Political Cossip.

-A cotemporary thinks the negro is rising in the scale of "Uncle Abraham's" mind. He styled them in 1859 the negroes, in 1860 the colored men, in 1861 the contraband, and in 1862 free Americans of African descent.

R. I. PATRIOTISM .- In Little Compton, R. I., which votes black 3 to 1, thirty-four men were drafted, and not one bas gone? In Bristol, R. GEN. JACKSON .-- When the movement was made in Congress to refund Gen. Jackson's fine, the old patriot, then in retirement at the Hermitage, wrute to a Senator a letter on the subject, in which he said : "I would be the last man on earth to do any act that would invalidate the principle that THE MILITARY SHOULD ALWAYS BE SUBJECT TO THE CIVIL POWER."

-Mr. Brewster, of Philadelphia, gives as reason for turning traitor, and going over o the Black Republicans, that he "stands by his section." That is just what has divided the Union, and brought on this horrid war; standing by a section. We stand by no section but by our whole country. Where the South is wrong, we condemn it; where the North is wrong, we seek to correct it. All sectionalism is fatal to the unity and peace of the whele country.

-An Ohio Abolition stumper; while making speech, paused in the midst of it, and exclaimed, "Now, gentlemen, what do you think "" Instantly a man rose in the assembly, and, with one eye partially closed, modeatly replied, "I think, sir, I do, indeed, sir,think if you and I should stump the country ogether we would tell more lies than any other two men in the country, sir, and I'd not say a word during the whole time, sir."

A Correguear. - President Lincola said in his inaugural: "Happily the human mind is so constituted that no party can reach the andacity of denying any right plainly written in the Constitution. If by any mere force of numbers, a majority should deprive a minority of any clearly written constitutional right; it might in a moral point of view justify revo-

It is quite evident that President Lincoln the continued to hold the same doctrines now, would be classed by his own friends as a copperhead.

SUPERNATURAL CIRCUMSTANCE. -- An exchange says: "While the Abolition orators were in full blast in Union Square, a strange and awful circumstance occurred, causing the hearts of the old and the heads of the young to blanch with terror. Just as one of the speakers paused, after having put the question as to whether any person present could say 'Nay' to the sentiments uttered by him, a sonorous and startling NAY was uttered by the Washington horse, at the south-eastern corner of the Square. There was a dead silence for equal to the majority of country weeklies, some minutes. Brouze took the shine out of brass for once."

FILLADRIVITIA, August 23d, 1862.

Messre. Jesse & Espas — Weil gentlemen, your Hoof-iand's German Bitters has saved my life. There is no mistake in this, it is wonched for by numbers of my comirades, some of whose names are appanded, and who were fully cognizant of all the circumstances of my case. I am, and have been for the last four years, a member of Sherman's celebrated battery, and under the immediate command of Captain R. B. Ayres. Through the exposure attendant upon my arinous duties, I was attacked in November last with inflammation of the lungs, and was for seventy-two days in the hospit. I. This was foilowed by great debility, heightened by an attacked dysolwed in the city on bourd the Ste, mer "state of Maine," from which I landed on the 23th of June. Since that dime I have been about as low at any one could be and attill retain a sput of vitality. For a week or more I was scarcely able to swallow anything, and if I life force-a more I down, it was immediately thrown up again.

I could not even keep a glass of water on my stomach, infecould not last under these circumstances; and accordingly the physicians who had been working faithfully, though unsuccessfully, to reacue me from the craw of the dread Archer. Franky told my that they illife could not last under these circumstances; and accordingly the physicians who had been working faithfully, though unancessfully, to rescue me from the gram of the dread Archer, frankly told me that they could do no more for me and advised me to see a ciergy-man, and to make such disposition of my limited funds as bestsuited me. An acquaintance who visited me at the hospital Mr. Frederick Steinpron, of Sixth below Arch Street, advised me, as a forlorn hope, to try your Bitters, and kindly procured a bottle. From the time I commenced taking them the gloomy shadow of death receded, and I am now, thank too for it, getting better. Though I have taken but two bottles, have gated ton pounds, and I feel sanguine of be ng pennitted to rejoin my wife and daughter, from whom I have heard nothing for eighteen months; for, geatsmen, I am a leyst lybe ginken, from the vicinity of Front Royal. To your invaluable Bitters I owe the certainty of fife which has taken the place of range fears—to your litters will so we the glorious privilege of again classing to my bosom those who are dearest to use in life.

Yery truly yours.
