., And how much are you worth ?" inunired Mr. Astor. "About $5,000,000," replied Mr. Whitney. After standing and thinking in silence for a moment, "Well," said Mr. Astor, "I don't know but it is just as well to retire on that sum as it is to be rich." 5

A SECRET WORTH KNOWING .--- We some times see a man or woman at an advanced sge, who have the appearance of happiness clearly depicted in their countenances. A further acquaintance with such persons substantiates the first impression formed, and the question arises as to the cause. The best reason we can assign is that through all their lives they have been cheerful and contented, have laughed at trouble, barrowed no cares, in short, they possess "sunny tempers." To this fact alone can be traced that great secret of the happiness and contentment of advanced age, which is rarely seen at this age.

THE Act of Congress, under which the indictment against Davis for treason, is laid, was passed in 1790. It provides that "if any person or persons, owing allegiance to the United States of America shall levy war against them, or shall adhere to their enemies, giving them aid and comfort within the United States or elsewhere, and shall be thereof convicted, on confession in open court, or on the testimony of two witnesses to the same overt act of the treason whereof he or they shall stand indicted, such person or persons shall be adjudged guilty of treason against the United States, and shall suffer death."

The whole South is now profoundly quiet. There is railroad travel from Washington to South Carolina. There is telegraphic communication between Washington and Central Georgia, which will presently be completed to Montgomery and Vicksburg. The lines of telegraph between Memphis and New Orleans have been enened, and all the old connections will soon be resumed. Steamers traverse all the rivers of the South, and preparations are everywhere being made for the resumption of business.

The War Department has announced The Ninth National Bank of the that soldiers enlisted under the act of July 4, 1864, if discharged before the expiration of one-half of their term, will not Capital $1,000,000, Paid In. be entitled to the second instalment of the Government bounty. Recruits of 1863 discharged before the expiration of their term, will be entitled to the full bounty.

Regeneration is progressing in Virginia. The citizens are everywhere taking the oath of allegiance and the negrous at the turning to work on the planations. I e work of repairing the James River and Kanawha canal has already begun.

An Irish corporal, who now and then indulged in a noggin of right poteen, was thus accosted by his captain, whilst standing at ease : " Pat, what-makes your nose so red ?" "Place, yer honor," said Pat, "I always blush when I spakes to an officer."
