WM. A. GALBRAITH, Chairman.

The absence of the editor during considerable portion of the week, is his exeuse for a lack of local and editorial matter,

Ex-President Fillmore.

We have it from a friend who called upon this distinguished statesman and Old-line-Whig, during the present week, . that his views are much in accordance with those of the Democratic party, although he refuses to make a public declaration.

He said he was not a Democrat and yet far from being a Republican—that he had taken no part in political matters since he left the Presidential Chair, from which | and the Constitution in the matter of time he had made it a rule not to make any political speeches or write any political letters for publication; but that his views were well known among his neighbors as he made no secret of them; and then very emphatically said, " the course being pursued by this Administration, is stance. Major Woodward, who was pracleading us rapidly into a military despotism." He said he "voted for Gov. Seymour and was rejoiced at his election," and " did he live in Ohio, would vote for Vallandigham not that he liked the course of the man, but to vindicate the right of free speech."

It is much to be regretted that a man of Mr. Fillmore's high position, influence and known patriotism, does not use it on all occasions to thwart the ruinous policy of this Administration, and endeavor to guide it to the channels of Union, fraternity and peace, and away from disunion, despotism and anarchy, into which it is rapidly drifting.

Gov. Curtin at Corry

The Gasetts of this week, contains a card signed by a number of the citizens ted by Governor Curtin or any of his of Corry, contradicting the stories which friends in this contest. Convicted forgers have been circulating so freely in this section of the State for a couple weeks past, to the effect that Gov. Curtin while in that place, was in a drunken condition. Having been led by the repeated reiterstion of these statements to yield some credence to them through our columns, it is no more than just that we should give the persons who signed this card the Pittsburg on the 16th instant, in which benefit of their denist. If we were dis. you are represented to have said in resposed to imitate their own style, we might endeavor to cast doubts upon their veracity; but we are willing that the public in the communities where they are known shall judge that point for themselves.

We trust now that the Republican papers of this county will show the same disposition to do justice towards Judge Woodward, that we have towards Gov. Curtin. We have proved several of their statements about our candidate to be false. Will they have the manliness to withdraw their untruthful charges, and give the reason for doing so, as we have dene in this case?

Look on this Picture ; Then on That.

Governor Todd, of Ohio, has been authorized to recruit several regiments in that State, paying from $303 to $403 bounty-the former for raw recruits and the latter for veterans. No draft is like ly to take place in Ohio until after the election, which will come off in the second Tuesday of next month.—National Intelligencer, Sept 22d.

It may considered finally settled that there will be no draft in Ohio. The State is deficient eight thousand men only, which number will be readily made up by volunteer enlistments under the ample bounties that the Provost Marshal General is able to offer .- Special Washington Di patches of the N. Y. Times, Sept. 23d.

The only money that came to the hands of the Provost Marshal General, for the payment of bounties, is that which is received from persons drawn as conscripts for exemption from military service. If no draft is had in Ohio, not one single dollar will be collected in that State applicable to the payment of bounties to volunteers there, and the money raised in this State and New York must be used for that purpose, and so we be taxed $2,400,-000 and upwards for the benefit of Ohio.

Rosecrans' Defeat. The Administration claims that the recent battle near Chattanoogo was not so serious a reverse as the first accounts mave color to. Rosecrans is said to be now in a strong position, and reinforcements have been sent to him which, it is alleged, will make his army strong enough to resume the offensive. The Tribun's correspondent, in his account of the battle, figures our loss at 8,000 men, 50 pieces of artillery, and several ammunition and provision trains. Gen. Bragg, in his dispatch to the rebel war department, claims to have taken "7,000 prisoners, of whom 2,000 are wounded. 36 pieces of artiflery, 25 stands of colors and guidons, and over 15,000 small arms." General Lee issued, on the 24th, a congratulatory order to the army of Virginia. on General Bragg's victory.

LETTER FROM MAJOR WOODWARD Another Abolition Lie "Nailed to the Counter."

Judge Woodward's opponents are not content to employ ordinary methods of misrepresentation in their warfare against him. It is base enough to publish garbled extracts from a long speech, and, by suppressing the context, to convey a false notion to his meaning, and it is mean enough to forge recommendations for a candidate, and to bolster up his weakness by bogue certificates from men of character and position; but it was worse for N. B. Browne to claim a long intimacy with Judge Woodward in order to give currency to the slanders, and it was still more infamous for Mr. T. J. Bigham to invent a conversation between Judge Woodward and his son, Major George A. Woodward, such as is spoken of in the letter which we publish below. A better illustration of the utterly unscrupulous character of the assaults upon Judge Woodward could not be had than is given in the slanders of Mr. T. J.

We find it impossible to lay before our eaders the great mass of correspondence that is daily sent to us from every portion of the State in reference to the present canvassa In the heavy pressure on our columns at the present time, we are reluctantly compelled to omit many interesting letters which contain the most cheering intelligence in regard to the prospects of the Democracy. Facts for the People to Ponder. We are indebted to the Pittiburg Post for valuable facts in relation to the National debt, the proportion which will fall upon Pennsylvania, and the heavy taxation which her people will have to pay annually for an incalculable period. We take the facts as we find them set forth in that paper, except in one or two instances, in which we have taken the liberty to correct what we believe to have been slight errors.

We assume that the National debt is that none of our readers will suppose that now, or very soon will amount to the enormous sum of THREE THOUSAND MIL-LIONS OF DOLLARS, of which the proportion chargeable to Pennsylvania will be onesixth, or five hundred . Millions of bol and confessed slanderers, they will not LARS, the annual interest upon which will ON THIRTY MILLIONS OF DOLLARS. In addireturns from the Surgeon General's de-partment, the list of soldiers entitled to pensions amounted to one hundred and sev mty thousand, (170,000.) To this formidable list we feel perfectly safe in adding eighty the Assembly instead of the Prothonotary-thousand (80,000) more, making the whole ship, and we at once expressed our opinion, a report of a mass Convention held at number of pensioners to be provided for two hundred and fifty thousand, (250,000;) and ponse to an inquiry of one Mathew .. as to We assume eight dollars per month to each as a low average. The Post, having examined the documents, finds that the Revenue Board, in 1863, fixed the value of all the property in the State, real and personal, at FIVE HUNDRED AND NINETY-SIX MIL-LIONS. Now, in order to halance the books fairly, we must not forget the State debt, which is, in round numbers, $38,-000,000. Taking then into the calculation the whole debt. State and National, which we have to foot, and the valuation of all the property of the State, as computed by the Revenue Board, and the account wil

Richard Brodhead, I find your favor of the 18th, informing me of a story which Mr. Todd produced at a public meeting, after obtaining it through a channel which is not spe-

NEITHER SECESSION NOR THE MALIGNANT FANATICISM THAT CAUSED IT WILL EVER FIND AN AD VOCATE IN ME.

Trusting that this is a sufficient answer to the calumny you allude to, I remain, dear sir.

Very truly, yours.

Declination of Col. Brown. It will be seen by the following letter, that Cot. H. L. Brown declines the nomination for Assembly, unanimously tendered him by the late Democratic County Convention. We expected this result, and are therefore not at all surprised. Previous to the meeting of the Convention, and directly after his name had been brought forward for some position on the ticket, we called upon several of his most intimate friends, in company with another member of the party, to ascertain the position which Col. Brown occupied on the political topics now agitating the country. We were assured that he still claimed to be a Democrat, that he fully sympathized with the course of the party in this county, and that PHOTOGRAPH GALLERY he had even gone so far as to express a desire to receive the Democratic nomination for Prothonotary. These views were several times reiterated, and we left with the impression that he would gladly accept the Democratic nomination for the office mentioned. On the day of the Convention, when asked by our friends the position of Col. Brown, we frankly related what had been told us, and urged his selection for the place desired by We took no active part i tion to this, we have the fact that on the tions of that body, however, believing that first day of September, according to the as editor of the party organ, it was our duty to obey the wishes of the party, and not to endeavor to control it. It seemed quite plain to us, that he would not be willing to resign au office which realises him an income of probably three thousand dollars a year for one of only seven or eight hundred.

Col. Brown's letter of declination will be found below. Its tenor is not such as we expected, from the assertions of his friends, and his previous reputation, that he would write, but such as it is, we would not be just to our readers, if we did not present it in

Committee of Erie County. DEAR SIR: I learn that I was put in nomination by your convention that assembled in Eric on the 15th inst., as a candidate for the State Legislature. For that unexpected honor I wish to say to you, and through you to the convention and the Democrats of the county, I appreciate their kindness and partiality, yet from the condition of our beloved country and my position in it as a soldier, I am obliged to decline the professed honor. This is no day for dealing in politics, only so far five dollars for each one to pay every year. as to place men in all civil positions, that Let us look at this calmly for a moment will bring to the government the entire strength of the country, both in blood and treasure, until the rebellion is suppressed. For these and other reasons, which I need not at this time mention. I could not accept a party nomination. My Democracy teaches me that my place is on the field, upholding in my humble way the flag of our country. No patriot at this time will recognize any party save the one that unconditionally susains the government in its struggles against traitors. I am, dear Sir, with much respect, Your obedient Servant, H. L. Brown, Ool. 145th Regt. P. V. We find that the Abolitionists are disposed to make extensive political capital out of this letter, but they are welcome to obtain all that they can. The Democratic party has placed itself in the right position before the peopls. Assailed as the enemy of the soldier, t gave the best evidence of the falsity of the charge by placing three of them upon its ticket, and recommending them to the voters of the county for their support. The fact of the non-acceptance of one of them avails nothing so far as the principles of the party are concerned; we have placed ourselves right on the record; the rest we leave for time to vindicate.

Letter from Rainboro.

EDITOR OF THE ORGENVER: I must again obtrude myself upon the kind indulgence of your columns to inform your numerous patrong that the old Jacksonian Democracy of this section still lives, moves and has its being. Our Club wheels are gathering fresh impetus as they carry us along to triumph and victory. Many of the real thinking class of our community who gave their votes Erie County the Post places at $8,503,204, of for Lincoln are wheeling into rank and file, which the yearly interest will be $570,188 20. facing the foe, and declaring their intention to absolve the party ties that have bound as returned to the State Revenue Board, is them to those ruinous and fatal policies that only $5,789,208, so it will be seen that envelope the present Administration like a cloud of darkness.

Our Club, on last Saturday evening, was ably addressed by Mr. Miller, of Lockport, ing to the Democracy to stand firmly in defence of their rights, and to Republicans to forsake their Jalse leaders and to come out boldly, as many of them have done, for Woodward and Constitutional liberty. Let me tell you, dear Observer, these calm appeals to the better jadgment of our voters are having a telling effect here. Old gray-headed men, the young and stalwart, aye and the poor care-worn soldier, recruiting his health for the time in the bosom of his family, are all daily placing their declarations on file that make our disunion Apolition fanatics writhe and squirm like guilty serpents upon the hot embers their own wrath has kindled. To-day there was a grand response of rag, tag and bobtail, to a call for a Republican mass meeting in this place. The turn-out was creditable in point of numbers, but the cause languished. Disappointment set her seal upon the countenances of the disciples of Abraham. Discontent and murmurings pervaded the entire assembly. Applauses were few, feeble and far between. One Republican at my side said to his friend, pointing to the speaker, "is that Richmond from Meadville "" "Yes," feebly respands his friend. Well, I thought better things of him." A Clapp of Espress thunder followed Mr. Richmond, and this only added to the gloom which deepened and spread wider until the audience after getting fairly DeCamped finally dispersed. Another mass meeting of this kind will give Judge Woodward a handsome majority in this section of the county. On Thursday, the 8th of There is not a word of truth in the October, if our Democratic and Republican friends will give us a call, we will endeavor to serve up a different dish of pastry that will savour less of African odor and more congenial to the tastes of white men. The N. Y. Journal of Commerce. We congratulate our readers on the measure of success which has attended our labors, in common with all other advocates of conservative principles. We invite the aid of every reader in the dissemination of the old, sound destribe taught by Washington, followed by the great sack food men who have made our nation illustrious, on which they built, and we must preserve strong, the pillars of the UNION AND CONSTITUTION. We adverate no new doctrines in religion, politics or ocial life. We are known as the carnest defenders of CHRISTIANITY AND CHRISTIAN CIVILIZATION, against every form of attack. We support the govern ment of the United States and the rights and boy REWY OF WER LIMITED STATES AND THE RIGHTS SAD NOVREGIONT OF THE FROPLE OF THE SAVERAL STATES. Universal Clothes Wringer: "A child can readily wring out a tab full of clothes in a few minutes. It is in reality a CLOTHES SAVER! A TIME RAVER! and a STRENGTH SAVER! The saving of garments will alone pay a large per ceutage on its cost. We think the machine much more than "AYS FOR ITBELP EVERY YEAR in the saving of garments! There are several kinds, nearly alike in general construction. ITSELF EVERY YEAR in the saving of garments! There are several kinds, nearly alike in general construction, but we consider it important that the Wringer be fitted with copy, otherwise a mass of garments may clog the rollers, and the rollers upon the crank shaft slip and tear the clothes, or the rubor break loose from the shaft. Our own is one of the first make, and it is as GOOD AS NEW after nearly FOUR YEARS' CONSTANT USE."
