contracted, upon application to C. Illustrated with a great variety of Engravings. 12 mo fancy paper cover, price 25 cents. This work will be particularly interesting to the little folks, and help them to spend many an innocent and pleasant evening. The publishers are Messrs. Dick & Fitzgerald, New York City, to whom orders should be sent.

—Gen. Gilmore and Admiral Dahlgren report everything as progressing favorably. The requisition for men and materials are promptly filled, and the conduct of the siege is left entirely to their discretion with every confidence that they will finally meet with complete success.

NOVEL EFFECT OF A SECOND MORTGAGE.—One of the substitute soldiers who was presented for examination yesterday, was a man who gave his name, as we will say, Michael Flynn. When he stripped, upon his arm was clearly tattooed the name of John Sullivan. "But I thought you said your name was Michael Flynn," said the doctor. "Yes," stammered the Hibernian sub, "but I have been married twice." Michael passed, and immediately afterwards sent part of his money home to his lady love, to procure a nice new bonnet at the store of E. H Smith, State street.

DEMOCRATIC MEETING.—A Democratic Meeting will be held at the Town Hall, in Mill Creek tp., on Saturday afternoon, the 5th inst. M. A. Galbraith, Esq., will speak, and Judge Church is also expected. A cordial invitation is given to the public, without distinction of party.

SHORT SERVICE.—On Friday night last, says the Meadville Democrat, twelve men, who had been received by the Provost Marshal as substitutes for drafted men, made their escape from the old Arsenal building in this place, taking with them their uniforms and accoutrements.

It is pleasant, says an exchange, to hear of something which is free from tax—exemption certificates for conscripts are in that category.

FLAGS, BANNERS, REGIMENTAL COLORS, &c. Address G. W. Crowell & Co., No. 211 Superior Street, Cleveland, Ohio feb14-6m.

News from all Quarters.

—The Rebels report that John S. Mosby, their famous cavalry chief in Virginia, died at Dranesville on Friday, of wounds received in a skirmish on the 24th of July.

—The Rebel force in Southern Texas is estimated at 18,000 men. Gen. Magruder has enforced the conscription there to the fullest extent. The Rebel gunboat Grand Duke, with 500 bales of cotton, has been burned at Shreveport.

—Richmond papers of Saturday say that Fort Sumter, though seriously breached in the wall, will not be surrendered, Beauregard having resolved to hold it to the bitter end.

—A Washington dispatch says, the line of the Ohio and Chesapeake Canal is still infested with guerrillas. A large party of them on Friday crossed into Maryland at White Ford, and captured a number of stock canal teams.

—Gen. Grant's order No. 50 declares that Tennessee and Kentucky, west of Tennessee River, are free from Rebel forces, and bushwhacking and recruiting for the Rebels therein will be rigorously punished.

—Dr. Stone, Surgeon of the 54th Massachusetts Vols. (colored), writes that the wounded black soldiers who are prisoners in the hands of the Rebels, were cared for in the hospitals with the white wounded, that he can find no authentic or trustworthy account of any outrage or indignity offered to any of our wounded, either in the attack on Wagner or on James Island.

—On the authority of Rebel papers received at Morehead City, N. C., it is stated that Jeff Davis is about to issue a call, by advice of the Governors of the Southern States, for half a million of negro troops, to whom their freedom will be guaranteed and a bounty of fifty acres of land will be given at the expiration of War.

—A dispatch from Washington says: Yesterday six trains went out to the front heavily laden with conscripts. The army has no little difficulty with some of the substitutes who require almost an equal number of men to guard them, but the stringent orders together with the recent executions seem to have had a beneficial effect, and causes for complaint are now less frequent.

—A dispatch from our blockading fleet states, that on the morning of the 17th inst. a steamer of 1,500 tons, with the British flag flying, ran the blockade of Wilmington, N. C., in full view of the United States vessels, and after she got safely through the fleet flung out the Rebel flag. She was pierced for six guns, in addition to two pivot guns, and probably would receive an armament and proceed to sea within a week. She is larger than the Alabama or Florida, and appeared to be very fast.

—A terrible lesson to deserters was given at the headquarters of the Army of the Potomac on Saturday. Five men from Pennsylvania substitutes who had deliberately deserted after being regularly put into service, were shot to death in presence of 25,000 spectators. Their names—George Kuhna a Hanoverian; Charles Walker and Emil Lai, Prussians; John Fellans and George Reinese, Italians. Two were Protestants, two Catholics, and one Jew.

—Gen. Price, with a force of 25,000 rebels, is at Bayou Metarie, a strong point on White River, fourteen miles from Duvall's Bluff, where a great battle, it is expected, will be fought. Our forces are now at Duvall's Bluff, 54 miles from Little Rock. This point will probably be made the base for our supplies, as it can be reached by White River at the lowest stage of water. Skirmishing is constantly going on, but our losses thus far are slight.

ALEXANDER H. STEVENS.—A citizen of Georgia, now within our lines, writes to the Cincinnati Gazette that the difficulty in the way of a Union demonstration in the South, is that the owners of lands and slaves control the people, and the poor are kept in the rebel armies by fear of being shot if they desert. He says that one-third of all the men of the South never have been for disunion, but have been forced into it by the bayonet. He says he knows that Alexander H. Stevens, the rebel vice-president, has never been a secessionist in reality, but has been acting a part, and he intimates that if he had been allowed to go to Washington, when he endeavored to, his mission would have had a result unexpected at the South.

THE CONTRABAND SYSTEM.—A letter to the Chicago Times, dated Helena, Aug. 13th, tells a pitiful story, as follows:

"Emancipation in this part of the country has already proved a sorry thing for the poor contrabands. They have come within our lines, some voluntarily, some by force of armed guards sent to bring them, and then left to starve and die of every disease to which indolence and exposure render them liable. They have not had enough of the plainest necessities to support them in health, and, when sick, no medical attendance whatever has been furnished. As a result, during and since the administration of Gen. Curtis, eight thousand contrabands have died at Helena."

—The Washington correspondent of the New York Commercial says: "The Government has decided not to retain any officer in the army whose views of the present contest are not in consonance with its own. It is to be regretted that cases still continue to be reported for dismissal for the use of what is termed disloyal or unreasonable language.

This week Surgeon J. B. Brown of the regiment named has been dismissed with loss of all pay and allowances, for disloyalty. First Lieutenant Lewis S. Ray, 153d New York Volunteers, is also dismissed, for failing to make a satisfactory defence before the commission of treasonable language."
