An advertisement appeared in last week's OBSERVER, over the signature of Dennis Sullivan, charging injustice on the part of Mr. Saltsman, agent in charge of the Erie & Pitts. burg Railroad Company's docks, in deducting five dollars from the pay of a workman in his employ. We have been called upon by Mr. original and independent odors-any one of Saltsman, who gives the following statement which would produce asphyxia if taken in of the case: The men board in a car kept by the company for the purpose, of which Mr. Morris, and not he, has the charge. Mr. Saltzman has nothing to do with the men except to pay them off, taking Mr. Morris' accounts as he renders them. On Saturday, when the men came to be paid, the sum of five dollars was found charged to the Englishman mentioned, and deducted by Mr. S., as he was in duty bound to do. The matter was place in that village, week before last, the discussed very freely among the workmen, and threatening to create some difficulty, Mr. S. paid the Englishman the five dollars rather than have any trouble. The Englishman is said to have been in a very filthy condition, and the bed which he occupied in the car is alleged to have been so full of vermin that it was entirely worthless, and it was for this he was charged in the account. He afterwards went to the Park House, and, we are told, spoiled a bed there, for which the proprietor compelled him to pay ten dollars. and lightened his load. Upon discovering his | The man Sullivan was discharged by Mr. Salteman some weeks ago, and has been unable to get work at the dock since. It is sup. posed by Mr. Saltsman that he had the article alluded to written and printed as a matter of spite. This is the explanation of the matter as given to us by Mr. Saltsman, and the candor of his statements compels us to believe that it is the truth. We have known him for some time as one of our most worthy young citizens, and if we had thought him to be the party referred to in the advertisement it should never have found a place in our

DAN RICE'S MONUMENT TO THE SOLDIERS .--We are indebted to Mr. Phelps, editor of the Girard Union, for an elegant engraving of the monument to be erected by Col. The structure will be a very handsome one of marble, appropriately designed, and costing about five thousand dollars. It will be dedicated on the lat of No. vember, with imposing ceremonies. To Col. dividual, who, to the best of our knowledge, has anywhere in the country erected a monument out of his own private means to prove his attachment for the brave boys who have fallen in the late struggle. He has given an instance of liberality and patriotism which cannot be too warmly commended, and long after Dan Rice's enemies will have been forgotten this monument will remain, to attest include only the amount of income, less the the generosity of his nature and the loyally
