Resolved, That in our judgment the policy of the general Government should fully conform to those high principles of freedom and franchise inaugurated and foreshadowed by the political administration of Mr. Lincoln and that we emphatically condemn and renudiate the affected patriotism of the Copperhead party of the North, in their eleventh hour espousal of a Republican administration, in the hope that Andrew Johnson will betray the cheri-hed hopes and expectations of the Republican party. The coolness of these Crawford county Republicans is peculiarly refreshing. They have not the courage to either endorse or denounce Mr. Johnson, but condemn the Copperheads Thursday, the 15th inst, and for doing what they dare not do-giving his atela considerable amount of business policy an outspoken support.
