News of the Week.

The Queen of England has more Catholics under her temperal sway than the Pope, and more Musselmen than the Sultan.

Judge Field, of the Supreme Court, at Wash ington, recently received a letter from Cali-fornia, which enclosed an infernal machine. Ferver for $2,60.

The Macon (Ga.) Journal mentions a sum or of negro outrages in that vicicity. Judge Wilbur. found reveral negrees in soldier begroes (miscalled soldiers) went to the house of Henry Champion, where they ravished a young lady and destroyed all the beds and furniture. They threatened to kill Champion, but he had prudently concealed himself. They then went to Milton Massey's, and attempted an outrage upon his wife, but she succeeded in cluding them. Attempts at such ontrage are frequent in that vicinity since the regro regiment has been stationed there, and or dinary outrages and stealings are of daily occurrence.

The Raleigh (N C.) Standard says that a few days ago a squad of negro troops visited Beaufort, and for the disorder created were arrested by the police and taken to Fort Macon. The negro troops at the fort threatened and disarmed the police, and also threatened to turn the guns upon the town. The same "soldiers" went to the house of a white oitizen, not far from the fort, and while the Railroads will also be narrow gauge. Thence | man and his wife were held they ravished the Anothe squad went to another house and attempted controlled by the Philadelphia and Reading the same crime on a child of ten years. Four of the villains will be identified. The Secretary of the Treasury transmits to the House a report stating that the entire decrease of our mercantile marine during the war is ascertained by diligent inquiry not to exceed 901,466 tons; whereof 800,808 tons were transferred to foreign flags, and 101.168 tons were destroyed by pirates of the anglo rebel sort. This is less than one-fifth of the whole tonnage of the United States. The Secretary expresses a decided opinion against allowing the reissue of registers to American vessels which, during the war, were sold in order to escape the risks of capture.

The impression prevails to some extent that nearly or quite all the distinguished personages who were active rebels have been pardoned. It is stated by the Washington Republican that nearly 1,200 applications ar now upon the President's table, most of which been there for several months.
