BAGEPTION OF GREERBAL GRANT -The PR uon of Gen Grant in this city, on Friday moon of last week, was one that reflected oredit on the patriotism and public rit of our citizens. Long before the arri of the train, an immense throng of peethad gathered at the depot, and we think are perfectly safe in supposing that not than three thousand persons were presto greet the General on his arrival. A mber of ladies and gentlemen had prepared beautiful arch, and erected it near the nige over Mill Greek, at the top of which mammoth latters the words "Welcome rant" reflected the sensiment of every pera in the crowd Considering the time in hich this arch was got up, it was an uncomonly fine affair, and the parties who particiusd in its arrangement may well feel proud their efforts. The train arrived in due time, and was no other in sight than the familiar countenance General Grant was recognized by the peole, who gave him as hearty cheersi as ever nan received. Before the cars had stopped of St. Paul's Lutheran church, and the De he General stood upon the rear platform, and as growd gathered about him in a mass fo lease that it is astonishing some persons were not sufficiented. Two of the General's he held at the residence of Gen. E. C. Wilson, aids took places on each side of the platform, preventing the people from rushing upon it, menoing on Thursday, the 15th inst The while he himself employed his time in shaking bands with the ladies and a few of the prominent citizens, now and then dropping a werd of courteey in reply to the salutations of Scott, D. W. Clark, O. Baker his visitors. As a general thing be refused to shake the hands of men and boys, and not a few who sulicited the honor were obliged to given up as a hopeless task. He used his left arm altogether, the right having been "ased up," so far as hand-shaking was conserned, on the route from New York here. The General looked and undoubtedly felt, as if public demonstrations were a bore to him, and it is really singular that people should bare been so thoughtlass as 'to increase bis discomfort when the unpleasantness of his hope to hear before long, that other brave position was so apparent. Mrs. Grant appeared for some time at the offices here. car door, and far a while the "honors" of the pocasion were about equally distributed bctween her and the General. The train reed the following officers: mained about twenty minutes, and as it went away cheer after cheer rang through the air, attesting the affection of our citizens for their country's favorite general. The proceedings were made up of a strange conglomeration of of Eris. the lively, absurd, sentimental and patriotic, affording abundant material for a sketch of the most graphic and interesting description, Evans, of North East. but at this late date we are content with lim. magourself to a mere mention of the more prominent incidents. The office of the Ledger, the Demogratic organ of Warren county, a short time ago, "was honored by a call from I. B. Gara, Eeq., iate editor of the Eris Gazette, Hen. G. W. Schofield, and E. Cowan, Esq., editor of the Mail." [Bep.] The editor says : "A trio like this from the ranks of the opposition, on a visit to the LEDGER, is a pleasant rarity," and halls it as an indication of the harmonious times coming. ----- At a meeting of the Warren scunty Democratic Committee, on Tuesday, the 6th, R. P. King, Esq., was chosen as a delegate to the State Convention. ---- The rush to Oll City is reported less than it was six weeks ago. The reason, says the Warren Ledger, is that capitalists are turning their attention to Warran county more than formerly .----- Some months ago there was a good deal of talk about building a new Presbyterian church-about $12,000 having been subsoribed for that purpose. The season is advancing, and yet the Ledger hears nothing about the church .---- The Warren Ledger reports the following curious case as having taken place before Chas. Dinsmoor, Esq., in that borengh, on the 2d inst. :

It will be remembered that Cel. Cobham's remains were brought home for buriel in August last; on the arrival of which there arose division of sentiment as to who should reing the 100 points before dark, it was pro-posed and agreed that the game be declared the Town Council arranged with the parties a drawn one, and that the match be played done, and the body placed in what is called on the same grounds on Thursday, June 15th, the Soldiers' Ground, in the Cemetery. On to receive the body, and bury it, which was who want tasty work are invited to give us a call. We Wednesday of last week, Mr. Henry Cobham, brother of the deceased, together with others, repaired to the ground, disinterred the body and took it home to Cobham Park, by the desire of the mother. The fact becoming known, gins, edifor of the West Greenville Argue, and the Committee having charge of the grounds brought the parties before Esq. Dinsmeor to answer. Hon. W. D. Brown conducted the prosecution, and Hon. C. B. Curtis, the de-fense. The main portion of the allegations were admitted ; but G. Cobham, Eeq., being sworn, testified, that it had always been un. lerstood between himself and the Committee, that the arrangement was only temporary-to wold trouble-and that he always intended to remove the remains, and his determination had been assented to by members of the Committee and other gentlemen. And, in conformity with that understanding, the remains were removed. The prosecution maintained that, according to an act of the Legislature, any person wilfully and maliciously removing bodies, or defacing edifices, &c., is liable to a year's imprisonment in the Penitertiary, or eas hundred dollars fine, or both. It was upon this point that the Court bound the parties over
