It has sound national Democrat. one who loves he minister. by all the means in his power promote the fraternal and friendly union of all the States, and the poople of all the States, and who is willing, ready and determined to maintain the Constitution and the Union in their is tegrity, against all the assaults of secessivin on the one hand an i of abolition on the other; one who es chews and deter to political abolitionism in all its phases, in all its corruptions, and in all its usurp stions, and who deplores its bitter, bloody, and destructive fruits.

In short a "toopperhe d" is a man who esigns simply to maintain our system of free government as the fathers founded it, as their suf cessors administered it, and is we and pristerity are bound by every motive of inf.erest. patriotism and honor to continue it. He still adheres, as all Democrats adhere, to the good old-fashioned constitutional Union Democracy He knows ; plitically no North, no South, no East, no West, and he opposes whatever he flids to be destructive of that system of free government, whether found at the East, West, North, or South, or if perched q ven in the presidential chair at Washington. In this view I most freely, acknowle dge myself a firm. determined uncomparamising, and if our opponents please, a most inveterate "copperhead." It is so metimes said openly, and often insinuate id, that a "Copperhead" or a Democre it is in favor of secession. is in favor of the rebellion, is in favor of a dis solution of the Union is in favor of mobs. mobilat , and mob violence; in favor of the def at of the Union armies and of the disgree of the Union flag ; that he'is opposed to enlistments, opposed to neces sary faxation, opposed to raising necessary a rmies, opposed to the government. and epposed to all proper means and agencies by which the Union and the governament can be maintained. These are de lumpice-all calumnies-deliberate

Units of States under all circumstances. and, indeed, it is the very object and mo ive of Democratic action at the present line to maintain the government against all who would destroy it, whether North or Shuth ; and at the same time, a Democn &, or "Copperhead." if you please, will oppipae, with his induence, voice, and vota, whatever policy he may regard as up wise, that may be pursized by the sdministrators of the government for the tipas being, and whatever action on their pert , which he may regard as unconsti u tional, unwise or illegal. A Democrat re gards and will continue to regard the enstitution and framework of the govroment as one thing which is to be mainained at all hazards, at whatever cost and by any sacrifices ; and at the same time he regards and will continue to regard the present administiators of the government, that is to say, Abraham Linrols and his rabinet officers, and his and, their subordinates and just suments, as a very different thing, to be oppored at pleasure, to be resisted where they over brothers in the Union army, and the othstep the law of the land, and to be ex-pelled from office and power at the first she had. Both enlisted in the Union aropportunity.

A Democrat, or "Copperhead," if you please, is in favor of an honorable peace, his appearance in Grant's Creek Church, has a complete restaration of the and I hope it will be the last time.-Cor. Union, under the Constitution, as it was framed and handed down to as by the fathers; and to this end he would make the enemy feel the weight, the louses and the distresses of military movements, and the pains and penalties of a state, of civil way, while he would hold out the assurance that constitutional protection of in-dividual and political rights should follow the restoration of the Union and the reuni of an honorable perce. In lother words, a Democrat would threw mail a all blowing his nose. "What did you do ?" sternly demanded

ntirely, and stood weeping, wailing and seat like the mighty oak before the tor- gathering upon her ewe't face. nado Descon Goodfellow arose and astonished the audience still more by saying: "Brothers and sisters, you have heard what brother Brown has said, and now he wants our forgiveness. For my part, I think brother Brown is penicent, and I am willing to forgive him with my whole heart. And, brothers and sisters. I will add still farther, that, if I had no wife, and a pretty girl like Nancy Sterus should come to my room, and lean over my Led, and lean over me, I'd kiss her and abide the consequen. des."

THE DEVIL IN THE MEETING. HOUSE.

At Grant's Creek Church, Switzerland a serious difficulty took place just as our wrote to Geo, Roberts a letter asking him minister closed his eleven o'clock services. A Miss Johnson came, there with the determination to clean out the Butternuts. She stepped up to Miss Ann Louis, grabbed off her butternut breast-pin, then now high in office and the confidential stepped up to Mias Jane French, tore off breast-p'n with two rings on the cord that she wore her breast pin on. She kept McClellan with professions of personal re-the rings but threw the breast pin back gard, so as thereby to cheat his political at her. This was done in the meeting house. Miss Johnson made her boast that evening meeting, which was at four o'clock breast-pin and missed it. Miss Walick

Johnson's honnet up, tore her dress in everal places and took several hand's full of hair out of het head. Muss Johnson saw she could not stand long that way.-She took up a stick of stove wood and struck Miss Walick's mother across the arm when she was trying to part them. When little Melason saw that, she took up a stove stick and belted Miss Johnson over the head three times, I think, which weakened her down considerably; and would-between her and her little sisterhave beaten Miss Johnson to death in a short time if some of the gentlemen had not parted them. This is the second time firs Walick has been attacked by the Abolitionists, but came off victorious both times. If all the Democratic men were as brave as our httle Meiason Walick, the Abolish would have been whipped out some time ago, and the Union would have been restored. I am well acquainted with those three Democratic ladies. They are as fine girls as Switzerland county can produce. Miss Ann Louis has lost one of her my for three years. This is the first time the Davil has made

GENERAL MCCLELLAN AND THE Stony Point, July 15. 1779, PENNSYLVANIA ELECTION.

Pennsylvania's devotion to Goneral Mc-Clellan was used against Judge Woodward with unscrupulous zeal. The Republican newspapers throughout the State copied the lies which were coined in Forney' Press, and represented Gen. McClellan everywhere as favoring the election of

AN UNLUCKY STREET.

A poor boy wanted to get on the char ity list of a famous school at E----. "You must make application soon." said his mother. "Oh, yes, by and by," answered the boy. "You had better write to day, said his mother. "Not now; by and by," said the boy. By and by he wrote. Then it was too fate; the list of applicants was full.

A rich doctor wanted a boy to curry his horse and attend school. "Offer your services," said the mother. "Ou, yes, by and by," said the boy "Go to night." prayed his mother. "By and by," said the boy. The next morning he went, but another boy had "engaged the place the evening before.

A great merchant was fitting out a ship. "You had better apply for a boy's birth," again urged the mother. "On yes," answered the boy, "by and by," Nowpor you muy fail," said the mother. "Jime enough by and by ; the keel is not in the sex," said the boy. When the keel was in the sea the boy asked for a birth. Hands are all shipped,"was the coply.
