Prof. C. Newton Brown, M. D. Editor of the Eclectic Medical Review of Philadelphia, Knowledge

Although not desiring to write a recommendation of Patent Medicines in general, through fear of their ingredients and effects, I feel that I am justified in giving a few remarks in a manner not testifying to be such as have been made, I have received from [illegible] preparations, and hope that the way the following testimonials are written.

I do this the more readily as regards Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. Jackson, of Philadelphia, because I was prejudiced against them, from the name, under the impression that they were only an ordinary mixture. I am indebted to Mr. Richard Shoemaker, Esq., for the removal of this prejudice, a proper test and for encouragement to try them, and by following that great and long continued direction. The good they have done in the case of these Bitters, at the time of writing, I [illegible] was followed by [illegible] and [illegible] progress of bodily and mental vigor which I have made in the six months before, and have every reason to expect, therefore thank God and Mr. Jackson for directing me to the use of them.

PHILADA., June 23, 1859. J. NEWTON BROWN.

PARTICULAR NOTICE.

There are many preparations of Hoofland's German Bitters, but up in quart bottles, which are an imposition and a fraud upon the sick and suffering. Hoofland's German Bitters is prepared expressly for medicine, and is entirely different from all other preparations of the kind, and is the only one that should be used in any case of sickness or debility, as a trial will convince the most skeptical of its superior excellence in curing all diseases for which it is recommended.

Attention, Soldiers, and Friends of Soldiers.

We call the attention of all having friends in the army, to the fact that Hoofland's German Bitters will cure more cases of Diarrhœa and Dysentery and [illegible] than any other medicine in use. Recent, published almost daily, of cases of severe attacks of the above diseases, after the most eminent physicians had given them up to die, and they, in despair, had commenced using Hoofland's German Bitters, and were entirely cured by a few bottles. Every case of that kind can be readily cured by the use of Hoofland's German Bitters. Diseases resulting from disorders of the digestive organs are speedily removed by this valuable medicine. In stating this, it gives us pleasure to say that many of our soldiers, who were supposed to have fallen victims to that fearful disease, Chronic Diarrhœa, are now alive and well, through the use of Hoofland's German Bitters, when all other remedies had failed.

We call particular attention to the following remarkable and well authenticated case, one of the nation's heroes, whose life, to use his own language, was by us saved by the Bitters:

PHILADELPHIA, August 23d 1861.

Messrs. Jones & Evans — Dear Sirs: I consider it my duty to inform you that Hoofland's German Bitters has saved my life. There is no mistake in this. It is your duty to [illegible] my comrades, some of whose names are appended, and who were fully cognizant of all the circumstances in my case. I am, and have been for the last four years a member of Sherman's celebrated Battery, and under the late date of November last with inflammation of the lungs, and was for seventy-two days in the hospital. This was followed by great debility, he gained [illegible] attack of dysentery. I was then removed from the White House, and sent to this city on board the transport State of Maine, from which I landed on the 26th of June, since that time I have been about as low as any one could be and still retain a spark of vitality. For a week or more I was scarcely able to swallow an ounce and I do not exaggerate a morsel down, it was immediately thrown up again.

I could not even keep a glass of water on my stomach. Life ebbing fast under these circumstances, and according to the physicians [illegible] working faithfully, though [illegible] rescue me from the grasp of the dread Arcaer, hands told me that they could do no more for me and advised me to see some physician and to make such disposition of my [illegible] as I [illegible] Accordingly visited the hospital Mr. Frederick Brown, of Sixth below Arch Street, advised me, as a friend to hope, to try your Bitters, and I did procure a bottle. From the time I commenced taking them the gloomy shadow of death receded, and I am now, thank God, a living being before. Though I have taken but two bottles, I have gained ten pounds, and I feel sanguine of being benefitted to rejoin my wife and daughter, from whom I have heard nothing for eighteen months; for, gentlemen, I am a loyal Virginian, from the vicinity of Fredericksburg. To your invaluable Bitters I owe the continuity of life which has taken the place of my former debility, and I feel confident will [illegible] the glorious privilege of again [illegible] to my bosom those who are dear to me I [illegible].

Very truly yours, ISAAC MALONE.

We fully concur in the truth of the above statement, as we had despaired of seeing our comrade, Mr. Malone, restored to health:

JOHN CONNERAGE, 1st New York Battery. GEORGE A. ASHLEY, Co. G, 11th Maine. [illegible] the TAILOR, 924 New York. C. E. SPENCER, 1st Artillery, Battery K. J. B. FARNWELL, Co. [illegible] 2d Regiment. It Cures CATARRH and Averts Consumption.

It Cures CATARRH and Restores the Lost Sight.

It Cures CATARRH and Saves the Sense of Smell.

It Cures CATARRH and Pain in the Temples.

It penetrates to the very seat of this terrible disease, and exterminates it, root and branch, forever. Dr. Goodale is the first and only person who ever told the world what actually really was—where it commenced—and who would cure it.

Over thirty years ago Dr. Goodale boldly struck out from the fallacious track and modes of treatment of this loath some malady as laid down in Wistar's Medical Works, and teachings to discovers a true cause and locality and to devise a permanent cure for it. For years he has crowded his offices and he has now spent a lifetime in the study of this disease, exposing its secret mischief and making known to the world the fact that Catarrh which has eluded the skill and research of medical men and authors of this country and in Europe, can now be cured, with the same uniform certainty that morning follows night. Thousands who have tried every known means of cure in vain, have been permanently cured by Dr. Goodale's Catarrh Remedy, and now raise it to the highest encomiums of delight.

PREVENTION IS BETTER THAN CURE.

TO Ladies of delicate health or impaired organization, or to those by whom an increase of family is from any reason objectionable, the undersigned would offer a prescription which is perfectly reliable and safe, and which has been prescribed in various parts of the old world for the past century. Although the article is very cheap and simple, yet it has been put up in half pint bottles and sold very extensively at the exhorbitant price of $5 per bottle, the object being to increase the profits of the Proprietor. This will be forwarded to any lady who wishes it, for the small sum of $1, by the possession of which every lady can supply herself with a perfect safeguard, at any drug store, for the trifling sum of 25 cents per year. Any physician or druggist will tell you it is perfectly harmless, and thousands of testimonials can be produced of its efficacy. Sent to any part of the world on receipt of $1, by addressing

Dr. J. C. DEVERAUX,
P. H. Box, No. 2553, New Haven, Conn.
