REMARKABLE CHINA WARE .- An oil millionaire, out of gratitude to the source whence his wealth was derived, and with a desire to keep it before his mind, has had a complete set of table equipage made in Philadelphia, of china and glass. The embellishments of the plates, dishes and tureen are fac similes of the apparatus used in producing petroleum. The dishes bear on the centre beautiful vignette views, representing wells in process of boring, with the derricks over the orifice. The tureens are similarly adorned, while each escriptive and illustrative of the process of harvesting petroleum. The entire set s of the most costly character. The china s the finest and best imported, and the lecorations are in the highest style of the lecorator's art. The Messre, Kerr were instructed to spare no pains in executing them, and they acted ascordingly. The dican tars, wing gobints and fumblers are like engraved with the insignia of petro-
