

Campaign Subscribers.

The period for which most of our campaign subscribers will expire in a week or so, and the papers will be promptly discontinued, according to promise, unless we receive directions. We shall be glad to have as many subscribers as can be secured, to remain on our list as permanent subscribers.

THURSDAY NIGHT.—Gov. Cullen has announced the 26th of November as a day of fasting throughout the State, the day having been fixed the same day, it is believed to be very generally observed.

OUR GROWN.—The spots of Pennsylvania, after the late proclamation of the President, have been announced as 200,000 in 1883, and the population, the State's total, has increased, therefore, to 700,000, which would be added to the population of the State.

THE CRIMINAL COURT.—The Criminal Court has been in session during the present week, Judge John A. McLaughlin presiding. We are obliged to postpone a report of the proceedings until next week. The case of Peter Carr, charged with committing a murder upon the body of a woman, was tried on Thursday last.

DISTRICT ATTORNEY.—The District Attorney, J. J. McLaughlin, has been appointed to the duties of his office on Monday next. He is a native of this State, and has been one of the most efficient officers we have ever had. He is a native of this State, and has been one of the most efficient officers we have ever had.

Johnson we have no doubt he would make a fair and able presiding officer.

On Thursday night, the 16th inst., the house of Mr. E. M. Wheeler, of Riceville, in this county, was entered by some unknown person, and fourteen hundred dollars in gold abstracted therefrom. Mr. Wheeler takes his money very seriously, and he has determined to make it up by redoubled application to business. We hope that the guilty will be detected out and brought to punishment.

On Friday morning last, about one o'clock, a female, apparently six or eight weeks old, was left at the door of Mr. John Wheeler, residing in a half North of this place. Mr. Wheeler was awakened from sleep by a loud rap at the door. His son, sleeping in another room, also heard the rapping, and inquired who was there; but received no answer. In the course of a minute or two, the crying of a babe was heard, when Mr. Wheeler went to the door, and found the child well handled up. He says it is a healthy, beautiful, plump little female, and that its hearties and unusual parents were at that time themselves that the child will receive ample, else than kindness at the hands of its family.

FATAL ACCIDENT ON THE LACKAWANNA RIVER.—A young man named George Phillips, a brakeman employed on the Buffalo and Erie Railroad, shipped from one of the cars of the road, on the road, near Hamburg, yesterday morning, and was run over by the engine of the Erie Railroad, which was then on the road. The unfortunate man was not only killed, and his body fearfully mangled, but a female, who was with him, was also killed. He was an industrious man, and a general favorite on the road. His death is sincerely mourned by those who knew him.

Hon. J. Edgar Thompson, President of the Pennsylvania R. R. Co., is now in New York, and will in a few days embark for Russia to fulfill the appointment tendered him by the Russian Government, through their Minister at Washington, Baron de Block.

The position is similar in its character to the one he now holds on the Pennsylvania Railroad, although designated by a different name. Hon. Thompson is the acting President of the company during Mr. Thompson's absence.

The long article in another column, headed "The Fall of Rosecrans," is from the Washington Chronicle, the central organ of the Administration, owned and partly edited by the editor of the Gazette's "Intimate friend from boyhood," John W. Furness, Col. Trustad, whose conduct is given such conspicuous notice, was formerly a resident of this city, and is known to many of our readers.

The editor of the Observer accuses us of "slandering" it. It is better to be gifted with double sight than with no sight at all. Danforth.

The Dispatch's wit is most astonishing. Such talents must not go without an appropriate reward. The committee on leather medals will please present one to the local of the Dispatch immediately.

The Dispatch persists in demanding a police force, and gives the Councils a deserved scolding for not meeting the wishes of community in this respect. We are glad that we can agree with our neighbor in one thing at least, and we heartily unite with it in asking that this subject be no longer neglected. The people are unanimous in favor of the police.

"What's your eye, Joe?" "I told a man he lied," replied Joe.

Nearly a hundred thousand majority in Ohio go for the war. But how many of them will go to the war?—Pratt.

Mr. Beckwith, of Hartford, has declined an offer of $12,000 for his trotting horse "Prince."

Swearers. Maintain your dignity—valgrity despise! To swear is neither brave, polite nor wise.

"If I hadn't got it!" The last seen of the individual who made this remark a year ago, he was found to be a dead man.

A. P. Shaw, the well-known dry goods merchant of New York, has paid into the National Treasury the sum of $245,000 as his income tax for the present year.

James complained of a bad smell about the Post Office, and asked Brown what it could be. Brown didn't know, but suggested that it might be caused by the "dead letters."

Contradiction.—Mrs. "Tom Thumb" is not what her friends confidently expected. "Nor is Mr. Thumb what his friends confidently expected," says the Boston Post.

A doctor gave the following prescription for a sick lady: "A new bonnet, a cashmere shawl and a pair of gaiter boots." The lady recovered immediately.

An English judge being asked what constituted most to success at the bar, replied, some success by great talent, some by a miracle, but the majority by commencing without a shilling.

"As diamond polishes diamond," says a German writer, "so man is formed by man."

And we may add, as diamond cuts diamond, so man is formed by man.

Kossuth lives near Turin, poor man, and his wife in conversation. Garibaldi is on his island farm at Capri, lame but cheerful, with an income of $500.

A Congregational clergyman in Georgia, Va., has been ordered out the town for repeatedly kicking and whipping his young wife, stopping her letters, locking up her clothes, and such like shameful abuses.

Rosecrans is said to have epileptic fits. Yes, everything is the matter with Rosecrans. The hero of yesterday is triendless today.

A Good Fortune. A Greek maid being asked what fortune she would bring her husband, replied: "I will bring him what good cannot purchase—a heart unspotted, and virtuous without a stain."

Impertinence often passes for wit among the vulgar. A rural editor, having published a long leader on "hogs," a rival paper braided him for braiding his family matters upon the public.

Mark You're.—Dr. Franklin said, "A good kick does more to better than all the rich uncles in the world." A young man left to his own exertions, driven out to stem the tide of fortune, will rise to an eminence to which allience and luxury cannot elevate him.

Small Currency.—The total amount of small currency first issued in five, ten, twenty-five and fifty cents was twenty millions one hundred and ninety-two thousand four hundred and fifty-five dollars' worth. Of this amount, there was outstanding a few days ago $17,452,000.

The Louisville Journal complains bitterly of guerrilla ravages in that State, and says applications have been repeatedly and urgently pressed upon the proper authorities for horses, arms and equipments, but the Government has not as yet commenced to supply them.

The Washington correspondent of the Republican says: "Some of the West End people are in high glee over the indications that the coming winter will be an unusually gay one. Mr. Lincoln, it is said, will not go into it with spirit, removing the shadow of mourning from the White House household, and plunge into several dress receptions as the season opens and goes."

The New Orleans Picayune draws a deplorable picture of the condition of affairs in that city. Trade and commerce are stagnant, the people are impoverished, industrial employments are precarious, and a necessity is felt that something must be done to avert the intense suffering which threatens in the coming winter.

should supply him with a newspaper. I well remember that a marked difference there was between those of my schoolmates who had and those who had not access to newspapers. Other things being equal, the first were always superior to the last in habits, composition, and in general intelligence.

A fashionably dressed lady entered a car on the Hudson River railroad a few evenings since, and after standing for some minutes, a young gentleman rose and gave her his seat. She made no acknowledgment of this act of courtesy. The car stopped at an upper station on the river, and the lady was about to leave the car, when a quiet old Dutch gentleman called to her, "Madame, you have forgotten something." "What, sir?" said the lady. "Why, your seat to thank the young man for your seat."

On a clock.—A gentleman popping his head through a sailor's shop window, exclaimed, "What time is it by your lapboard?" Upon which the tailor lifted up his lap board and struck him on the head, answering, "It's about a week or so."

The above is ancient, but it redeems the joke a little by giving the reply of the "gentleman" when he picked himself up, which was, that he was "glad it wasn't any later."—N. H. Journal.

Contract for Removing the Dead.—The contract for disintering the bodies on the Gettysburg battle-field and at the surrounding hospitals, and again interring them in the Soldiers' National Cemetery, has been awarded to John Hoke and Franklin Biessemer, at $1.69 per body. The work is to be commenced immediately, the cemetery grounds having been appropriately laid out for the purpose.
