

In the Senate, on Tuesday of last week, Mr. Doolittle (Rep.) presented a bill to authorize the President to suspend the Freedmen's Bureau and withdraw the troops from any State no longer in rebellion...

The President has passed the bill giving $25,000 to Mary Lincoln, widow of the late President.

The Message of President Johnson, in another column, we can commend with the utmost heartiness. It is a substantial indication of his determination to stand by the policy of reconstruction...

Next Governor. The Democratic State Convention for 1866, will meet at Harrisburg on the 4th of March next, for the nomination of a candidate for Governor.

Senator Sumner attempted to damage Gen. Grant's report on the condition of affairs in the South, by producing in the Senate, last week, a scrap book full of newspaper extracts and private letters...

Some kind hearted Republican friend sends us a half sheet of the Tribune, containing what purports to be a review of Mr. Buchanan's book...

The War of the American Revolution closed about eighty-three years ago; and it is announced that, of all the many thousands that once figured as Revolutionary soldiers on the pension rolls of the Government, barely two remain...

Gov. Curtis, who is now in Cuba, the Harrisburg papers say, will not return before the middle of January. As the Legislature is required by law to meet on Tuesday, the 24, some difference of opinion prevails as to the proper course to pursue in the Governor's absence.

that liberal patronage and full and generous support which it has deserved? In this respect the Democracy do not do their whole duty. The local Democratic press is entirely dependent upon the individual members of the party for support...

In looking over our country exchanges we find them all doing battle most gallantly for the cause of the right. They are doing work which can be done by no other agency. In every county in the State the local political contests are matters of decided importance.

Important Message from the President. President Johnson, in compliance with a request from the Senate, asking him to furnish them with information as to the progress of the work of reconstruction...

The holidays are close at hand and our dealers are preparing to meet the wants of the season. The largest and best stock of goods for the trade will be found at Bener & Burgess' confectionary establishment...

Cure Yourself of Dyspepsia. This most aggravating of all complaints—a disease from which more people suffer and die than almost any other—has at last found its master. Cure it in its own way, and you are cured. It is the only cure that is safe, and it is the only cure that is permanent.

The Diptheria and Scarlet Fever is creating quite an alarm in our neighborhood, and I want a bottle of Carter's Extract of Smart Weed, to be ready for it, if it should make its appearance among my children, as I have it highly recommended in such cases among my neighbors—some of them say they are never without it in their houses. Our customer yesterday, as he called for a bottle of this most valuable Extract. Let others exercise the same prudence and be prepared with this most safe and reliable.

Southern Congressmen.—Senator Hahn admits the improbability of any Southern members getting into Congress. Tennessee seems to form an exception, however, and her delegation, it is believed, will be admitted by common consent.

The President has withdrawn his Provisional Governors from the States of Alabama, South Carolina, North Carolina, Georgia and Mississippi, and turned over the reins of government there to the officers elected by the people.

Reduce the Government Expenses.—This is the advice thrust upon members of Congress from all parts of the country, and should be heeded. The people were comparatively indifferent as to the amount when enormous appropriations were voted to carry on the war, but profligate expenditure will never be encouraged...

Congress has adjourned nominally to the 5th, but really to the 9th of January. This will be good news to those who honestly wish to enjoy the holidays. It would mar all our festivities were this debating school of angry and bigoted partisans to remain in session.

The holidays are close at hand and our dealers are preparing to meet the wants of the season. The largest and best stock of goods for the trade will be found at Bener & Burgess' confectionary establishment...
