The talented young lady we have just named has of course received, as well as given, a good many sharp thrusts since she entered the arena of politics...

"We have had a most excellent opinion of Miss Anna Dickinson, the spirited little public speaker. But we are assured that she checked and pocketed the excellent sum of $600 for lecturing twice for the benefit of the sick and wounded soldiers..."

"Oh, Anna, Anna! why don't you give your services for the benefit of our brave soldiers for two or three months? By the way, Western ladies did for two whole weeks; why have you thus dashed our admiration of you, by engaging in a money speculation at the expense of this patriotic charity?"

"We observe from a report in the Chicago papers, that the total sum realized from the lectures was $1,000. Of this $400, according to the Journal's statement, went to the soldiers, and the remaining $600 to Miss Dickinson."

"Read the following, from one of the leading medical journals of the country: 'Six.—You have by this time, in all probability, heard something of an extraordinary discovery for the cure of small-pox, by the use of 'Barroscia Purpurea,' or Indian cup, a native plant of Nova Scotia...'"
