The Slavery Question and the Democratic Party.

The Republican papers and orators are in the habit of saying that the Democratic party is a pro-slavery one...

That this is the true doctrine of the Northern Democracy is susceptible of the most convincing proof. The platform of the Democratic National Convention of 1840 contained this resolution:

Resolved, That Congress has no power, under the Constitution, to interfere with or control the domestic institutions of the several States...

Resolved, That Congress has no power to interfere in the Emancipation of slaves, or in the treatment of them in any of the States...

Having established beyond cavil that the Democratic party are constitutional non-interventionists on the subject of slavery, we now proceed to show that Northern Democrats are in their own States (where alone they have a right to act on the subject) anti-slavery men.
