The Erie Weekly Observer.

ERIE, PA., MARCH 9th, 1865.

The Councils of this city, on Monday evening, adopted a resolution to pay $500 to persons who go as volunteers on the credit of the city, and another, asking the Legislature to pass an act permitting them to pay each drafted man who enters the service, or procures a substitute, the sum of $500. It is said, that while the State law provides for paying bounties to volunteers, it makes no provisions for relieving conscripts. A committee is to be sent to Harrisburg to urge our Senator and Representatives to procure the passage of the proposed law, and as the petition in its favor has been signed by many of our heaviest tax-payers, we presume they will not hesitate to push the measure through with all proper haste.

We must say, however, that we have little belief that the members of the Councils who have persistently opposed the bounty system heretofore, really intend to carry out the spirit of their resolution in an honest manner. If they are sincere in their intentions now, why did they postpone action at the time when bounties could probably have saved us from a draft altogether? The resolution of Monday night was passed under the influence of an excited public opinion, and, with the probable intention of evading its purposes by some future course of action. We shall be happy to find that our surmises on the question are unfounded, and meantime suggest that, unless they are willing to be cheated, it will be well for our drafted citizens to keep a close watch on certain non liable members of the Councils. Whatever the motives that induced its passage, it must be admitted on all hands, that the tardy action of the Council looks much like the old idea of "locking the door after the horse is stolen."

AN OIL PRINCE.—Everybody in this part of the country has heard of "Johnny" Steele, the young man who is reputed to have more money than he knows what to do with.—The stories that are afloat of his eccentricities exceed in number and astonishment any that can be read in the Arabian Nights. We meet with the following, which is supposed to refer to Johnny, in the New York Day Book:

"An oil prince, arrived in the city, and putting up at the Fifth Avenue Hotel, determined to see the sights. He ordered a coach, and his first experience was in Central Park. His drive was so much prolonged, that his coachman had grave doubts as to whether he would receive pay for his services. His suspicions being aroused, he intimated to the gentleman that a little payment, on account, would not be unacceptable. The hint was promptly taken, and the coachman was somewhat surprised when asked what his establishment was worth. His valuation was, of course, up to a high mark, but this made no difference. The petroleum gentleman, with the most perfect coolness, put his hand in his pocket and drew out the required amount in greenbacks and closed the bargain. While he remained in the city he sported his own establishment, and on his departure made a present of it to his driver."

BENNETT HOUSE, UNION.—A well kept country hotel is rather the exception than the rule in this part of Pennsylvania, and when we do meet with one, we feel it a sort of duty incumbent upon us to communicate the fact to our readers. The Hyde House, at Ridgway, and Robert Leslie's Eagle Hotel, at Waterford, have always been among the favorites in our catalogue, and to these we now take pleasure in adding the well known Bennett House, at Union. This establishment had lately fallen into the charge of Mr W O Soverance, who promises to build up for it a reputation and prosperity exceeded by very few in this section. The good name Mr. S. has already succeeded in obtaining for this hotel, shows that he is not one of the many who "have mistaken their calling." Persons stopping at Union will not fail to get superior board and lodging, and clever treatment at the Bennett House.

Justice of the Peace in the East Ward.

MR EDITOR: It is not generally known to your readers, perhaps, that a Justice of the Peace is to be elected in the East Ward, on the 17th inst. This office is one of much importance anywhere, but especially in this city, where the justices perform the duties which fall on Aldermen in most cities. I am pleased to learn that F. P Liebel, Esq., has been induced to become a candidate for the position. He is well known to many of our citizens, as a young man of intelligence and strict integrity, who would fill the office with general satisfaction. I have known Mr Liebel for a long time, and can frankly say, that for enterprise, liberality, and all those qualities that attach men to one another, he has few superiors. He is a fair specimen of our go-ahead, industrious and rising German citizens, and deserving of encouragement. If the people of the East Ward elect him, I know they will have no cause to regret the choice.

A FRIEND.

The list of conscripts in this county, occupies a large share of our room to-day, and will be perused with mournful interest. It is mainly copied from the daily Dispatch, to which paper it was sent by telegraph from Ridgway. The only place in the county that filled its quota, and escaped the draft, was Girard borough. The citizens of that town were determined that no conscription should be made from their community, and learning that two men were needed to fill their quota, despatched them on Saturday night to Ridgway in a sleigh, which place they reached on Monday morning, just "in the nick of time" to avoid the draft.

The Mallory and Haverley Minstrels, who exhibit in Farrar Hall, on Friday evening, claim to be superior to the ordinary run of Negro imitators traveling about the country. Extracts, that we have been shown from our exchanges, universally speak of them in terms of rare compliment. The following appeared in a Sandusky paper, after their concert in that city:

MALLORY'S MINSTRELS.—This troupe gave one of their inimitable performances at Norman Hall last night to a crowded house, who were really delighted that something original in Negro minstrelsy had at last been brought behind the footlights.

Jurors drawn for the court announced to be held on next Monday, are officially notified that they need not attend, as there will be no jury trials at the term. Law business in this section, owing to the abundance of currency, is pretty well "played out."

The annual yearly local elections in this county will be held on Friday, the 17th inst. We hope, in every section, to see the best men selected for the various official positions, without regard to their party proclivities.

A very destructive fire occurred in Waterford, on Sunday morning last, burning a number of buildings, and causing a loss of about $12,000, on which there was only a small insurance.

Persons desiring to invest in real estate, will find it of advantage to read the advertisement of Drs. Wilson and Faulkner. They have a number of farms to sell, the majority of which are well improved.

Carter's Compound Extract of Smart Weed.

NORTH JAVA, N. Y.

For sixteen years I was sorely distressed with the Asthma. A great portion of the time I was unable to work, and frequently for weeks at a time. I could obtain sleep only by sitting up in a chair, being unable to breathe in a lying posture. In my long search after relief, I, of course, tried many medicines, but all to little or no purpose, until I used Carter's Compound Extract of Smart Weed. This met my case at once, and the very great relief I have experienced by using it convinces me that it is no more than my duty to make the fact public, that others now suffering as I used to suffer, may know where and how I obtained relief. I have also used the same preparation as a Liniment and in Colds with great satisfaction, and consider it a very useful article and one that every family would do well to keep by them.

March 8, 1865. ALFORD EDDY.

Mercutio said of his wound,
"It was not as deep as a well, nor as wide
As a gate, but it would do."
Plantation Bitters will not raise the dead,
But they cure the sick, exalt the depressed,
Add a rose tint charm to the social circle,
And render life a thing to be enjoyed.
Also, the thing itself is quite enjoyable.
Never was searching Tonic in such pleasant shape.
Tender youth, declining age, the mind
O'erwrought by mental care, most gentle females,
And the wreck of men, all find these Bitters
The balm of life and source of health.
Delay not a trial. Conveniently deposited
In every town wherever civilization extends,
It can be obtained, true, genuine and pure.

J. G. KURTZ, editor of the Bellefonte Central Press, is sick of his political associates. Hear how he talks:

"We are heartily disgusted with the business of publishing a party newspaper in Centre county.

"We have exhausted our means for the welfare and success of the Republican party; have spent time, money and labor for unscrupulous, ambitious, rotten-hearted politicians, who respect their pledged word with no more consideration than the swine would the pearls before them."

A NEW IDEA.—An exchange suggests that some enterprising fellow publish a Directory with the income tax opposite the name of each person who has any tax to pay. What a convenience for managing mammas with marriageable daughters. What a help to those people who value their acquaintances, new and old, by the length of their purse.—Exchange.

If they were no more reliable than the income tax lists are usually supposed to be in most localities, the "managing mammas" would stand a good chance of being frightfully "sold."

"A thing of beauty is a joy forever."
And nothing is so beautiful as a picture of health.

Headache, sour stomach, nervous pains, distress after eating, prostrating weakness, disinclination for society, mental despondency, &c., are the rule rather than the exception with the human family, and have stamped their effects upon us all. The most effective, gentle, sudden and agreeable remedy is the Plantation Bitters, prepared by P. H. Drake & Co., of New York.

"NEVER."—Never speak of your father or mother as the "old man" or "old woman."

Never reply to the epithets of a drunkard or a fool.

Never slander a woman.

Never abuse one who was once your bosom friend, however bitter an enemy now.

Never sneer at the expense of religion or the Bible.

THE REMARKABLE PROPERTIES of Brown's Bronchial Troches have been thoroughly tested since first introduced. The demand for them has steadily increased, and purely upon their own merits, they have found favor with those, who, from Pulmonary, Bronchial, or Asthmatic complaints require them. For Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Asthma, and Influenza, they are entirely efficacious, removing all obstructions, and increasing at once the power and flexibility of the voice.

Merit will not go unrewarded, though oftentimes justice may seem to be tardy. In the case of Dr. D H Seelye, who discovered the Liquid Catarrh Remedy, which has cured thousands who had almost given up hope of cure, it has been thus, but, during the last year, in the unprecedented amount of sales to inhabitants of nearly every clime, do the people acknowledge the value of his long study and great learning.

BROWN'S BRONCHIAL TROCHES.—This Universal Remedy for Coughs, Colds, and Bronchial Affections now stands the first in public favor and confidence; this result has been acquired by a test of thirteen years. Its merit and extensive use has caused the Troches to be counterfeited, and we would caution purchasers to be on their guard against worthless imitations.

HALL'S COUGH REMEDY.—We are not without experience in the use and value of this medicine in curing lung complaints. We have found it up to the full standard of merit—and regard it the best and most reliable medicine before the public for curing Coughs, Croup, Hoarseness and Asthma. It strengthens and invigorates the lungs, and should be used by every person in need of lung medicine.

The Sisters of Charity in Detroit have been robbed of $700 in specie by a scamp who had helped them secrete it when a rebel raid was anticipated. If they had laid their treasure up in Heaven that scamp would never have got at it.

"BY THEIR FRUITS YE SHALL KNOW THEM."—The almost innumerable testimonials received by Dr. D. H. Seelye, from parties who have in a short time and at trifling expense, been completely cured of Catarrh by the use of his Liquid Catarrh Remedy are unanswerable arguments. See advertisement.

OUR Satan is shocked to read in the news report that General Sherman has not only been "fooling about Augusta," but has actually been guilty of "striking Charlotte," and is now "after Florence."—Norwalk (Ct) Gazette.

THE UNDERSIGNED WILL BE A candidate for re-election at the municipal election, for the office of Justice of the Peace in the East ward.
