John C. Breckenridge. A correspondent of the Cincinnata As-A correspondent of the Cincinnal As-quirer, writing from Toronto, Canada, gives the following information concerning sev eral confederate officers: "I met here General John C. Breckenridge, General McCausland, Colonel Harry Gilmore, Maj. John Gastleman, Captain Hinde and others who had been officers in the con-federate Ganada. Beachanden looks federacy. General Breckenridge looks and is in perfect health. It was repre sented during the war that his hair had turned from jet black to silvery white .-That was a mistake. A few gray hairs are perceptible about the locks, that is all. He is keeping house in an humble, retired way. He is much respected by the citizens, and is invited to two or three parties a week at the residences of the first families. He is a great walker, walking from six to ten miles a day while the weather permits such exercise. He is a hard student, reading a great deal. I could not but think that it is a great misfortune that a gentleman of his culture and intellect should be lost to his country. All the gentlemen here from the confederate army conduct themselves with great propriety, and are treated with respect and attention by the citizen?." MARRIAGE EXTRAORDINARY. -On Sunday an extraordinary marriage took place at the Union Methodist Episcopal Church, Rev. Mr. Carrow, Fourth street above Arch. Mr. Rein, a German by birth, and a celebrated tamer of horses by profession, was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Miss Hanna J. Duke, the Iowa giantess. The bridegroom served with distinction in the Union army. He is rather below the middle stature of mankind in print and in the beam at one hundred and forty pounds. The bride weighs five hundred and eighty five pounds avoirdunois. She has been exhibited at Judge Ingalis' museum, on Market street near Ninth, for some time past. Mr. Bein, on visiting the establishment, fell violently in love with the fair giantess, proposed marriage, and " of course she said yes."

Last evening, at eight o'clock, the carriage drew up before the museum, and the twain, soon to be made one, entered therein and proceeded to the church. The bridal party consisted of the Siamese twins-Chang and Eng -and other celebrities of the nuseum. Upon entering the church the visitors were the observed of all observers." They were united in the matrimonial bond in accordance with the plain usage of the Metho dist persuasion, after which they retired. The event was extraordinary because of the remarkable fact of the difference in the size of the parties. It was regarded with a great deal of interest. The bride did not falter or tremble upen being led to the altar.-Phila.

AN INCIDENT OF THE WAR.—The New York | $100 Freeman's Journal gives the following instance of distress, which was communicated to the editor, the evening before Christmas, by a lady residing in Philadelphia. In the note she mentioned that a lady had just placed in her hands a braid of beautiful brown silken hair. Its bistory was this: It was cut from the head of one of the neblest as well as most elegant women of the South—in days past— She was a resident of a Southern city, proverbial, in past times, for its hospitality she was not only elegant among the wealthy, she was, assiduously, a dispenser of benefits to all the needy she knew of. Our Lerd has given her the reward He keeps for His special friends. He has sent her the Cross to bear for Him. Having sacrificed everything else she had, to keep her children from the cold and from hunger—she, at last, cut off her beautiful hair, and sent it North Sent it to the conqueror! Sent it to "shoddy" to buy for a few dellars, for a woman to wear! The lady who parted with her own hair, thus, is looking with horror at the cold months that are coming on her little ones. Be her hair ever so beautiful, it will not keep those little ones-long from the cold, nor from hunger.

ONE WAY TO TELL.—A traveller called lately at night fall at a farmer's house in Alabama; the owner being from home, and the mother and daughter being alone, they refused to fodge the wayfarer. "How far, then," said he, "is it to a house where a preacher can get lodging?" "Oh! if you are a preacher," said the lady, "you can stop here " Accordingly be dismount ed, deposited his saddle-bags in the house, and led his horse to the stable. Meanwhile, the mother and daughter were de-bating the point as to what kind of a preacher he was. "He cannot be a Presbyterian," said one, "for he is not dressed well enough." "He is not a Methodist," said the other, "for his coat is not the right cut for a Methodist." . " If I could find his hymn book," said the daughter,
"I could soon tell what kind of a preacher he is." And with that she thrust her hand into the saddle-bags, and palling out a flask of liquor, she exclaimed:-"La! mother, he's a hard-shell Baptist!"

NEVER OUT OF THE UNION .- From the commencement of the war to its close neither the President of the United States nor Congress ever recognized the Southern or Confederate States as out of the Union. On the contrary, the war was declared for the preservation of the Union. If sucsessful, as claimed, the Union is preserved and the States hold their positions as formerly. Upon this showing no man who advocates forcible change, or who demands or claims authority over the South as conquered territory, can be considered in any other light than a traitor to the Union. If the President and Congress had recognized the Southern Con-federacy as an independent government, and had waged war for conquest, then the result would have been as the lunatics desire it, and the government would have had the undoubted right to rule as a conquering nation.

A SERVICEABLE COAT .- Many years since, an old German citizen of Pendleton county, Va., when about to lead his fair "frow to the Hymenial altar, purchased a broadcloth coat in which he was married. His wife presented him with many children, among whom were eight sons, every one of whom were married in the same cost in which their father married their mother. The youngest of the eight sons had seven sons, every one of whom were married in the same wedding coat, and after the youngest son of the seven, or the youngest grandson of the original owner of the coat, had led his blushing bride to the alter in his venerable grandfather's fashionable wedding coat, he sold it for the sum of $10. What has become of the coat since it was sold we have not been advised, but suppose that some one is keeping it for the purpose of getting married in it. As there seems to be a peculiar matrimonial virtue in this remarkable coat, old bachelors would, doubtless, give a high price for it.

A LONG LOOK ARRAD. - A cotemporary turns his visage to the future, and through the misty distance of two hundred years sees and describes the following: Scene—House of a citizen in New York. Time—A, D. 2056, A telegraph message has been sent to a servant, who presents himself at the window, in vant, who presents nimself at the window in a balloon. Master—"John, go to South America, and tell Mr. Johnson I shall be happy to have him sup with me this eve-ning." In five minutes Jehn returns., Jehn —"Mr. Johnson says he will come. He is obliged to go to the North Pole for a moment, and will call here as he comes back." Mass ter-"Very well, John. Now you may wind up the machine for setting the table, and telegraph to my wife that Mr. Johnson will be egraph to my wife that Mr. Johnson will be here presently. After that, John, you may dust out my balloon. I will have an appeint meat in Lendon at 12 o'clock." John disappears to execute these orders, while his meater stops down to the West Indies to get a fresh orange.

The Vicksburg Herald is of opinion that Senator Wilson must be a humorist of a rare sort, when he cracks the great lest of de-manding an amendment to the Constitution, prohibiting traffic in confederate, money, and this at a time when in Texas and other Southern States, where corn husks are scarce, they stuff mattra-ses with confederate notes as a matter of economy. If this is an offence, the Herald suggests that the Sesator add a necessity section to his amendment prohibiting and the sale or purchase of mattracess so filled.

"Those fiashes of Southern sentiment, hitter editorials and tossing heads, are not surprising when we think of the scourge that has swept ever them—that a proud apprit has been obliged to confess defeat at the hands of men they despised—that their property has been swept away—their sons claim—they reduced from affluence to beggary. When I think of this, the wonder is that they are as them for the feeling their fearful defeat and humiliated position, I think they have behaved well. St. Anthony's Fire, Rose, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Sore Eyes. Boald Head, Sore Eyes.

From Herrey Sickier, Esq., the able editor of the Trunkhanack Democrat, Pennsylvania.

"Our only child, about three years of age, was stacked by pimples on his forehead. They rapidly spread until they formed a loathsome and virulent sors, which covered his face, and actually blinded his eyes for some days. A skilful physician applied altrate of silver and other remedies, without any apparent effect. For, fifteen days we guarded his hands, lest with them he should tear open the festering and corrupt wound which covered his whole face. Having tried every thing else we had any loop from, we hopen giving your Skirsafarahilla, and applying the iodide of potash lotion, as you direct. The sore begin to heal when we had given the first bottle, and was well when we had given the first bottle, and was well when we had given the first bottle, and was well when we had finished the second. The child's cyclashes, which had come out, grew again, and he is now as healthy and fair as any other. The whole mighborhood predicted that the child must dis."

best medicines we have."

From A. J. French, M. D., an eminent physician of Laurence, Mass., who is a prominent member of the Legislature of Massachusetts.

DR. AYER. My dear Sir: I have found your SARBAPARILIA an excellent remedy for Syphilis, both of the primary and secondary type, and effectual in some cases that were too obstinate to yield to other remedies. Mr. Chas. S. Van Llew, of New Brunswick, N. J., ral alterative is required."

Mr. Chas. S. Van Lieu, of New Brunswick, N. J., had dreadful ulcers on his legs, caused by the abuse of mercury, or successful disease, which grew more and more aggravated for years, in spite of every remarks or treatment that could be applied, until the persevering use of ATER'S SARBAPARILLA relieved him. Few cases can be found more inveterate and distressing than this, and it took several dozen bottles to care him. Leucorrhoss, Whites, Female Weakness, are generally produced by internal Scrofulous Ut-zerotion, and are very often cured by the alterative effect of this Sarsapanilla. Some cases require, however, in add of the Sarsapanilla, the skilful uplication of local remedies.

From the well-known and widely-celebrated Dr. Jacob Morrell, of Cincinnati, at I have found your Barran and an excellent alterative in diseases of Semales. Many cases of Irregularity, Leucorrheza, Internal Ulceration, and local debility, arising from the scrofnlous disthesis have yielded to it, and there are few that do not, when its effect is properly aided by local treatment." A lady, unwilling to allow the publication of her "My daughter and myself have been cured of a very debilitating Leucorrhea of long standing, by two bottles of your Sarsaparilla." Rheumstism, Gout, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Heart Disease, Neuralgia, when caused by Scrofula in the system, are rapidly sured by this Ext. HARRAPARILLA. AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS cossess so many advantages over the other purgatives in the market, and their superior virtues are so universally known, that we need not do more than to assure the public their quality is maintained equal to the best it ever has been, and that they may be depended on to do all that they have ever done.

Prepared by J. C. AYER, M. D., & Co., Lowell France, and they have ever done.

COMETHING EVERYBODY SHOULD USE HUT OUT THE COLD, DUST AND WATER FROM YOUR DOORS AND WINDOWS.

WHITER'S INVISIBLE, METALIC
RUBBER WEATHER STRIP Does all this—is entirely out of sight in doors and windows, and is the best strip in use for the following reasons: ist, it is more effectual. 2d, it costs onelibrid ham. 2d, it will not hinder opening and closing doors or windows. 4th, it is better than double windows—does not, obstruct the view—does not hinder epassing and closing the blinds—windows can be opened so as to ventilate at any time. This atrip will stop the distin summer when your double windows are off. Yea have no benefit from your double windows are off.

This Strip keeps out the cold in winder and dust and wake in summer, and does not cost one-half the price of double windows.

This Strip is no or offered to the inhabitants of this eity. Town Rights Por Rale.

Ladies, take Particular Notice THE REAL VELPAU FEMALE PILL [WARRANTED FRENCH.]

THESE PILLS, so celebrated many years ago in Paris for the relief of female irregularities, and afterward so notorious for their criminal employment in the practice of abortion, are now offered for sale for the first abortion, are now offered for sale for the first time in America. They have been kept in comparative obscurity from the fact that the eriginator, Dr. Velpau, is a physician in Paris of great wealth and strict conscientious prin-ciples, and has withheld them from general use, lest they should be employed for unlawful purposes. In overcoming Female Obstructions, Falling of the Womb, Whites, Green Sick-ness Superssion Retention or Improducate ness, Suppression, Retention, or Immoderate Flow of the Monthly Discharges, they seem to be truly omnipotent, bursting open the flood-gates from whatever cause may have stopped them; but they are offered to the public only for legitimate uses, and all agents are forbidden to sell them when it is understood should never take them when there is any reason to believe themselves pregnant, for they will be sure to produce a miscarriage.

These pills are entirely safe under all circumstances, being composed entirely of sub-stances from the vegetable kingdom. Each box has the coat of arms for the City of Paris stamped on the box, with the words "Trade Mark" in French, to counterfeit which is a misdemeanor, and all persons will be dealt with according to law.

Full directions accompany every box.
Ladies can obtain a box scaled from the eyes of the curious, by inclosing One Dollar and six post-office stamps to any respectable druggists, or to O. G. STAPLES, General Agent for the United States, Watertown, N. Y. Agents,
