- The Vote of Erie County. The election all over this county was conducted in a remarkably orderly manner, and, as a general thing, to the squisfaction of both parties. The vote is the largest over polled, and although the Republican majoriles are enlarged thereby, it will be seen that the in- make political capital out of the recent shootcrease shows the largest comparative gains for the Democrats. BREAT ENGLISH REMEDY. File Brie AUceklu Oligoriter have indulged in this peculiarity in the past, with a liberality of which they are perhaps ashamed now; and we announce their repentauce with unalloyed pleasure. There has scarcely been an issue of their respective jour.

Dals which has not contained some libellous, tory had taken a dislike, and the wholesale nunner in which they have endeavoired to heap fidium upon their political opponents, classitving them as traitors and sympathisers with creason, is familiar to their readers. If, in the enthusiasm of their reformation, they have resolved on a generous and manly course for the future, instead of that violent spirit of personal and partizan opposition that has been exhibited in the past, the community will have reason to congratulate itself on the change, and the editors will undoubtedly feel a satisfaction of heart that they cannot have possensed while engrged in the mischievens work of sowing had feeling between citizens interested in common in the perpetuation of their national credit and prosperity. The Observer. we assure them, will not allow itself to be surpressed in courtcous and dignified manage ment by either of them Those who know us. we think, will not fail to undord the publishers of this paper quite as much of a disposition to be fair and gentlemialy in the minner of conducting its columna, as those of any jour nal in the country, and if we have ever varied from that policy, it his been solely dur, in the case of individuals, to unprovoked assaults upin ourselves, and in the case of our colem poraries, to what we regard as intomperate und'unj ist partizin rangor, such as whe never b-fire seen in the history of American politioal disputes.

The Clearfield Tragedy.

The Gazette of last week contained the following paragraphs in relation to the recent shooting of the Provost Marshal in Clearfield õojinty :

"In the fact that conscripts in Clearfield county, to the number of upwards of one hundred, have organized to resist the draft, we have a legitimate result of the teachings of Copperhead politicians like William Bigler. In obedience to a requisition from Provost Marshal Camphell, five hundred soldiers have been sent to that county for the purpose of suppressing the insurrigion and enforcing the law, and we presume it will be effectually done. "Since putting the above in type, we learn | under command of Lieut. Com. Collins, of this that Lieut. Col. Butler, Deputy Provost Marshal, was shot in Clearfield county, on Monday, while altempting to arrest a deserter." The following letter, received too late for publication last week, is the best answer that can be made to the above scurrilous article. The writer is a gentleman well known in this county, particularly in Venango township, where he was raised, and where his relatives now reside : Bidgwar, Nov. 8, 1864. Dear Sir : As the Republican press, as well as Republican individuals, are endeavoring to ing of the Deputy Provost Marshal, Colonel Butler, in Clearfield county, I deem it my duty

Joseph Lounsbury is the name of the man who committed the deed. He has been twice drafted. Once before he fired at Capt. Keirnan. Deputy Provost Marshal, when attempting to arrest him. In consequence of this offence he was threatened with the severest pensities when taken, and his friends on making intercession for him were told that his case was of such an aggravated character that he could expect no mercy at the hands of a court martial, and would probably be shot if taken. Knowing this, his contest with the city, that in the event of McCiellan's election. 20 Provost Marshal was, in his view, a fight for and within fifteen days thereafter, the mayor

"About Personalities."

The Gazette, Corry Express and Diepatch join. in a chorus of abase of the Observer for its article in reply to the speech of John He Walk er, in Wayne Hall, on Smurday evening. October 20th. They all pretend to be horrifiel at the idea of our attacking a man of Mr. atory personal allusions in the columns of a newspaper. A few words will serve to dispose papers mentioned, but we have still to learn that gray hairs afford unlimited license to be a common sold and slanderer. Mr. Walker's character is notorious all over North Western Pennsylvania on this subject, and will not be denied by any candid person of ember party. He is one of the most vindistive and ungenerpassions and prejudices, we do not see why his party associates should claim exemption for him from the usual the ment of those who delight in traducing their fellow citizens.

We are happy to know that our cotemporaries have recently imbibed some notions on the subject of conducting a sublia pross which give token of pleasanter relations hereafter. It may appear somewhat inconsistent to many that papers which have assailed with such incessant and furious hatred the venerable ex-President, Mr. Bachanan, should have the assurance to talk about the respect due to "allvered locks," but ws gisdly hail the fact as an indication of improved manuers in the future, and trust that we shall not be mista-
